REST. MARY CLEMMER.

Weep not when I am dead, dear friend, Sweetheart, grieve not when I lie low;

While o'er my clay your soft eyes bend
Remember it was good to go.
When low you press the violet sod,
Whose purple tears enstar my breast,
Beloved, think I sleep in God.
Remember such alone are blest. The perfect silence will be dear, How dear the chance of painless rest;

And on, beyond all pain or fear,
The perfect waking will be best.
How dim this distant day will seem,
How far the grief we suffer here! This life the mirage of a dream, Merged to morning calm and clear.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

In accordance with this demand Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, introduced a bill into the Senate last winter, which was so framed as to give to the negroes complete civil rights and yet would not be declared unconstitutional. That bill is still pending in Congress and if the Republicans had the majority it would be passed and become a law. It will now be understood why the Republicans in their national convention extended to the "Republicans of the South our cordial sympathy," and pledged to them "our most earnest efforts to promote them "our most earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation" as will secure civil rights. The legislation referred to and which they pledge their most earnest efforts to promote the passage of, is the civil rights bill introduced by Senator Edmunds and now pending in Congress!

Can anything be plainer? Could any issue be tendered more clearly? Are the white people of North Carolina ready to aid the Republicans of the North in their "most" earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation?" We think not.—Pitts-

It may as well be understood that the next Legislature will be called upon by the people of North Carolida to put a stop to the practice of public servants becoming beneficiaries of private corporations. If the members of the Legislature and officers of the Supreme Court do not receive sufficient compensation an extra allowance should be made them. Why should such officers put themselves under obligations to companies whose interests are to some extent in their hands? There can be no good reason for this; the practice is vicious and should be stopped. A Judge or a Legislator is paid by the people to perform certian specific duties; if the compensation provided is insufficient and the people refuse to increase it let him in honor decline the office. Upon no principle of right can he accept any portion of his pay for the performance of public duties from a priate company. - Elizabeth City Falcon.

POLITICAL POINTS.

- "Mr. Blaine's Sancho Panza," is the Boston Post's neat but not gaudy name for Gen. Butler. - Washington Post. - The Butler Boom continues to expand .- New York Sun. True; and it has become so thin that the working men can see through it.—Phil. Record, Ind.

- Dana was too sick to preside at the Butler demonstration in New York after all. Even Dana prefers to handle Butlerism with his gloves on .- Boston Post,

- Snapping at Mr. Hendricks' Indianapolis speech affords the Blaine organs an amount of satisfaction equal to that which might be derived from the diligent gnawing of a three-cornered file.— Washington Post, Dem.

- The finest political document that has appeared since the war was the letter of Gov. Tilden. Next in rank and merit is Cleveland's letter of acceptance. It is sound, wholesome and grandly Democratic.—St. Louis Catholic Watchman.

- John Logan is delivering addresses out West on "The Results of a Protective Tariff; or, Peace, Happiness and Plenty." If all the peace, happiness and plenty that we enjoy in this country is to be attributed to the system of protection, then how much more of the thing will be necessary to establish an earthly paradise? Perhaps the peaceful and happy miners in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Alabama can answer the question.—New York World,

TWINKLINGS.

- There is a glorious immortality in store for the campaign orator who re-fuses to mention "the Augean stables," and neglects the simile, 'like Cæsar's wife above suspicion," and forgets to refer to the gathering before him as "the livest political corpse you ever saw."-Baltimore

- "John, what is that peculiar smell? The hour was late and he had just returned from the lodge. "That is the incense we use in our lodge room, my dear." "If that's all you go the lodge for, I don't see why you can't buy a few bottles of it, and keep it in the house in case of siekness." He merely remarked that he thought she was incensed enough already. -Texas Siftings.

a North Carolina Democratic newspaper, will be commenced.

The Register will be printed weekly until the great political campaign of 1834 begins. It will then be issued twice a week, or as often as may be useful or necessary to the Democratic party in North Carolina. It will be printed from new and beautiful type, on good white paper, and though it may not be large enough to hold all at once all the good things that glowing prospectuses sometimes promise, yet the application of a thorough knowledge of how to use them will put into its thirty-two bread selumns all the news, much good reading, and a complete history of what is done in North Carolina. Mr. Hall will be editor of the Register.

The price of the Register will be $2 a year; $1 for six mouths. Pay for your home paper, and then remit for the Register. Those who remit $2 to this office will receive as We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist. The Star is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Robesonian.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Wilmington STAB has entered on its twelfth rear. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an bonor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington Star is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has bedides increased the amount of its reading matter. The Star is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's Observer.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its nany birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reids-The Wilmington Stan, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We still continues on the high road to success. The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Her Health and Happiness are Matters of Great Concern to all Mankind.

NEAR MARIETTA, GA. Some months ago I bought a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, and used it in my family with great satisfaction. I have recommended it to three families, and they have found it to be just what is claimed for it. The females who have used it are now in perfect health and able to attend to their household duties. REV. H. B. JOHNSON.

STATE OF GEORGIA, Troup County. I have examined the recipe of Dr. Josiah Bradfield, and pronounce it to be a combination of medicines of great merit in the treatment of all diseases of females for which he recommends it. WM.P. BEASLEY, M. D.

SPRINGFIRED, TENN.

DR. J. BRADFIELD: Dear Sir-My daughter has been suffering for many years with that dreadfu affliction known as Female Disease, which has cost me many dollars, and nothwithstanding I had the best medical attendance, could not find relief. I have used many other kinds of medicines without any effect. I had just about given her up, was out of heart, but happened in the store of W. W. Eckler several weeks since, and he, knowing of my daughter's affliction, persuaded me to buy a bottle of your Female Regulator. She began to improve at once. I was so delighted with its effects that I bought several more bottles of it; and, knowing what I do about it, if to-day one of my family was suffering with that awful disease, I would have it if it cost $50 a bottle, for I can truthfully say it has cured my daughter sound and well, and myself and wife do most heartly recommend your Female Regulator to be just what it is represented to be.

I have for 14 years been a sufferer from a running scre on my face that everybody called a CANCER. I have used over $300 worth of medicine and found no relief. About 4 months ago I bought one bottle of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC from Dr. H. E. Heinitsh, and since have bought five others, have taken it, and it has cured me sound and well! My face is as free from a sore as anybody's, and my health is perfectly restored. I feel like forty years had been lifted off my head.
