I MORNING STAI

VOL. XXXIV.--NO. 143. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1884.

Bishop George F. Pierce was born in Greene county, Ga., 3d Feb., 1811. He was a leader before he was thirty. A sketch of him says:

"He was prominent in the general conference of the M. E. Church in 1844 in sustaining the Southern view of the quessustaining the Southern view of the question at issue. He was also a member of the Louisville Convention in 1845 and of the general conference of the church South in 1846. In 1848 he was elected President of Emory College, and held the position until 1854, when he was elected bishop. He was a great preacher, very refined in his manners, scholarly and of aristocratic carriage; tall, without being portly, neat in person, piercing eyes and a benign counternance."

"Senator Plumb, of Kansas, has been working in North Carolina, and predicts 2,000 Republican majority for that State in November."—Cleveland (O.) Herald.

Yes, they do say that his "working in North Carolina" was of the most villamous lind to emulate the deeds and methods of old Ossawatamie Brown whose "soul is still marching on." If Cleveland does not carry North Carolina by 20,000 majority it will be the fault of the Democrats. But Plumb will be guilty all the

"The Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal says that 'liar,' 'coward,' 'slanderer,' 'black-hearted and foul-tongued villain,' are some of the choice epithets that are bandied about by the two Gubernatorial candidates in North Carolina, and it concludes that they are conducting an aggressive campaign."—N. Y. Times, Rep.

This is not true. Gen. Scales, a brave and meritorious soldier, did tell Dr. York "that he lied in his throat" when he intimated that the General had behaved badly in battle. York took it. Would not the Times man have said as much?

All the papers agree that the late Senator Anthony was "an honest man." What a grand epitaph! More than 150 years ago Alexander Pope

The weather for a fortnight has been decidedly warm for the season. The summer as a whole was exceptionally cool, but about the 20th of August the hot wave struck us, and has abided with us ever since. The mercury stands from day to day at from 83 to 88 degrees.

THE STATE CANVASS.

Gov. Thos. J. Jarvis, Gen. W. P. Roberts and Capt. W. A. Darden will speak at the Court House in Kinston to day.

Walter P. Williamson, Esq., Reoublican candidate for Presidential elector, and Donnell Gilliam, Esq., Democratic candidate for Presidential elector, will address the people of the Second District as follows: At Henderson, Tuesday, Sept. 9 Warrenton, Wednesday, Sept. 10; Littleton, Thursday, Sept. 11; Scotland Neck, Saturday, Sept. 13; Wil son, Tuesday, Sept. 16-at night; Halifax, Wednesday, Sept. 17; Kinston, Saturday, Sept. 20; Trenton, Tuesday, Sept. 23; New Berne, Wednesday, Sept. 24—at night; La-Grange, Thursday, Sept. 25; Snow Hill, Friday, Sept. 26.

Charlotte Observer. Senator Vance was greeted by shout two thousand people in Mooresville. vesterday, and they say he made a rousing speech. The Sena-tor left in the afternoon for Newton, from which place he goes to Shelby, to make a speech at the big barbecue to-day.

Raleigh News-Observer. On vesterday Chas. M. Cooke, of Franklin, Hon. J. J. Davis, J. B. Batchelor and R. H. Battle spoke to a good crowd at Warrenton. There was much enthusiasm. Capt. Foote Carolina. Send what you can to the introduced the several speakers with words of encomium and encouragement. Warren contains only four white Republicans, and they say that Charles A. Cooke, the pseudo Liberal, will not get a hand-ful of whites in the county. Reports from Halifax are to the effect that Halifax is going Democratic. -- The Democrats are to have a grand jollification at Mr. Kitchin's name correctly in the Tarboro on the 9th, at which time there will be a flag raising by the Cleveland Scales campaign club, and Judge Fowle, Capt. Coke, Gov. Jarvis and other prominent speakers are expected to address the people. —— Gov. Jarvis, Gen. Roberts, Mr. Bond and Capt. Skinner spoke in Curri-tuck to a large and enthusiastic crowd. It was the winding up of That first gun for Blaine certainly the Governor's visit to this section. He and Gen. Roberts spoke in Gates, then in Hertford, then at Columbia and to-day here. The feeling in all victory all around for Blaine like this section is decidedly good. Capt. this section by a large majority vote. The New York Times estimate the section by a large majority may be expected. At Columbia the Governor was met by an ovation, everybody turning out, for Tyrrel people claim him as the especial son

- Help the orphans at the Or phan Asylum.

- Kinston Press: There are nine Cleveland and Scales clubs in the county. — The college opened last Monday with ninety pupils—the largest number that has ever been registered on first day of term in this institution.

- Raleigh News Observer: Th Presbytemans of the Scotch settlements of North Carolina, included in the ecclesiastical control of Fayetteville Presbytery, will hold an annual Sunday school convention at Big Rockfish church, in Cumberland coupty, September 16th and 17th.

- Raleigh News-Observer: The indications are that the State Exposition is going to be a big thing in every way.

The Republicans of the eighth district held their convention at Lenoir on the 3rd inst.
The nominated L. L. Green, of Watauga, for Congress, and Chas. F. McKesson, of Burke, for elector.

- The Rads in the Raleigh Distriet had such a small crowd they did not nominate for Congress but left the matter to the following Executive Committee that was chosen: Wake, J. C. L. Harris; Franklin, B. F. Bullock; Nash, W. W. Arrington; Durham, Benjamin N. Duke; Chatham, W. D. Moore; Johnston, D. W. Fuller; Orange, L. P. Berry; Alamance, Dr. B. A. Sellars.

- Graham Gleaner: At the institute held here last week 33 colored teachers were in attendance. On Friday at the close of the institute 70 colored persons were present, including committeemen and others interested. —— The dwelling of Andy Smith, living in the northern part of this county, was burned last Wednesday morning. The fire caught from a stove.

— On last Sunday Rev. C. E. Gower offered his resignation as pastor of the Graham Baptist Church.

- New Berne Journal; We boast not without cause, that the revolving pis-tol, ascribed to Colt and by which he made a colossal fortune, was invented by a North Carolinian, and by a New Bernish too, but we lost both the money and the honor of the invention. — Mr. J. L. Kinsey informs us that William Fordham, colored while working in a new ground with other hands on the lands of Mr. Thos. Harrison last Tuesday, was struck by a limb of falling tree and killed almost instantly.

- Tarboro Southerner: The corn crop in this and adjoining counties is so good that next year knowing ones say three dollars per barrel will be a big price.

About the 26th of this month there will be a professional game of billiards be-tween Mr. E. S. Bocke, of this place and Mr. Roger A. Pryor, Jr., of Danville, in the Opera House. Mr. Pryor is the best player in Virginia, as Mr. Rocke is in this State. — Why is the Republican party like a mule? Because is has neither pride of ancestry nor hope of posterity.

- Elizabeth City Economist: Bertie county dot: Our cotton and corn crops are both good, and on the Mars Hill road the crops look well. — Camden county item: Crops are improving and doing well. — Fox and deer driving are the principal pasttimes of our people. —— Perquimans notes: Cotton and peanuts are improving on all sides. —— Tyrrel and Washington jottings: Crops that have been thoroughly cultivated are fine. — Religious meet-ings are being held throughout this section. Pasquotank point: I sawiat Dr. Pool's, a few days ago, the painting that was picked up on Nag's Head beach, many years ago, and is supposed to be the likeness of Theodosta Burr Alston, the gifted and unfortunate daughter of Aaron Burr. It is a

As will be seen by reference to Manager Warren's card in another column, the 17th and 18th of September are the days set apart. — We were informed last Friday of another murder in Pitt county. Irving Land and Moses Barrett had a few words at the house of the latter, on the plantation of Mr. L. J. Barrett, in Farmville township, last Thursday night, when Lang seized an axe and buried it almost up to the eye in the head of Barrett, killing him almost instantly. From what we can learn the murder was most unprovoked.

R. Dall, and the aged mother of Sheriff Luby Harper, have passed sway since our last issue. — We are informed that Mr. Ivey Smith killed a very large bear in the upper portion of Duplin a week or so ago. — A friend who is well posted in Lenoir county politics writes us: Politics highly encouraging. We are going to elect Jesse Grainger by at least 150 majority, and will carry the county for Cleveland and Scales, — Our young friend and former mailing clerk, Cadet Tom Washington, who has been absent for two years on board the Constellation, the training ship of "Uncle Sam's" Navy, returned home last Sunday, on a 30 days' furlough, — The Duplin county Democratic Executive Committee has so far made four appointments for its county candidates, viz: Mill Swamp, Cy-R. Dall, and the aged mother of Sheriff county candidates, viz: Mill Swamp, Cypress Creek township, Friday, Sept. 19th; Rose Hill, Satunday, Sept. 20th; New Road, Hunter's store, Friday, Oct. 3d; Alum Spring, Kornegay's Bridge, Saturday, October 4th.

Pittsboro Record: Mr. J. R. Jones, of Gulf township, has forwarded to the State Throcition, two beets weighing 131 and 151 pounds respectively, and he left several more of about the same size in his garden. — One of our countymen recently trailered another to fight a duel, and the latter being informed that he had the choice of weapons he selected, as the way of settling their difficulty, pulling at a hand-spike. That ended the duel. — We saw here, on last Monday, one of the most remarkable looking specimens of humanity that we have ever seen. It was a colored that we have ever seen. It was a colored boy, 18 years old, named Ahner Dorsett. His head was three or four times the size of the average human head, being nearly as large round as a half bushel measure. His body was so drawn up that his hip-bones and shoulder-blades met together. His feet and legs were twisted and shruken, and were utterly useless. — Mr. Alsa Mitchell, of this county, died last week. His wife died about six years ago and was buried on the plantation. Mr. Mitchell requested to be buried at Bell's Church, and desired his wife's body to be exhumed and placed beside his, and when they dug into her grave her body was found to be as firm and solid as a rock, having become petri-fied. Her features were not shrunken and the face was as full as a healthy live person. Her dress looked as natural and perfect as

- In the game, of base ball be tween the "Cleveland" and "Silver Star" clubs, mentioned in our last, the score should have been 21 for the "Cleveland" and 13 for the "Silver Star."

- We learn that some of the rice planters are taking the precaution this sea son to put their rice in a safe place as fast as gathered, so it will not be subjected to the rayages of storms and tides as it was last year, when some of the planters lost quite beavily.

- A little black kitten, with card attached to its neck, on one side of which were the words "Blaine and Logan for President," and on the other "Jim Blaine," attracted attention on Market street vesterday morning, as it was passed from door to door.

- It is encouraging to see that at tention is being directed to our section a peculiarly adapted to fruit culture. Al that is wanted is a railroad to the sound and on to Onslow to convert the barren wastes into waving fields, richly laden or chards and beautiful vineyards.

- The store No. 26 North Front street has been handsomely fitted up and will be opened as 'The Gem' saloon this evening. Mr. Will West is the proprietor and will be assisted by Mr. James Lewis, who is well known to those who practice at the Wilmington bar. Of course, there will be a-well, kommonly kalled a free unch on the opening night.

- We have before us a very near pamphlet from Harrell's Printing House, Weldon, containing the Rules and Regula tions and Schedule of Premiums of the fifteenth annual fair of the Roanoke & Tar River Agricultural Society, to be held at Weldon, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 10th, 11th, 12th, 18th and 14th of November. Charge Not Sustained.

E. E. Shuter, from one of our neighboring counties, had an examination before Justice Millis, yesterday morning, charged with "gambling at cards and betting money in a house where spirituous liquors were sold, in violation of section 1,042, chapter 25, of the Code of North Carolina." At the close of the investigation the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. Capt. W. S. Norment appeared for the

An Independent Outlaw.

Parties well acquainted with the much talked of Pompey Sneed say they saw and talked with him Thursday night, in the vicinity of Fourth and Nixon streets. He said he supposed there was a crowd out looking for him, but he didn't seem to be at all afraid that he would fall into their clutches, but walked around picking his banjo with as much nonchalance as if he were in a land where outlawry and sheriff's posses had never been heard of.

Persons residing in the eastern section of the city heard a good deal of firing going on somewhere in the direction of the cemetery. Thursday night, and imagined that Pompey and his confederates had been routed from their hiding place and were perhaps being captured. We have not heard what the firing meant.
