OUTLINES.
About forty buildings were wrecked in Clear Lake, Wis., by the cyclone; the damage to property is about $250,000. — A dreadful flood in Chippewa and Eau Claire counties, Wisconsin, caused great damage; fire bridges and a large number of buildings were washed away at Chippewa Falls.
— J. H. Spiker, a private banker of Washington City, D. C., committed suicide on account of business troubles.
— Berger, Hurlbut & Livingston, sugar refiners, New York City, have made an assignment, with preferences for about $175, 000. — A tank containing 35,000 gallons of oil was struck by lightning at Buffalo, N. Y. — A tornado at Alpena, Mich., carried 40,000 feet of lumber into the lake; one man was killed by lightning and another had an arm broken. — Rumored that Gen. G. H. Sharpe will be appointed Secretary of the Treasury.
— Capt. Hogue's homestead is to be sued for $12,000. — A furniture factory in South Birmingham burned; loss $300,000.
— Bishop & Co.'s cigar factory at Cincinnati, turned by incendiaries; loss $30, 000. — Gov. Hendricks delivered an address at the Ohio State Fair, in Toledo, Tuesday. — The cholera epidemic in Naples increases hourly; the misery and suffering of the poor are appalling; in the last twenty-four hours there have been 968 fresh cases and 328 dead from cholera.
— New York markets: Money 4 per cent; cotton easy at 13 1/2 @ 14 1/2; wheat, southern flour quiet at $3.30 @ 3.40; corn, ungraded red 7 1/2 @ 7 3/4; corn, ungraded 5 1/2 @ 5 3/4; rosin dull at $1 27 1/2 @ 1 30; spirits turpentine dull at 31c.

Senator Bayard complains that the campaign on both sides is very dull.
Isn't it about time that the Democrats should begin to organize in earnest?
What is lower than it has been but once in thirty years. At Minneapolis, Minn., it sold for 75 cents, No. 1, on the 7th inst.
And now they call Jim Blaine "the Artful Dodger." How he did fool Jim Dow and the Prohibitionists.
Jim will fool any one who will trust him.
The heat has been terrible in the North. In Philadelphia on the 9th inst., there were five deaths from heat, and a great many cases of sunstroke are reported.
Major Charles M. Stedman, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will address the people at Clinton, Sampson county, on Tuesday, September 30th.
Senator Vance is reported in the Raleigh Register as summing up the Radical position in North Carolina in the matter of abolishing the internal tax as follows:
"Resolved, 1st. That we, the Republican party of North Carolina, are a nuisance.
Resolved, 2d. That we ought to be abolished.
Resolved, 3rd. That nobody can be trusting to abolish us but us."

THE MORNING STAR

VOL. XXXIV.—NO. 148. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1884. WHOLE NO. 5313

According to the New York Herald the twenty-four members of Tammany on the Committee on Resolutions and Address met on Tuesday night and unanimously indorsed Cleveland and Hendricks. In this connection we may state that Tammany will soon issue an "Address to the Democracy of New York and the Union." The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, moderate Republican, writes this on the 9th about the "Address":

"While declaring that Grover Cleveland was nominated in spite of the protests and remonstrances of the great body of the New York Democracy, yet Tammany, which voices its feelings and sentiments, will not permit its resentment to stand in the way of defeating the party that has so long misgoverned the country, and, from this time until sun-down on election day, it will zealously labor for the success of Cleveland and Hendricks as a high patriotic duty, of which the members of the committee appointed to prepare the address, and, therefore, it is probably correct."

The Philadelphia American has lost character since the campaign began. It is warmly supporting Blaine.
That will explain the reason of the deterioration. In an editorial paragraph it makes the following absurd and untrue statement:

"The Congressional Campaign Committee of the Democratic party has assessed every officeholder in the Capital, although members of Congress are forbidden by law to ask for contributions, and although it is illegal for an official to pay such to them.
Please inform your reader of the truth or falsity of the unqualified assertion of the committee appointed to prepare the ad-
rect."

We are astonished to see such a paragraph in the American. There are papers whose columns such work would better suit.
Puck and Harper's Weekly have given the "tattooed man" such a terrible time of it that the Rads have started a new pictorial weekly to help out the Judge, and the daily Chicago Inter-Ocean has gone into the business also. That able but extreme paper has but two principles; first, to defend all that the meanest Radicals do, and second, to oppose any Democratic measure whilst defaming and slandering Democratic leaders.

THE STATE CANVASS.
Greensboro Workman.
The political canvass seems to be growing warm. At some places great care has to be exercised to avoid a collision. We sincerely hope that the people may be restrained from all excess. It will not pay anybody to have a bloody affray.
Asheville Citizen.
Yesterday was a regular gala day for the Democracy of Buncombe county. Scales and York, candidates for Governor, met here in joint debate, according to appointment.
Gen. Scales gave York the most severe castigation we ever heard, and completely won the crowd. The white Republicans looked disappointed and defeated, and but few save the negroes took part in the hurrahing for York. The crowd was large and Democratic.
— Col. Wm. Johnston will address the citizens of Mecklenburg county on Friday night, 12th, at 8:30 o'clock, in Independence Square. Among other things, he will explain the origin and principles of the Liberal party.

Chadbourne Times.
Hon. R. T. Bennett, Democratic nominee for Congress for the 6th district, spoke to quite a large crowd on Monday at Whitesville. It was the first time Col. Bennett had ever addressed the people of Columbus. He spoke for one hour and a half. His speech was highly complimented by all who heard him, and every body went off delighted with the speaker.
The audience was unusually quiet and attentive. His speech was of such a character, as not to arouse the prejudices of his adversaries; but was full of good sound argument, and was especially marked for the modest way he drew the distinction between the two great political parties.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic.
The Republican Congressional Committee decided not to make a nomination for Congress. Josiah Turner will be allowed the field. During the progress of affairs there was trouble between Col. A. W. Shaffer and Col. Jno. W. Betts, a white reviewer of Chatham, when the latter called Shaffer a liar and a scoundrel, repeating the epithet twice.
Soon after Shaffer struck his hat on his head and left the convention "in a body."
Greenville Standard.
The speech of Col. Harry Skinner, before the County Convention on last Thursday, might well be styled a masterpiece of political oratory.
Col. Skinner is a powerful and effective canvasser, and if he speaks at several places on the other side of the Sound, as we have heard he intends during the campaign, we predict that those people over there will say that ere many years have passed away Pitt county will be entitled to another Congressman.

The Indianapolis Sentinel has served notice that it will begin taking depositions at Millersburg, Ky., on the 22nd inst. The witnesses at Millersburg are: John A.
Miller, Daniel A. Smith and wife, Joseph W. Miller, R. A. Miller, W.
A. Miller, Mrs. Sus Zarnburg and B.
F. Johnson. At Paris—Samuel T.
James and Dr. Wm. Kinney. At Georgetown—Mrs. Mary E. Bryan, John T. Smarr, Webb Ross and C.
W. West. At Eminence—H. Todd Batterson.

Senator Vance once told us that there were more good stump speakers in North Carolina than in any other State. A nephew of the writer who resides in Virginia, Abram W. Venable, writes to the Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic:

"Our candidate for Representative is Hon. John W. Daniel. He is a grand speaker, though not superior to Daniel G.
Fowler, or Col. Tompkins, of S. C., and on the stump cannot come up to our old Zeb."

Among the guests at the Eagle Hotel are Miss Mary Davis, of Mississippi, a niece of Jefferson Davis, and the Misses Crow-well, of Halifax county, this State, granddaughters of Oliver Cromwell. Asheville Citizen.

The great ruler died in 1658. The ladies must be extremely old—over 200. In Halifax they are called Cromwell. We have understood that the family are thought to have been of the Cromwell stock.
Mr. J. Parker Jordan is an old North Carolinian resident in Washington City. He is a lawyer and is in trouble under a very serious charge. Miss Belle Carroll, aged 17, accuses him of trying to outrage her person whilst she was visiting his office on business.

Spirits Turpentine.
— Help the Oxford Orphan Asylum.
— Mr. C. M. Williams, of Asheville, is dead.
— Still improving. Warren has just lost a negro 116 years old. Next.
— The Delavator is the name of a new Democratic weekly published at Asheville. J. F. Davidson, editor and proprietor. Price $3 in advance. It is very neatly printed.
— New Bern Journal: Maj. Gordon of Egypt farm, in the city. He says the ootun crop in his section, though much better than last year, will not be an average one. Corn is reported excellent in every direction.
— Chadbourne Times: Green Swamp, which lies partly in Columbus and partly in Brunswick, is the highest land in that section. Last week three gentlemen came by private conveyances from Jones county, a distance of 140 miles, to inspect the lands here with the view of purchasing and settling on the line of the Chadbourne road.

Shoe Heel Print: We learn that Mr. Ervan D. Cameron, of Laurinburg, has given up the practice of law, and is studying for the ministry. He will preach his first sermon next Sunday at Laurinburg, in the Methodist church. May all of his sermons be good ones. (He is the son of the late John E. Cameron, one of the brightest and best preachers in the North Carolina ever lived.) — Elizabeth City Times: On account of sickness Judge Graves did not reach Currituck courthouse until Tuesday afternoon. He immediately opened court and charged the grand jury. There are two murder cases to be tried. — Dr.
Wm. R. Capshaw, of Bertie, one of the distinguished and best known physicians in this country, is preparing a medicinal preparation for the exhibition. It will be perfect in every detail. — A section of ten feet in diameter will be a wonder at the Exposition. It was cut by Mr. A.
Hunt, Collins on his Scuppernon farm, and will be contributed by him.

Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic.
The Rev. Edward Wooten, pastor of Trinity Church, at Statesville, has received, and we are glad to know, has declined, an impressive call to a parish in Georgia. — It is truly distressing to hear the daily assault of financial stringency in this and Central Carolina. Many of the strongest firms are compelled to give accommodations at thirty and sixty days. — There is much regret that Dr. Harding was lost to the Presbyterian ministry in North Carolina, and we have heard it rumored that his well known culture and learning, together with his popularity among young men, would make him very useful as the president of one of our State colleges.
— Asheville Citizen: The Reems Creek boys, Sam Hemphill, Sam Ballard, Greg. Chambers, Jr., Hardy Chambers, Miller, Kever, John Kelly and Robert Chambers took their excellent pack of ten dogs and went to Orange, a few days ago, to hunt for a bear. After a hunt of about four hours they got one "on the run," but soon the faithful dogs made him take to the trees. Greg. Chambers fired a charge into him, which brought him to the ground; he then gave him the benefit of another, both of which only wounded him. The bear arose, caught one of the dogs in his paw, and just as he was about to give the fatal hug, Greg. ran up and caught him by the ears and held him until Miller, Kever could cut his throats.

Raleigh News Observer: Wake's crop of cotton is sure to be a light one, and a well known cotton dealer yesterday said that the crop will be about 200 bales. — Mr. Moore N. Amis, of Raleigh, who is stepping to the front as an inventor, has added another to his new inventions.
His first was a combined snail support and proof sheet holder; the second a combined guide and copy holder. These will be manufactured by the Enterprise manufacturing company of Philadelphia.
The Rev. Dr. E. H. Harding, formerly of the Second Presbyterian church of Charlotte, but now of Augusta, Kentucky, delivered a sermon of great power, eloquence and beauty on Sabbath morning in the First Presbyterian church of this city. It was a sermon that has elicited more universal praise. (Wasay of Dr. Harding, as we said of Dr. Pritchard when in Kenucky, some home. Dr. Harding is one of the best cultivated and most gifted of his North Carolina brethren, and we mean every word we say and mean what we are talking about.)

— Charlotte Observer: Solomon Johnson colored, was employed by the Air Line Railroad company in this city as a "case-chosen." Yesterday morning, Johnson entered a car at the depot, standing brush in hand, to clean it out. He began at one end of the car, but had not gone half way through it before he fell dead across a seat. Mr. Joseph Marshall, who was sheriff of Stanley county for twenty-nine years, died at his home in Albemarle, on the evening of the 10th inst. He was about 61 years of age and was a prominent man in Stanley county. He represented Stanley and Orange counties in the Senate in 1866 and '67, and was a member of the constitutional convention of 1870. The District of Orange county, will be the youngest member of the next Legislature. He carried the primaries last Saturday and will be the Democratic nominee for the House for Cleveland. He is not quite twenty-one. — Mrs. McEachern, an aged lady, and a relative of Capt. J. G.
Freeland, of this city, died Monday morning at Capt. Freeland's residence, of injuries received two months ago.

The Mayor Hall yesterday received a letter from Geo. F. Parrott, a justice of the peace of Lenoir county, in reference to Irving Lang, the murderer, of which the following is a copy:
"There is a man (a negro) for whom the Governor has offered a reward. The last account of him was that he would his way to your city. He is a murderer from Pitt county, and has been in my neighborhood for several days, but left Sunday on his way to W. where he expects to take a boat for some unknown place. He is about 30 or 35, is black; has a mustache which he fixes up much; has a severe scar on his left jaw, also, I think, on the right jaw; is heavy set, but not tall; has a short neck, and appears to be a powerful man. He deliberately killed Moses Barrett, in Pitt county, some two weeks ago. His real name is Irving Lang; he has been last week called himself Aaron. He will walk, I think, to W. Please do your best for him and notify me at once."

Chief of Police Beck visited the county jail yesterday morning, when the prisoner was brought forth from the cell and found to answer to the description given above.
He also reiterated his confession that he did the killing.
Since the above was written Deputy Sheriff Shaw has received a telegram from Sheriff W. M. King, of Pitt county, giving almost the identical description of Lang that Justice Parrott did, and requesting the Deputy Sheriff to wire him if it suited.
The latter immediately answered that Lang "filled the bill," and it is supposed that an officer will come for him at once.

Pompey Sued.
It was rumored on the streets last night that Pompey Sued had been shot and killed yesterday morning at Goldsboro.
The rumor was confirmed by two gentlemen who arrived in the city last night from Goldsboro, and who stated that a party of five or six men searching for the outlaw came upon him and shot him while he was attempting to escape. He was shot through the body with buckshot and mortally wounded. It was thought that he could not survive the wounds he received longer than a few hours. He had a brother living in Goldsboro, and was well-known to citizens of that place.

Magistrate's Court.
The case of John Hurst, colored, charged with assault and battery upon Catherine Williams, also colored, came up before Mayor Hall, yesterday morning, in his capacity of a justice of the peace, and it was finally dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. The evidence showed that plaintiff went to the house of defendant to get some money due her. Defendant said he did not have the money, and plaintiff commenced abusing him. Finally he ordered her to leave the premises, which she refused to do, when he used the force necessary to compel her to go; that is, he pushed her out at the door and then closed the shutter.

Speaking To-Night.
A telegram was received yesterday from Col. John N. Staples, by Mr. Thomas W.
Strange, President of the Young Men's Democratic Club. The telegram stated that Col. Staples had been detained at Greensboro all the week by important business, and would not reach this city before Friday evening; that if not too late, he would address the Club that night; and fulfill his engagement at Nashville the next day—Saturday.

The Young Men's Club meet in the City Court room this evening, when Col. Staples will probably address the meeting. The Gorner Concert Club is, expected to be in attendance.

Receipts of cotton yesterday 198 bales.
— The work on the Baptist church steeple has about been completed, and the scaffolding is now being taken down.
— Rev. T. H. Fritchard, D. D., will preach at Brooklyn Hall to night, at 8 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.
— Weather permitting, the final yacht race of the season, under the direction of the Carolina Yacht Club, will be held over the Wrightville course this afternoon.
— The season at the Wilmington Opera House will open with a Humpty Dumpty performance on the evening of the 25th inst. It will be open three times during the month.
— The brig Carrie E. Pickering, Capt. Marshall, was cleared from this port for Demerara yesterday, by Messrs. E.
Kiddler & Son, with 250,000 feet of lumber, valued at $3,200.
— The schooner S. G. Hart, Capt.
Smith, was cleared for Payson, S. A., yesterday, by Mr. A. R. Campbell, with 303,629 feet of lumber and 10,108 feet of paling, the whole valued at $6,000,95.

An adjourned meeting of the Republican Congressional Convention for the 6th District will be held at Rockingham on Tuesday, the 24th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress and an elector for the District.

— It looked stormy all day yesterday, and a large amount of rain fell, but the expected equatorial has not struck here up to this writing (7 p. m. Thursday), and the signal office says he has had no intelligence of it since it was on the Florida coast Wednesday.
— It is hoped that our business men will take an interest in the matter and help our Light Infantry boys to make a good show at the State Exposition. We hope to see the company go with full ranks, and do this our merchants and others will have to let their employes off.

CITY ITEMS.
DO IT TO-DAY.—Care that horrible cold with Benson's Capote Plasters. They will help you win. Don't wait. 25c.
A GREAT BLOOD MEDICINE.—ROSA DALES cures Scrofula, Swelling, Gout, Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, &c. Read the following: I have been a great sufferer for 15 years, not able to walk from an injured leg.
I tried many M. D.'s and their remedies to no purpose. I believe ROSA DALES will cure me. Send me one dozen by steamer. It was recommended to me by a friend. I have taken two bottles, and find it helping me. The draught which usually keeps it out of it, and I cannot afford to wait the slow arrival of the supplies.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you distressed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child crying and crying so much that you feel it, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething.
It is the best remedy for all the troubles of the little sufferer. It will soothe the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures croup, whooping cough, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.
