A beautiful dream from a glorified past OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES

In his speech at Kinston on last Saturd Governor Jarvis boldly charged that the was not a single provision in the Consti tion of North Carolina for the protect of life, liberty and property that was a violated by the Republican party while power in this State. On the other hand challenged any Republican to show wh the Democratic party had violated a sing provision of the Constitution for the p tection of life, liberty and property. This a grave charge to make against a parthat is again seeking to control the Sta government, and if true furnishes a reaso above all others, why the people who we to preserve the Constitution and enjoy i privileges of good government should pear at the ballot box, and in a legitim way protest against the transfer of t State government to that party which h no more regard for the welfare and happ ness of the people than to violate the ve-instrument which has been framed for the purpose of securing these great blssings. New Berne Jonrnal.

As a fact, the Republican party was bot more out of hate for the South and its in stitutions than from devotion to any of idea -not out of love for the negro so mu as hate towards those whose interests was made to serve. As a fact, also, the party had no thought to free the negr when it was done, notwithstanding the poor negro worships the belief so fervently It was only an accident of war and done a war measure, which scheme, as the sequ of a whipped South proved, succeeded. I claim, then, to being the party of high me ral ideas and all that sort of boast can ver properly be laughed at in the light of i nistory. Its mission, if it ever had one b yond hatred for the South, has long sin been accomplished, as admitted by tho sands who until recently acted with it. I ends and objects now are "treasons, strat -Rockingham Rocket

THE CAMPAIGN.

— Indianapolis, Sept. 9.— Ex-Gov. Hendricks and wife will leave here this evening for Toledo, where the ex-Governor is to deliver an address at the State Fair. Before returning to this city Mr. Hendricks will make several speeches, political and otherwise.

- WILKESBORO, PENN., Sept.8.-John Boyle O'Reilly, of Boston, who has been making a tour of the Susquehanna River in a small boat, starting from its headwaters five day ago, arrived here today and anchored. In an interview with a Times correspondent he said he had no doubt of Cleveland's election. The sober second thought of the people is now assert-

- George B. Wright, one of the Massachusetts Independent Committee of One Hundred, on the 8th inst., gave a surrising account of the Independents or ganization in Massachusetts. From the daily reports of the Central Committee Mr. Wright figures out a sweeping Democratic majority in Massachusetts, and that at least 40,000 Republicans will vote for Cleveland in that State. He estimates the Butler vote at 10,000 in Massachusetts.

- MILWAUKEE, WIS., Sept. 8.— Bets on the election are being made daily. On last Saturday it was stated that Angus Smith had been for two days offering to bet $30,000 to $25,000 on the election of Blaine, but had so far met with no Democrat willing to take him up. To day ,on Change, E. C. Wall informed Mr. Smith that he was authorized by a Chicago man to take the offer to bet $30,000 to $25,000 that the Republican ticket would be elected. -N. Y. Times.

- DES MOINES, Sept. 8.-Gen. DES MOINES, Sept. 8.—Gen. Butler spent yesterday quietly at Colfax Springs, whither Gen. Weaver, the Hon. E. H. Gillette, and other Greenbackers went early in the day. A conference was held between Butler and the party magnates. This afternoon 7,000 or 8,000 people were present when he began his speech, composed largely of city workingmen and coal miners. Many left after they had gazed upon his features, but 5,000 heard him through and cheered his best points heartily. There is no doubt that his visit has benefited the allied opposition. ---

POLITICAL POINTS.

- The death of Secretary Folger is coldly commented upon, in the main, by the Republican press. If he had been a great jobber there would have been louder lamentation.—Philadelphia Record, Ind.

- In the preliminary contest in his own State, with every possible advantage on his side. Mr. Blaine falls behind Fremont, Lincoln and Grant and runs a little ahead of R. B. Hayes.—Washington Post, Dem.

- Mr. Bowen's sale of his editorial columns by contract to Jay Cook & Co., to help on the sale of their bonds is one of the things we have in mind as illustating the danger of putting Blaine in the Presidential chair and justifying our preference for Cleveland with all his faults.—New York Reening Post, Rep.

-Mr. Blaine, with eyes cast down, voted the straight ticket, passed by the amendment box, waited for Walker to vote, also only the straight ticket, and then left the place. Twenty five persons or more were in the room. "Dodged, by gosh!" said one stalwart Democrat, loud enough for him to hear.—Account in the New York esteem the Stan very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington Star has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Star terv highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial described Rieds.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of forme that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newerager it has few equals, and no superior, for arrispriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our mestaccerta ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.

NEAR MARIETTA, GA. Some months ago I bought a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, and used it in my family with great satisfaction. I have recommended it to three families, and they have found it to be just what is claimed for it. The females who have used it are now in perfect health and ble to attend to their household duties. REV. H. B. JOHNSON.

SPRINGFIELD, TENN. DR. J. BRADFIELD: Dear Sir-My daughter has been suffering for many years with that dreadfu affliction known as Female Disease, which has cost me many dollars, and nothwithstanding I ad the hest medical attendance, could not find relief. I have used many other kinds of medicines without any effect. I had just about given her up, was out of heart, but happened in the store of W. W. Eckler several weeks since, and he, knowing of my daughter's affliction, persuaded me to buy a bottle of your Female Regulator. She began to improve at once. I was so delighted with its effects that I bought several more bottles of it; and, knowing what I do about it, if to-day one of my family was suffering with that awful disease, I would have it if it cost $50 abottle, for I can truthfully say it has cured my daughter sound and well, and myself and wife do most heartly recommend your Female Regulator to be just what it is represented to be. Respectfully, H. D. FRATHERSTON. Treatise on the Health and Happiness of Wo man mailed free to any address. .
