TAMMANY HALL.

Address to the Democratic Party of the United States - A Resolution Endorsing and Ratifying the Nominations of Cleveland and Hendricks.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—At the Tammany Hall meeting this evening an address "To the Democratic Party of the United States" was reported. After referring to the fact that the Tammany organization is the oldest political organization in the United States, and to its past history, the address states that tariff agitation by Tammany Hall resulted in drawing attention to the necessity of such reduction of duties as would provide means sufficient for the re quirements of the government, and at the same time afford incidental protection necessary to American labor. The address continues: "We have advocated at all times a reduction of taxation—municipal, State and federal. Home rule and local self-government have always been cardinal thought possible four days ago. We have at all times opposed centralization of power as dangerous to our republican institutions, and have not hesitated to condemn the unnecessary, unjust and undemo-cratic interference of the State Legislature and executive in our municipal affairs. We championed the cause of an anti-monopoly in 1881 and the ensuing campaign of 1882. that resulted in the triumphant election of the present Governor of the State."

The address then recites that the Tammany organization favored many measures before the State Legislature but which were defeated by Republicans united with recalcitrant Democrats and by vetoes of Gov. Cleveland. The address says that other instances might be mentioned to warrant the opposition shown to the nomina-tion of Cleveland to the Presidency. It then canvasses events connected with the Tilden and Hancock campaigns, claiming loyalty to party on the part of Tammany. It then refers to the last National Democratic Convention, and says: "While we were celebrating the anniversary of our national independence our opponents took every occasion to prejudice the minds of delegates at Chicago against us. We pre-sented our argument to individual and assembled delegates of the National Convention and were debarred the right to speak except by consent of the delegates from other States and were prohibited under the undemocratic unit rule from casting our ballots for candidates of our choice. We failed not in our duties to our constituents who sent us, nor to the party whose representatives we were, and if any mistake has been made it is not of our doing, and cannot be charged to us. The candidates of the Democratic party having been nominated in the National Convention, following the uniform and unbroken record of our organization, we acquiesce in the will of the majority of the representatives of the party, although we believe that will to have been unwisely expressed. There is but one alternative to us -to sever our connection with the Democratic party. This we cannot and will not do. In justice to our conscience and judgment we cannot pursue that course, for we believe that time will disconnect the great Democratic party from the leadership of men who have used their power unwisely and detrimentally to its success. We acquiesce in although protesting against the unwise and injudicious course which they pursued. Under the Democratic party a citizen is protected at home and abroad, and the release of Martin Kostza is an instance to show with what celerity the protection of the United States was thrown around an American citizen under a Democratic administration and Secretary of State-the late W. L. Marcy-in comparison to the halting policy of the Republican Secretary of State—James G. Blaine—during the Presidency of Garfield in allowing Mc-Sweeny and other adopted citizens of the United States, against whom no charges were alleged or proven, to linger for months in British dungeons. We believe in the Democratic party and its immortal principles. Men make mistakes; its representatives and leaders may be inconsistent, time-serving and lack the strength of their convictions, but in it are liberty to be found, freedom of thought, freedom of speech and action, and protection to every

"For reasons herein set forth, we recom-mend this organization to support the nominces of the Democratic party for President and Vice President, made at Chicago, on Friday, July 10th, 1884, and submit for its consideration and adoption the following "Resolved, That we, the Democratic-Re-county of New York, in Tammany Hall assembled, ratify and endorse the nominations by the National Democratic Convention, held in Chicago on July 10th, 1884—for President, Grover Cleveland, of New York; for Vice President, Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indians—and hereby pledge ourselves to an earnest and cordial support of the candidates so nominated."

Ex-State Senator Grady opposed the adoption of the address, and in a resolution denounced Gov. Cleveland, and the managers who secured his nomination, and declared himself a follower of Benjamin F.

An Atrocious Negro Murderer Hanged in Cincinnati-An Execution in San

(By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) CINCINNATI, September 12.—Benjamin Johnson, colored, was hanged this morn-ing for complicity with Allen Ingalls in the murder of Beverly Taylor, his wife and little girl, near Avondale, last February. The bodies of the victims of that crime were immediately brought by Ingalls and Johnson to the Ohio Medical College, and the murderers received $45 for the subjects. A week afterwards the bodies were found in the college and Johnson and Ingalls were arrested. The atrocity of this crime, together with the action of the jury in fixing the grade of William'Berner's crime as manslaughter, when it was a clear case of murder in the first degree, were the potent causes leading to the riot of last spring.

Johnson's death was almost instantaneous, and without peculiar feature. The execution book place in the jail yard, the scaffold being screened by canvas.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—Frank Hutchings, the strangler, was hanged here to day, at 12.43 p. m.

Failure of a Large Manufacturing Firm with Heavy Liabilities. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) Boston, Sept. 12.—The following dispatch, received from Fall River, confirms reports to the same effect from other sources: Stafford & Co., of this city, yarn manufacturers, and running mills in Greenwich and Pawtucket, R. I., and Dighton and Norton Mass and Norton, Mass., have made an assignment. Their liabilities are $400,000, of which $100,000 is secured. The firm's mills are still running. They contain 15,000 spindles.

Affairs of the Suspended National Bank of New Brunswick. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.)

New Brunswick, Sept. 12.—Bank examiner Shelly last night completed his examination of the affairs of the National Bank of New Jersey and forwarded his statement to the Comptroller of the Treasury for official approval. The result of the examination shows a better condition of examination shows a better condition of affairs than was anticipated, and to make matters still more satisfactory the directors stated at noon to day that since Shelly completed his work they had found some as-sets which gave the bank still better finan-cial showing than was developed by the official inspection. The same director said the bank would doubtless resume business in a week or ten days and that all reports as to a new charter and suspension until November were false. The director said much of the future course of the bank would depend upon the liberality of its largest patrons. It is understood that the officers will take one of three courses open to them: If the largest creditors do not make a peremptory demand for their de-posits in full, business can be resumed on the old basis of capital stock; that if the depositors demand payment it may be necessary to dispose of some premium govern-ments owned by the bank, in order to meet these demands which will necessarily reduce the stock as well as circulation. The director declined to state the other course available. The condition of the bank's affairs is therefore much better than was

The Cholera Scourge in Naples-Manchester Markets.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.) MANCHESTER, Sept. 12.-Yarns and cleth dull; prices generally in buyers' favor. The Guardian's commercial article says: Business is meagre, and owing to the dullness of the cotton markets, prices have not improved. Buyers are indisposed to anticipate future wants but postpone the execution of orders, in the belief that they will gain by waiting. ROME, September 12.—King Humbert has given sixty thousand dollars for the relief of cholera sufferers at Naples. The condition of affairs in Naples continued to im-proved throughout last night. Wooden huts are being built for the shelter of the poor and sick. The apprehended meat fa-mine has been averted and the strike of the butchers has been settled. Public assistance is given to small dealers who have been ruined by the epidemic. Shops close at 4 o'clock. The city everywhere pre-sents a mournful aspect and profound gloom prevails. King Humbert declines to leave the city.

William W. Astor, American Minister to Italy, has subscribed $1,000 to the fund for the relief of cholera sufferers. Deaths

A Night Watchman Murdered and a Railroad Office Robbed at Au-

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] Augusta, Sept. 12.—William Vales, an old man, employed as night watchman in the office of the Augusta & Summerville Railway Company, in this city, was found dead in the office this morning. There was a fearful contusion on the back of his head and his body had been burned to a crisp. Close to the body were found a pick-axe and an oil can—the former having evidently been used to commit the murder, and the con-tents of the latter to hide the evidence of the crime. The body had been saturated with oil and then set on fire. Holes had burned in the floor beneath the body, but the pools of blood which saturated the space about the corpse had prevented the building from catching fire. A desk in the office had been pried open and $38 stolen. Vales had, it is supposed, been making a tour of the premises and probably was about to wind in the heater, as the last puncture in the dial had been made at 11.30. when the murder was committed. There is no clue to the murderer, who was some one acquainted with the place. There is much indignation in the neighborhood. The coroner will hold an inquest to-morrow.

Fruitless Efforts of the Cincinnati Board of Trade to Effect a Reconciliation Between Manufacturers and Striking Workmen. [By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12.—The relations beween manufacturers and laborers of this city have reached such a condition that the Board of Trade has taken steps to secure a reconciliation between them. Its efforts, however, have been fruitless. To day its committee had a conference with the Mayor on the subject, in the course of which the latter said that it was impossible with the force at his command to concede publican General Committee of the city and | the requests of manufacturers to furnish guards to accompany workmen to and from shops. He had given orders, he said, to the police to disperse all crowds gathering near shops where non-Union men were at work. To the suggestion that he em-ploy special police, the Mayor answered that the regular police had not been paid since June, and he could not employ extra police while this condition of affairs con-

A Bitter Factional Fight in the Re publican State Convention.

(By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) DENVER, September 12 -The Republican State Convention, in session at Colorado Springs, after several adjournments. pending the report of the committee on Credentials, reassembled last evening. The committee made majority and minority reports, which gave rise to an exciting de-bate, which is still progressing. Several counties, including this, (Arrapahoe) sent contesting delegations. Those supposed to favor the reelection of N. P. Hill to the U. S. Senate and those opposed, presented separate reports. The factional contest is the most bitter known in the political history of Colorado.

The Register will be printed weekly until the great political campaign of 1884 begins. It will then be issued twice a week, or as often as may be useful or necessary to the Democratic party in North Carolina. It will be printed from new and beautiful type, on good white paper, and though it may not be large enough to hold all at once all the good things that glowing prospectuses sometimes promise, yet the application of a thorough knowledge of how to use them will put into its thirty-two broad columns all the news, much good reading, and a complete history of what is done in North Carolina. Mr. Hale will be a supposed to the progress.

much good reading, and a complete history of what is done in North Carolina. Mr. Hale will be editor of the Register.

The price of the Register will be $2 a year; $1 for six mouths. Pay for your home paper, and then remit for the Register. Those who remit $2 to this office will receive as A PREMIUM, $2 to this office will receive as A PREMIUM, $3 to this office will receive as A PREMIUM, $4 cither volume ordered of "Hale's Industrial Series."
