MY STAFF OF AGE. FROM THE CELTIC OF LLYWARCH HEN.

My staff of age ! lean upon you, and sighing, see the fern leaves red and sere,
And the yellow water flags wave on edge of the gray cold mere; The blood of my heart is chilled with th beath of the waning year.

My staff of age! lean upon you when winter lights the ruddy tavern pane, While gallant roisterers quaff their ale and raise the joyous strain,

I creep to my lonely bed with no mirth in my heart or brain.

My staff of age! I lean upon you when the cuckoo darts singing through the air.

When the white foam sprinkles on the wave and the hills are green and fair.

And summer brings a deeper pain with love I cannot share.

My staff of age! I am saddest of all this May of the long, brown furrow's line, When the early corn is green and the ter drills curl on the vine. And I have to lean on a crutch where once I could sing and shine.

My staff of age! The woes of eld are upon me, and my locks are thin and gray, My eyes that a woman loved, are sad and dull to the light of the day, And my lips so often kissed, can but mut ter and groan and pray.

My staff of age!

It is sad to be bent and old, to be cold in limb and heart, To be without mirth or love, and to lose the breath of my art, But saddest to remember of my life how great was their part.

-The Catholic World. RELIGIOUS MISCELLANY.

- He is the best Christian who i the most charitable in his judgments of others; and he is no Christian at all who does not exercise that divine charity which "thinketh no evil." Frederick W. Robert son says: "Besure that it is the severe and pitiless censor of others' faults on whom you may, at a venture, safely fix the charge, "Thou art the man!" Harsh judgments prove guilt rather than innocence.-

- "Is it a strong congregation? asked a man respecting a body of wor-shipers. "Yes," was the reply. "How many members are there?" "Seventy-six." "No, they are poor." "How, then, do you say it is a strong church?" "Because, said the gentleman, "they are earnest, de voted, at peace, loving each other, and striving together to do the Master's work. Such a congregation is strong, whether composed of a dozen or five hundred mem bers." And he spoke the truth.-Rich mond Advocate,

- The business of preachers is not to afford new definition of sin, or new explanations of its existence, but to develop in men's consciousness a profounder sense of their own guilt and need; not to afford a new psychology of Christ, or a new explanation of his transcendant character, but to inspire in men a deeper reverence and a warmer affection for him; not to per feet a more satisfactory explanation of the methods by which God and the human soul are brought into spiritual harmony with one another, but to bring the souls of men out of their wretchedness, their falseness, and their unspirituality, into the warmth and the love and the fellowship of God."-Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott in N. A Review.

Bishop Wilmer's Retort. Cincinnati Enquirer.

Bishop Wilmer, Protestant Episcopal, of Alabama, is one of the readiest men with retort to be found in the States. His first parish was in Virginia. At a certain company, where all the gentlemen of the neigh-borhood were, the young clergymen was present. There was also present a man noted for his infidelity as to Christianity, and for his findenty as to Carstanty, and for his roughness of speech to those by whom it was professed. This skeptic soon began to talk to the youthful parson, who prudently made no reply. The enemy became more aggressive, and addressing him directly, said:

'Mr. Wilmer, you don't seem to like to talk about religion and the Bible."
"Yes, Sir," he replied, "I do like to talk about it with people who are earnest and respectful in their treatment of it." "Well," rejoined the assailant, "if you will answer me one question I will let you

Mr. Wilmer said: "Sir, I do not know that I care to be let off from anything; but ask me the question, and if it is a proper question and I know the answer I will give

Well, Sir, I have asked all the preachers ! have ever seen, and none of them could tell me, and now I ask you: What became of the body of Moses when the devil and the archangel had a contest over it?"

It was a trying question, for the assembled company all silently awaited his reply. He quickly arose from his chair, walked across the room, stood directly in front of his antagonist and said, firmly and respectfully, "Sir, that question does not concern

"Because it is perfectly certain that no archangel will ever have any contest with the devil over your body."
The infidel confessed himself whipped.

It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazetie. The Wilmington Star has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington Star is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington Stan is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from ty pography up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal. The Wilmington (N. C.) Monning Star is a mode of newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its marits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond

(No.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

We like the Star because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably adited, newsy, spley, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the Star twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, atill it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.— The Free Will Baptist.

The Star is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Robesonian.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southsrner. The Wilmington Stan has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington Stars is now taking the regular midnight associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The Star is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Stan. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is songht after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times. The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington Stars has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Stars very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcraester Plade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a neweraper it has few equals, and no superior, for aprispriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.

WOMAN.

Her Health and Happinessare Matters of Great Concern to all Mankind.

NEAR MARIETTA, GA. Some months ago I bought a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, and used it in my family with great satisfaction. I have recommended it to three families, and they have found it to be just what is claimed for it. The females who have used it are now in perfect health and able to attend to their household duties.

STATE OF GEORGIA, Troup County. I have examined the recipe of Dr. Josiah Bradfield, and pronounce it to be a combination of medicines of great merit in the treatment of all diseases of females for which he recommends it. WM. P. BRASLEY, M. D.

REV. H. B. JOHNSON.

Springfield, Tenn. DR. J. BRADFIELD: Dear Sir-My daughter has been suffering for many years with that dreadfu affliction known as Female Disease, which has cost me many dollars, and nothwithstanding I had the best medical attendance, could not find relief. I have used many other kinds of medicines without any effect. I had just about given hen up, was out of heart; but happened in the store of W. W. Eckler several weeks since, and he, knowing of my daughter's affliction, persuaded me to buy a bottle of your Female Regulator. She began to improve at once. I was so delighted with its effects that I bought several more bottles of it; and, knowing what I do about it, if to-day one of my family was suffering with that awful disease, I would have it if it cost $50 a bottle, for I can truthfully say it has cured my daughter sound and well, and myself and wife do most heartly recommend your Female Regulator to be just what it is represented to be.

STATEMENTS, BUT FACTS VOLUNTARILY SENT TO THE S. S. S. CO. THE reports from the use of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) in the treatment of Cancer continue to be wonderful. There seems to be no doubt that it is a positive specific for Skin Cancer or Entitlelloma.

NOT SPECULATIONS-NOT HEARSAY

A Cancer for Twenty Years. For twenty years I suffered from a Cancer on my neck. 'Patent Potash and Mercury Mixtures' fed instead of curing the Cancer. I lost the use of my arms and the upper part of my body. My general health was broken down and my life was despaired of. S. S. S. cured me sound and well.
This new lease of life it gave to me cannot be measured by any monetary value. I owe my life and the support of my family to Swift's Specific."

Mopes to be Cured. "Mr. Brooks, near Albany, was hopelessly afflicted with Cancer. It had eaten through his nose into his mouth and throat. The time of his death was only a question of a very short time.
He prayed for death, his sufferings were so great.
S. B. S has had a wonderful effect on him. His improvement is so great that we all feel sure of his being perfectly cured in time."

Cancer for Fourteen Years. SPARTANBURG, March 14, 1884. I have for 14 years been a sufferer from a running scre on my face that everybody called a Cancer. I have used over $390 worth of medicine and found no relief. About 4 months ago I bought one bottle of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC from Dr. H. E. Heinitsh, and since have bought five others, have taken it, and it has cured me sound and well. My face is as free from a sore as an and well.
