THINK OF IT NOW

Although much is said about the importance of a blood-purifying medicine, it may be possible that the subject has never seriously aimed your attention. Think of it now! Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in Scrofulous Sores, Ulcers, or Eruptions, or in the form of Rheumatism, or Organic Diseases, the suffering that en-sues is terrible. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that

LOWELL TO HOLMES.

In the current number of the Critic i printed a poem of sixteen stanzas addressed to Dr. Holmes by Mr. James Russell Lowell. The Critic says it was actually written on Dr. Holmes's birthday, while Mr. Lowell was on his way to Nottingham to visit friends. There is room here for only four of the stanzas: stanzas:

Nay, let the foolish records be That make believe you're seventy five; You're the old Wendell still to me— And that's the youngest man alive.

The gray-blue eyes, I see them still, The gallant front with brown o'erhung, The shape alert, the wit at will, The phrase that stuck but never stung.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reids-ville Times.

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.-Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilming-ton (N. C.) STAR, the Washington Star, the Fred-ericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.— Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still contin nes on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial de-artment is conducted with much ability.-Mcr-

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for-tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Sran has steadily "warad" un-til it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a networa-per it has few equals, and no superior, for arris-priate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accerta ble exchanges.-Hillsboro Recorder.

ble exchanges.—Huteoro Recorder. The Wilmington MORNING STAR has entered up-on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remark-able success of the STAR is due to its strict atten-tion to business. The boast of the STAR (rightful-ly too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the pa-per is all that the term of "good newspaper" im-plies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the STAR never be rehealthy, moral influence of the STAR never be re-tarded, and may its genial enterprising proprie-tor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness. --Goldsboro Messenger.
