

The Morning Star. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 3, 1884. MORNING EDITION. THE LATEST NEWS. FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

His Journey from Albany to Buffalo. Enthusiastic Greetings Along the Route—A Grand Demonstration in the Governor's Honor. (By Telegram to the Morning Star.)

Buffalo, Oct. 3.—Gov. Cleveland arrived here at 10:30 a. m. on a special train consisting of an engine and one drawing-room car.

The party consisted of Hon. Erastus Corning, Mayor Banks of Albany, Hon. S. W. Rose, Major Banks of Albany, Hon. J. L. McCall, and general newspaper representatives.

A crowd of several hundred persons had assembled at the station to see him off, and these gave him an enthusiastic good-bye; ladies waving their handkerchiefs, men shouting, and in locomotive tooting.

The weather, which had been threatening all the morning, cleared off, and all omens pointed to a prosperous and successful journey.

At West Albany, where are located the great car-shops of the N. Y. Central Railroad, hundreds of workers, fresh from the forge and bench, waved a greeting to the train as it passed by.

The greeting of the assembled crowd at Utica was particularly cordial, and though Gov. Cleveland made his appearance and bowed acknowledgments, he made no remarks.

He was in excellent health and spirits. The train was due in Syracuse at 4:35 p. m., but pulled into the immense concourse was at the depot—men, women and children jostling each other, eager to get a glimpse of the Governor.

Hundreds of school boys, books and slates in hand, ran for blocks up the track in the wake of the train.

At the Syracuse Iron Works, as the train passed at a slow speed through the city limits, workmen came out and waved enthusiastic greetings.

The depot in the vicinity of the train was blocked, as were the streets leading to it. In answer to repeated calls, Gov. Cleveland appeared on the rear platform.

Cheer after cheer greeted him. The Governor lifted his hat and bowed acknowledgments.

The enthusiasm continued unabated while the train remained in the depot, which was just long enough to make a change of locomotives.

State election there was no opposition to the Democratic ticket and the vote was very much lighter than four years ago.

VIRGINIA.

A Stirring Address to Democratic Voters by the State Executive Committee.

(By Telegram to the Morning Star.) ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 1.—The Democratic State Executive Committee of Virginia issued an address to-day to the Democratic voters of the State, setting forth the importance to the commonwealth of the results involved in the approaching national election, and urging earnest and thorough preparations for the struggle.

The position of Virginia in the Democratic column of the Union, the committee says, "must be retained or the old State will reverse its past traditions, and imperil to a great degree its present and future prospects of moral, social and national prosperity."

Our very civilization is at stake. Not content with the platform and principles of the National Republican party, the management of that political organization in Virginia, through its chosen chief, has descended to the low plane of attack and repel.

The result of the last election was brought about by preconcerted plans to intimidate colored voters by violence and bloodshed, as manifested by the unprovoked riot at Charlottesville.

This malignant charge is not only without foundation in fact and in truth, and unsupported by any evidence which could influence an impartial public sentiment, but is brought forward only to inflame the passions and prejudices of colored people, to induce them to throw their votes at the polls in a mass against the Democratic party, and to excite sectional animosities elsewhere.

It is but a repetition of the policy pursued by the carpet-bagger of past years, in which negroes were sought to be used by concentration to dominate the majority element of the white population of the State.

The whole thing in substance and effect means that a minority of the white people propose to combine with the negro vote to control the voice of Virginia and make it a Republican State.

It means, also, if successful, their supremacy hereafter in both State and Federal affairs and the restoration to power to the party whose capacity for future mischief will be only partially measured by its past transactions and history.

We appeal with confidence to the Democratic party of Virginia, which accomplished such glorious results in its last campaign, to look to their laurels and to stand by the cause. No question of tariff or of federal policy must be permitted to divide our party at this time.

More important and vital consequences to the people of Virginia and to the country are involved. There is every incentive to exertion on the part of the Democratic party of Virginia, and its failure to respond at this crisis of our political fate would be a source of incalculable injury to the land of permanent State and national injury.

Our increasing business in this department makes it necessary for us to begin early to make up suits to order, so that we can fill all orders promptly; and while the customer may not need the suit right away, it is much better to have it made before the rush begins and be in time should cold weather come before you expect it.

We will display some pretty suits for Little Boys at $4.50 to $5.50, and for Big Boys at $5.50 to $7.50. We will close a card from parents to see our stock.
