and wrong doing on the part of the owners. In that letter he says:

"In answer to your recent favor I beg to say that I am not and never have been the owner of any coal lands or iron lands, or of any character whatever, in the Hocking Valley or in any part of Ohio. Nor have I at any time owned a share of stock in any coal, iron, or land company in the State of Ohio."

That is plain enough, but the trouble with it is that it is not the truth. He did own stock in the Hocking Valley mines as the published documents very clearly show. We avail ourselves of an editorial summary in the Times that shows Blaine's transactions. It says, referring to Blaine's letter to Bundy:

"Every material statement in it was false in fact, false in detail and false in intent. The documents we publish this morning prove this. Mr. Blaine, on the 13th of December, 1880, sent $25,000 to Mr. J. N. Denison, of Boston, in payment of my [his] subscription to the Hope Furnace enterprise." On the 17th a receipt was issued to him "in full for one share in the association formed by the purchase of lands in the Hocking Valley, Ohio. This association was afterwards consolidated with the Standard Coal and Iron Company on a basis of $50,000 in bonds of the consolidated company for a twenty-five-thousand-dollar block in the Hope Furnace enterprise." On the 26th day of May, 1881, Mr. Blaine's share of these bonds was paid over to Mr. S. B. Atkins and duly receipted for. It will thus be seen that Mr. Blaine was, in 1881, the owner of coal and iron lands in the Hocking Valley that he now 'the owner' of a share in stock in a coal, iron, or land company in the State of Ohio."

Blaine puts himself on record as denying a plain business transaction that was in no way discreditable, and thus acts in a characteristically disingenuous and false way. He was afraid he would be injured if he was known to be identified with the Hocking Valley mines, and he did not hesitate to lie about it. But the lie has been exposed and in that consists the censurable part of his conduct.

THE MAIN QUESTION FOR THE EAST.

The most important thing for all Eastern white men to consider is County Government. It is by odds the most pressing question with us so far as North Carolina issues are concerned. Men may well disagree as to other questions that are of a purely local or State character, but among Eastern white men there can be no honest difference as to the necessity of preventing the negroes from getting control of the finances. The white tax-payers can never agree to be plucked and bled again as they were plucked and bled under the Canby-Bayonet-Radiate system.

The white men of the East cannot afford to allow the ignorant negroes to get possession of the County Governments. The gloomy past rises up with all of its fatal results to give an emphatic and indignant response to any such proposal. The course of corruption and incompetency was once visited upon the East by the omnivorous and rapacious carpet-baggers aided and abetted by a horde of native scoundrels who went for pelf, and by tens of thousands of recently liberated slaves who thought liberty meant license and that their former masters were their enemies and would do to plunder and oppress. Now Dr. York, a Democratic traitor now running as the Radical candidate for Governor, was a strong advocate of County Government and voted for it when a member of the Legislature in 1867-77. Folk (now a Radical) introduced a bill to establish County Government. York voted to sustain the bill, and on the passage of the bill voted for it. He also voted against an amendment by Mr. Dunn to give the election of magistrates to the people. In a word, at every stage of the folk bill York stood by it well and faithfully. Now for the sake of office he is making speeches against the County Government system as now operated and favors giving control to the negroes in the twenty-six negro counties.

Will any decent, intelligent white man vote for such a fellow? Will any Eastern white tax-payer support a party that is for turning over the financial system of the richest and heaviest tax-paying counties into the hands of a race without mental and moral qualifications to discharge the work assigned?

SHARP.

The New York Herald, and Times possibly, were severe in their strictures upon Madame Janaschek's new play. The Times did full justice to her own acting but damned the play. The Herald was very severe. Perhaps other papers took a hand also. The great tragedienne is aroused deeply and shows that she knows how to strike back in vigorous English and with well aimed blows. She says the best theatrical managers turn their backs on New York because it is impossible to get a fair showing in the greatest city. She says Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and Buffalo have become their starting points in new enterprises and because of the utter injustice of the New York press. We quote:

"I wish to point out that dramatic art in America, which is endeavoring to struggle through the disadvantages of an intense and practical life into an atmosphere of good taste, is best at every effort by a refinement in the metropolis of this country that it encounters nowhere else. Every effort to encourage and develop the dramatic talent of native writers encounters this ruthless rivalry of the press."

It has come to pass that there are papers dominated by prejudice rather than by merit. The critics are induced to write up or down by considerations that should not influence any newspaper man and will never influence a conscientious one.

Mr. William Young, the great Western operator in grain, has been to New York. He tells his Milwaukee neighbors this, according to the New York Herald:

"The betting is largely in favor of Cleveland. The talk about manufacturing institutions being sold for Blaine is not backed by proofs. On the contrary, in one establishment with which Mr. Young was acquainted, out of 200 men employed, 127 are pronounced for Cleveland. From numerous talks with business men Mr. Young said he was led to believe that Cleveland would be the next President."

Mr. Young is a staunch Republican.

Miss Clara L. Hutchinson, a young woman of Boston with a large bank account, ran away with another woman's husband two weeks ago. She and F. E. Molayre were caught at St. Louis by a detective and will be returned to Boston. The running away mania and rascality generally is on the increase and is no respecter of localities.

Garfield was elected President by some 6,000 majority. How much per cent can Mr. James Blaine afford to lose and be elected? That is the sum, and not how many office seekers run after him as he travels with his hippodrome.

It was "last two" States, namely California and Nevada, that voted for Hancock, and not first two as the printer made us say. Such errors are without excuse.

CURRENT COMMENT.

It is worthy of note that there is more demand for Speaker Carlisle on the stump in Ohio than for any other Democratic orator. This is not because Mr. Carlisle has any extraordinary gifts of eloquence. There are on the stump in Ohio Democratic speakers who are his superiors in the graces of oratory. But Mr. Carlisle is regarded as a sincere and courageous advocate of reform, as a statesman who honestly desires to reduce needless taxation without making any violent or radical changes in the tariff laws, and that is the reason why the people of Ohio are eager to hear him. It is a good sign.—Phil. Record, Ind.

The "scandal" which Dana wished to examine before paying for, was a lie from beginning to end, cooked up by irresponsible and desperate men, and offered for sale to the highest bidder. Poor Old Dana was willing to bid but not until he had seen the goods. And this is the Dana who for four years has poured hot shot into the ranks of a corrupt party, stopping frequently to scream "turn the rascals out!" Poor Dana! Poor old Dana!—Boston Post, Dem.

KNOW-NOTHING BLAINE.

Hartford Telegram.

That Blaine was a leading Know-Nothing there is no doubt. In 1856 he was one of the editors of the Kennebec Journal. Below is a fac simile of the heading on the editorial page of that paper:

THE KENNEBEC JOURNAL.
AUGUSTA, MAINE, AUGUST 12, 1856.
JAMES G. BLAINE & JAMES BAXTER, EDITORS.

FOR PRESIDENT, MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW DONALDSON, OF VERMONT.

"Put None but Americans on Guard."

This settles the matter. It is also susceptible of proof that Blaine wrote the Madigan circular in 1875, when he appealed to the voters of Maine to reject a candidate because he was an Irishman and a Catholic.

No self-respecting Irishman can vote for such a candidate, even though he sympathize with the general policy of the Republican party.

More Betting.

John B. Lyon, a big Chicago corn dealer, and Republican in politics, recently in New York offered to make large wagers that Cleveland would be elected. He bases his opinion on the disaffection among the Germans in the West.

One of the funny things about betting was shown at the Hoffman House, New York, the other day. One man could find no takers for a $1,000 bet on Cleveland, while in another part of the same house another man was vainly trying to place a bet of $1,000 on Blaine.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Oct. 1.—During a Democratic demonstration here to-night John Nantley, who was intoxicated, began shooting in the crowd who were listening to the speeches. Charles Slaughter, colored, was shot just above the heart, and Albert McCormack, white, was shot in the neck. Slaughter died five minutes after the shooting. The bullet was extracted from McCormack's neck, but his condition is still serious.

THE STATE EXPOSITION.

Fruits and Fish.

A notable feature in the display of North Carolina fruit in very large jars. The quality of the fruits and vegetables so prepared is so fine as to attract marked attention.

The fish exhibit is under the special charge of Mr. Stephen G. Worthy, Fish Commissioner, assisted by Messrs. Herbert Brimley, Williams and Robinson, of his department. The fish, which are prepared by the Davidson process, are life-like, and are shown against a background of dark red, while the decorations consist of articles used in fishing, fish hatching, etc. The specimens of fish are of all sizes, from a few inches in length to over six feet. Among these are: Shad, herring, rockfish or striped bass, white perch, sturgeon, speckled or strawberry perch, jack-fish, blackfish or grindle, wall-eyed pike, sucker, chub, trout or black-bass, common gar, bream, robin, red-fish or ragoon perch, red horse, scale, leath and mirror carp, sheepshead, blue-fish, mullet, red drum, black drum, pompano or sunfish, Spanish mackerel, sea bream, cero, horse mackerel, sail fish, hoco, orevale, cabio, spotted trout or skipjack, porgie, black will, flounder, tarpin or king shad, shark, sailor's choice, tautog, red mouth, pig or hog fish, pinfish or sand perch, bonito, black snapper, moon fish, pink fish, grey trout, etc. Oysters are shown from Onalaw, New Hanover, Craven, etc., and clams from Craven. The display of fish in salt is extensive and consists of roe, out and gross herrings, mullets, pickled herring, herring roe, pickled herring roe, pickled shrimp, menhaden fish oil, menhaden fish scrap, black oil, spotted and grey trout sounds, etc.

Specimens are put up in alcohol, of about fifty varieties, among them, shrimp, oysters, clams, quogahs, crawfish, sturgeon roe, channel crabs, bull frog legs, brook trout, etc. The aquaria contain fine specimens of German carp and Japanese gold fish, from the State fish-ponds near this city.

Bloody Affray at Salinas.—The Populists Murder a Judge and Chief of Police—Over Twenty Other Persons Killed and Many Wounded.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, October 3.—A dispatch to the News from Laredo, says: Particulars have been received of a bloody affray yesterday at the town of Salinas, on the Mexican National Railway. Joseph Santers, Judge or Alcalde of the town, becoming obnoxious to the people by reason of many arbitrary acts, the citizens gathered in a great crowd yesterday morning and attacked the Municipal Hall, where Santers was holding his court. The police department were called out and a sharp fight ensued. The mob overpowered the authorities, and entered the Municipal building, where they seized and murdered Judge Santers and the Chief of Police. It is reported that over twenty were killed and many badly wounded. It is believed that the mob was led by the celebrated outlaw El-Coyote (the Wolf), who escaped from jail in New Laredo a few days since. Judge Santers caused the arrest of El-Coyote for participation in the Bustamante train robbery a few years ago.

THE LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

ALMOST A SERIOUS DIFFICULTY BETWEEN PROMINENT RADICALS AT NOTTOWAY, C. H.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—There came near being a serious difficulty at Nottoway, C. H., yesterday afternoon, between Gov. Cameron and Col. James D. Brady, the latter being one of the Republican nominees for Congress from this District. Both of these gentlemen were addressing a political meeting, the former speaking in the interest of Jos. S. Evans, the colored nominee from this district. Col. Brady, in the course of his remarks said Gov. Cameron occupied a most humiliating position toward the people of the State, and that the Governor's course in this contest had been dictated by a desire to curry favor with the Democratic Legislature, to save himself from impeachment on account of his connection with the Planters and Merchants' Bank matter. This remark of Col. Brady was promptly reported to Gov. Cameron, who immediately sent a message by John S. Wise to Col. Brady, demanding a full and absolute retraction. Hon. John S. Wise acted as the mutual friend for the two parties. After a short conference with Col. Brady, Capt. Wise returned to the Governor with the following statement, which he had written himself, and which he declared Col. Brady was willing to have go on as part of his remarks retracting the utterances above stated:

"After having my attention called by a friend to my remarks concerning Gov. Cameron's motive in coming to speak, being advised that he made no imputation upon my character, I wish to withdraw and regret any remark reflecting upon his connection with the Petersburg bank."

Gov. Cameron has declared himself satisfied with this statement, and thus matters stand for the nonce.

Capture of Herber by Gen. Gordon—Terribly Destructive Hurricane in Iceland—Cholera Reports.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Sir Evelyn Baringer has sent a dispatch to the Government that Gen. Gordon, after having bombarded Herber for some time, effected an entry into that place and recaptured it. The Rebels and hostile inhabitants fled when the bombardment ceased.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Intelligence has been received here of a terribly disastrous hurricane in Iceland on the 11th of September. The accounts thus far received show that thirteen trading vessels and sixty fishing boats were lost, and thirty-two disabled. The most appalling feature of the hurricane was the loss of life. The exact number of those who perished has not yet been ascertained, but it is known to have been very great.
