LIFE IS LOVE. BY WALTER F. PRINCE.

What, what is life, the life we live, As in earth's round we move?

'Tis measured by the gifts we give,
Affection's depth to prove,
The soul-born tokens we receive,
For life, for life is love.

The sordid wretch whose hopes and fears Are shared by him alone, Through his the wealth and pomp of years, And his a kingly throne, How miserable his lot appears If he be thus alone.

Though humble be the roof above, If each soul serve its plan, Life like a peaceful stream may move Which at heaven's fount began;

They truly live, who truly love Their God and fellow-man. Ere shadowy angels stand beside With summons to depart, Full many a knot shall be untied That binds us heart to heart;

Our thoughts shall wonder o'er the tide That keeps fond souls apart. And when they all have passed away,
When earth's last bond is riven,
We would not lengthen by a day
The measure God has given; Ere we shall taste, to last for aye,

The life, the love of heaven.

RELIGIOUS MISCELLANY.

- Let every congregation have a standing committee on Church literature.

—Richmond Advocate.

- "Bishop Pierce was." said Robt. Toombs, "physically, intellectually and morally the most symmetrical man of the ineteen century.

- The Rev. Dr. Key, of the Co-lumbus District, Georgia Conference, re-ports wonderful success, he having nearly 1,000 conversions and accessions during the year.

- Let the Devil do his own advertising. It is a mistake in the religious press to give desired notoriety to every fussy little infidel that yells against the Lord Jesus Christ.—The Wesleyan. - As an orator Bishop Pierce was both made and born. As a belles lettres rhetorician he had few equals among English-speaking people. At the age of thirty he was pronounced by Henry Clay to be "the most eloquent man in America."— Charleston Courier.

- We hear of a church member in the country who was so poor that he could give nothing to the support of his minister, but when the pinch came went opossum hunting and caught and sold 85 cents worth of opossums in Greensboro to get money to go into the circus. - Greens

- Don't let us be afraid of enthusiasm. There is more lack of heart than of brain. The world is not starving for need of education half as much as for warm, earnest interest of soul for soul. We agree with the Indian who, when talked to about having too much zeal, said "I think it bet-ter for the pot to boil over than not to boil at all."-Congregationalist.

- Rev. G. F. Williams, of South Carolina, proposes to the Courier that the Baptist ministers of the State set apart a brief portion of each week to think and pray for each other, and suggests five minutes or more between seven and nine o'clock each Saturday night. A noble sug-gestion, and one which the ministry of this State may well consider .- Central Baptist.

- We may trust our physician as skilful and competent to prescribe the right remedy, but we look for restoration not to the physician, but to the use of the remedy This is not the way we trust Jesus. W are begotten again to a living hope by His resurrection from the dead. His resurrection is our restoration to life. How completely outside of ourselves and wholly in Christ our salvation is, we are taught in Col. 3: 3, 4: "Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory." "As He is so are we in this world" (1 John 4:17).— N. C. Presbyterian.

- Raleigh News-Observer: The troops yesterday began the rifle shooting for the $100 prize. It will be concluded to-day. Many companies are represented by teams. — A letter from Samuel L. Patterson speaks for itself. He has always been one of the strongest Republicans. in the Piedmont country, and being a man of good connections and standing and influence, his countenance was worth much to the Republican party. But there was a point beyond which he could not go-and that point was York and Blaine. — As Senator Vance said, referring to Senator Hawley having been distinguished as a representative in Congress, a General and a Senator after having left North Carolina, "What in God's name would be have become if he had stayed here; impelled to say, if North Carolina can show all this, and yet leave untouched the show all this, and yet leave untouched the products of so many of our counties, what would this exposition be if they were here; and more, if with so much of resources that are latent she can pour out such a stream, what a flood there would be if all she had within her were here developed.

— From the south entrance Chatham looks very inviting; and its neighbor across the aisle is pretty; while on beyond Forsyth on the one side and Durham on the other are exuberant in their display of riches. In the group of counties we have chosen for to-day we find Granville with a banner in rice cardinal bearing the motto, "Bright to-day we find Granville with a banner in rice cardinal bearing the motto, "Bright tobacco showers gold and silver dollars upon Granville, the banner county." Its display embraces tobacco, minerals, corn, wheat, rye, oats and grasses, fruits, a large pair of horses, and a specimen of the Kensington stitch, now so popular, made by a lady in 1815. There is a very beautiful exhibit of ladies' work. Some of the work is fine and the exhibit remarkable, although only nine ladies contributed. Durham county has a very elaborate and tasty frame-county has a very elaborate and tasty frame-work about its display, which is enlivened by the presence of a small army of boys and men working Bonsack's cigarette ma-chine. Crowds are grouped about the ship whose sails of tobacco are swelling in the breeze, while the vessel rises and falls with breeze, while the vessel rises and falls with the swelling billows, and above the lighthouse sends out its warning gleam, and the wind-mill turns with steady motion, and the music-box tinkles out in liquid melody the magnetic strains of "Carolina," so dear to all Tarheels. The cigarette machine turns out 75,000 each day, and keeps six men and nine boys busy. This portion of the exhibit belongs to the Blackwell Durham Tobacco Company. The county proper shows tobacco, rugs, leather, relies, minerals, skins, English quarters, fertilizers, petrified wood, sweet potato four feet long, with coffee, orange, lemon and almond trees. POLITICAL POINTS.

- Gayly the workingman goes idly about and about with his hands in his pockets, impatiently waiting to vote for his Congressman who insists on keeping up the price of coal.—Phil. Record, Ind.

- In his address to the old soldiers at Dayton, Mr. Blaine took occasion to mention his share in establishing the Home when a member of the Military Committee of the House. Modesty prevented him from saying what he had done for the soldiers is settled. soldiers in getting Government contracts for Spencer rifles,—Phil. Record.

-To workingmen: Your right to sell the products of your labor in the dearest market and to buy what you need in the cheapest market, without obstructive interference from your Government, is a natural right, which cannot, in a constitutional Government, be alienated by inference.—"Slavery and Protection," by E. J. Donnell.

- The laboriog classes constitute the main part of our population. They should be protected in their efforts peaceably to assert their rights when endangered by aggregated capital, and all statutes on this subject should recognize the care of the State for honest toil, and he framed with a view of improving the condition of the workingman.—Grover Cleveland.

- We venture the assertion that never before in the history of mankind did government go on levying a tax upon the people when it did not know what to do with the money. Taxes have often been heavy, they have often been needless. they have often been corruptly used; but they have never been absolutely unused. They have never been levied for the take of levying them. - Christian Union.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

The State tax on lands and property for public schools is 124 cents on the hundred dollars. It will be collected this year as usual. The Democrats propose to keep the public schools always up to the highest state of efficiency .- Raleigh News-Observer.

Any white man who thinks that civil take if the Republicans elect a President and a majority of Congress. The bill passed some time ago has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, but that Court has pointed out the manner in which a bill can be framed so as to come within the fundamental law and it is understood that a bill has already been drawn in accordance with the opinion of the Court for the consideration of Congress next winter. The National Republican platform demands a civil rights law, and the party will pass one if it has the power. The Republican party has two reasons for desiring such a law. Hatred of Southern Democrats and love of the negro vote. - Weldon News. GOVERNOR'S CANVASS.

It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington Stan has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington Star is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence, Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) MORNING STAR is a mode of newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond secular) paper publishe Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—
Turboro Southerner. We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and abiy edited, newsy, spley, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist. The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Robesonian.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington Star is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has be-sides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot'e

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Peidswille Times.

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance. Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington Star has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcranton Blade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a neweraper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

The OBSERVER will be a large 28-column weekly newspaper, and will be mailed to subscribers, postage paid, at $2 per annum, always in advance. guiar and occasional correspondents will contribute letters from the Capital on State politics and affairs.

Democratic in politics, the Caserver will labor, first of all, to assure the prosperity of the Town of Fayetteville, to develop the vast agricultural resources of its own and the neighboring counties, and to promote all that concerns the welfare of the people of North Carolina.

Opposed to such innovations on the homely ways of our fathers as, in the guise of progress, harm society, the Caserver will be found in full sympathy with the new thingr corn of the changed condition of the South which sound judgment or enlightened experience find to be also good.

As to the rest: it will strive to deserve the reputation of the name it inherits.
