THE CAMPAIGN.

- Thirty-eight Republicans at Flushing, Long Island, have just bolted-Blaine. They held a meeting on the 8th

- The enthusiasm for Cleveland and Hendricks is growing rapidly and constantly everywhere, and nowhere more than here in New York .- N. Y. Herald. - At Hinton, in West Virginia, a correspondent reports, General Logan called a man a liar and spat in his face. That was scarcely an argument. The Blaine people are making a dirty canvass.

—N. Y. Herald.

- WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Oct. 8. - Guests leaving this and other mountain resorts have viewed with growing wonder during the past week the rows of dusky faces that fill the windows of trains bound westward .- Phil. Times, Oct. 9th.

The latest report here concerning the Butler campaign is that he is considering the advisability of coming out openly just before the election and telling his friends that it would be best to have them vote directly for Blaine. - Boston Letter to N. Y. Evening Post.

- The letters received yesterday by the Herald enclosing money for the Cleveland campaign fund evince intelli-gence as well as sentiment, and, more than that, not men alone are interested in the election of Governor Cleveland to the Presidency. - N. Y. Herald, 9th.

- There are facts in the political situation at the present moment in Ohio that indicate clearly how intensely earnest both of the great parties are. One of these facts is lack of confidence by both parties. Workers on both sides are what men in Ohio call "scared" just now .- Chicago Inter-Ocean, Rep.

- PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—Gen. John A. Logan left Washington at 8.20 this morning for this city accompanied by a delegation from the Philadelphia Young Republican Club. Although the train stopped for some time at the Baltimore Union Station there was no crowd present to receive the Senator and his escort.—
N. Y. Times.

- Washington, Oct. 8.-Within the last 48 hours the news received here from Ohio through private sources has been so cheering to the Democrats that they are beginning to offer wagers that the Republicans will lose the State. The bets are for small sums, but more were made yesterday and to day than in the preceding month .-N. Y. Times.

- Boston, Oct. 8.-About one hundred and thirty members of the senior class of Harvard College met to night to take action in regard to marching in a political torchlight procession during the Presidential campaign. An informal ballot taken to ascertain the political preferences of the class gave Cleveland 67 votes and Blaine 65.—N. Y. Herald.

- CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.-It is not difficult to learn here that the Germans are not so much in favor of the Democrats as has been said. Many of them are ominously silent on the subject where they have before been outspoken against the Republicans. Many are openly proclaiming their intention to vote the Republican ticket. Those who were soured by the Republican action on the liquor question are now soured because the Democrats have brought them no apparent relief .- Phil. Times, Oct. 9th.

- ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 8.-The most colossal liar of the nineteenth century," was the name applied to night to Blaine by ex Mayor William G. Thompson of Detroit, in his speech at the Opera House, before the Independents and Democrats of Ann Arbor. Mr. Thompson is one of the most outspoken of all the independents hereabout, and one of the most confident that the Republican party will regard vic-tory as dearly paid for if Blaine should be elected President.—N. Y. Times.

- Miss Garrett is the richest unmarried lady in the United States. She is 28 years old. She is a most accomplished woman, an expert stenographer and a model of her sex.-Augusta Chronicle.

- The grave of Thaddens Stevens is covered with grass and weeds a foot high. Thad left considerable money to his mulatto housekeeper. She should not neglect his grave, if the Republican party does .- Macon Telegraph,

- Attorney General Cassidy, of Pennsylvania, "does not know of any man in public life whom he would sooner trust to be President" than Grover Cleveland, "not even excepting Mr. Bayard," whom "he has so long and deeply admired."

- Gen. Gordon has had medals struck off to commemorate the siege of Khartoum. They have been bestowed upon the troops and also upon the women and children who shared in the hardships of the siege, upon the latter because merited by their sufferings.

Three Months " " NOTICES OF THE PRESS:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should wants — Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register.

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington Star is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence, Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a mode of newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newslest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAB has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.— Tarboro Southerner. We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane .-The Free Will Baptist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Hobesonian. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed Its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, crudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Turboro Southerner.

The Wilmington Sras has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's Charlet Ferrical Charlet Charlet Ferrical Charlet Fer The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times. The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington Star has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deaurtment is conducted with much ability.—Mcragaston Blade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxaed" until the workseems regularized in the full glow of a Confederacy, the STAR has steadily waxed un-til it new beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newer a-per it has few equals, and no superior, for appra-priate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accept a ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved pepularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its gonial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Fayetteville Observer. ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY STH, 1883, THE understaned will revive the publication of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER.

The OBSERVER will be a large 28-column weekly newspaper, and will be mailed to subscribers,

THE OLDEST NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN the Pee Dee section, one of the wealthiest and most prosperous in the State, offers to Com mission and Wholesale Merchants and Manufacturers, and to those who have adopted the plan of solling by sample, an excellent medium of communication with a large and influential class of merchants, mechanics, planters and naval store men, whose patronage is worth solicitation. Advertisements and Business Cards inserted on libe and forms.

MOULDING, BRACKETS AND ORNAMENTAL WOOD WORK.

newspaper, and will be mailed to subscribers, postage paid, at $2 per annum, always in advance. It will give the news of the day in as ample form as its space will permit, and both regular and occasional correspondents will contribute letters from the Capital on State politics and affairs.

Democratic in politics, the Observer will labor, first of all, to assure the prosperity of the Town of Fayetteville, to develop the vast agricultural resources of its own and the neighboring counties, and to promote all that concerns the welfare of the people of North Carolina.

Opposed to such innovations on the homely ways of our fathers as, in the guise of progress, harm society, the Observer will be found in full sympathy with the new things down of the changed condition of the South which sound judgment or enlightened experience find to be also good. also good.

As to the rest: it will strive to deserve the reputation of the name it inherits.
