If bragging will elect the Democrats will carry North Carolina by 50,000 majority. That is to say at least 50 votes are made by every Democratic speech ("in a horn") and there will be probably one thousand speeches made, so the "State is safe." The blowers not all dead. Work more and talk less.

THE ELECTIONS. Spirits Turpentine.

To day the great contest in Ohio and West Virginia will be decided. We figure it thus now on the eve of the battle: Ohio Republican by a majority ranging from 0,000 to 12,000; West Virginia, Democratic by 4,000 to 5,000 majority.—Star of Tuesday.

We reproduce what appeared in this paper editorially in vesterday's issue, before the fight was joined. As we write some hours after the fight has closed we have this to add: the Democrats have doubtless carried West Virginia, and the Republicans have carried Ohio by a majority not far from the limit given above-12,-000. The majorities may vary from the prophecy but the general result will be, we think, as prognosticated

We are glad to see it announced that our old friend Daniel R. Goodloe is to take editorial charge of the Washington Sunday Democrat. Mr. Goodloe is one of the ablest journalists this State has produced. He was many years ago one of the editorial staff of the New York Times, when Henry J. Raymond, a great editor, had charge, and he was also at one time Washington correspondent of the same great paper.

There are some forty or fifty brass bands in North Carolina, we suppose. It will never be known which of these is better than all others until a fair test is made. It cannot certainly be ascertained by three only contesting.

Ohio went Republican in October 1876 by 6,636, and still New York in November gave Mr. Tilden 32,742 majority.

STATE CANVASS.

Goldsboro Messenger.

Senator Vance is expected in this city Friday evening next, and has been invited to address our people on that occasion. -- Dr. C. Thompson, the Democratic candidate of the The weather throughout Ohio yesterday 9th Senatorial District, is making a vigorous canvass. They say that at Jones court he handled our good looking young townsman F. B. Loftin, Esq., quite severely. —— Maj. Wm. A. Smith will address the Cleveland and Scales club in this city next Thursday night. There will be a rousing gathering. —— The Congressional candidates for this district, Col. Green and ex. Gov. Brogden, spoke here on Saturday last. Col. Green made a lively onslaught upon the old Governor's record, both official and political, to the great amusement of the audience. Col. Green has made an excellent record in Congress. He is one of the most zealous workers in that body, and the only thing Gov. Brogden could charge against him is that he was absent from his seat a few times. The Colonel explains this altogether satisfactory. He was always at his post except for a few days while confined to his room suffering from injuries received by a runaway team, and on another occasion while at the death-bed of a member of his family.

Henderson Gold Leaf. Mr. C. A. Cook, the Radical candidate for the Attorney Generalship, and Col. Ike Young orated to a few white men and some negroes in the court house last Tuesday. There seems to have been a general disappointment at Mr. Cook's speaking capacity. We heard a very intelligent gentleman say that most any young man could have effectually replied to his speech.

Monroe Enquirer-Express. . Judge Bennett, our candidate for Representative in the next Congress of the United States, delivered three speeches in this county last week. On Thursday he spoke at Beaver Dam, on Friday at Walkersville, and on Saturday at Monroe. He had very fair crowds to hear him at both country appointments, considering the fact that the appointments were not well advertised. The speeches were well received, and will no doubt be productive of good. We have been informed that several old line Republicans announced their intention of voting the Democratic ticket after hearing him at Beaver Dam. The portion of the speech here devoted to the discussion of the civil rights doctrine of the Republican party was especially good, and met with the approbation of the entire audience. The speech was interspersed throughout with numerous aneedotes King's Mountain. He is descended illustrating and enforcing the points made. The speech was an excellent one, and gave great satisfaction, at least, to the Democratic portion of the audience.

The Fire Monday Night.

There was an alarm of fire Monday night, about 11 o'clock, which was sounded for the first fire district, but was found to be some distance beyond the limits of the city, whereupon the excitement subsided and the firemen and others returned to their homes. Yesterday morning it was reported that the Poor House property had been destroyed, and the rumor gained pretty general circulation. Later on, however, it was ascertained that the property destroyed was the only remaining building on the old fair grounds, a little to the northeast of the Poor House. It seems that the fair grounds had recently been leased by the county to Mr. E. G. Barnitz, and last week, by direction of the County Commissioners, Capt. J. H. Savage, Superintendent of the County Poor House, notified the colored tenants of the house, of whom there were quite a number, that they must vacate immediately. They moved the last of their things on Monday morning and Monday night the house was burned.

Wrongly Classed. We regret very much that we were misled into classing Mr. J. L. Williams, whose four buildings were destroyed by fire on Monday morning last, as a "colored shoemaker." We were also deceived by Sheriff's Wilmington Directory for 1879-'80, to which we referred for his first name, and which puts him down as colored. Mr. Williams is not only a white man, but was a brave Confederate soldier, who served in Co. I. 27th Regiment, Cook's Brigade; was wounded several times and lost a leg. He has the papers to bear out the assertions he makes. Mr. W. has a wife bur d in Oakdale Cemetery.

Col. McRae To-might. It has been deemed best to change the hour for the commencement of Col. Mc-Rae's address to-night from 8 o'clock to 7.30 p. m. Let a large crowd be present.

A Pleasant Occasion. On Tuesday evening, at the residence of the bride's father, at 313 McRae street, Mr. H. D. REPUBLICAN COUNTY CON-VENTION.

Meeting of the Republican County Convention-Nomination of Candidates, &c.

The Republicans of New Hanover met in County Convention at the Court House yesterday morning, for the purpose of nominating the various county officers, members of the Legislature, &c. The Convention was called to order.

when Geo. W. Price, Jr., was made perms. nent Chairman and S. VanAmringe and Luke Grady were appointed Secretaries. A long and tedious discussion ensued in reference to the admission of an alternate from Harnett Township, in which sundry delegates participated, and during which there were numerous points of order made and insisted upon.

The Convention was an unusually orderly one, however, as compared with previous ones under the same auspices.

The Chairman, in his opening remarks, referring to the State ticket, said there was considerable dissatisfaction at first, but he now thought it was "a god's blessing" and a "providential dispensation" that York had been nominated. As he failed to enlighten his hearers as to why at this late day it had been discovered that the new convert is so much better than an "old liner" would have been, they are no doubt as much in the dark as ever. The various nominations were then made, as follows:

For Sheriff-Gen. S. H. Manning, pres ent incumbent, by acclamation, For Register of Deeds-Jos. E. Sampson

For the House-C. P. Lockey, by accle mation, and Luke Grady, colored, of Cape Fear Township; the latter finally by unanimous vote.

For Constable-Richard F. Holmes, colored, unanimous.

For Surveyor-L. D. Cherry, unanimous, A series of resolutions was passed, endorsing the State and national candidates and the platforms adopted by the same: the nomination of W. H. Chadbourn for the State Senate from New Hanover and Pender, and pledging the hearty and enthusiastic support of the Convention to all the tickets nominated-national. State, county. Congressional, &c The resolutions were signed by E. J. Pennypacker, C. P. Lockey and S. VanAmringe.

After the adjournment of the Convention the Precinct Committee met. and after some discussion, took a recess until Saturday morning next, at 10 o'clock, when an Executive Committee will be elected.
