THE CURSE OF THE SOUTH.

The sum of money that has been collected in taxes from the people of the United States since the war closed in 1865 is so great as to make the mind stagger under the great load in the effort to understand its magnitude. The people have been taxed in such a way as to keep them stripped of a large part of their just earnings. When the amount taken from them in nineteen years is considered it is not a matter of surprise that the people groan and are poor.

We do not purpose going into the matter now only so far as the Southern people are concerned. We have before shown in many ways what a * burden the Tariff was upon the great masses of the people. In view of the fact that Blaine and his illiterate associate are travelling about trying to make people believe that High Taxes are a great blessing when they are collected under a Tariff and for the benefit of a few; and in as much as the Radical bushwhackers, who are as ignorant of economic questions as the negroes are to whom they address their rambling and stupid talk, we propose to aid intelligent readers in understanding better one feature at least of the Republican War Tariff-that wirebarbed fence that encircles our country shutting out foreign productions and shutting in home products and thus keeping manufacturers straightened, operatives poor and hungry, and farmers in distress.

Since 1865, the tax paid at the Custom Houses under the Republican War Tariff, still in force, is more than three thousand million dollars. The figures are $3,206,057,482. Now if you can take that sum in you will begin to see what the Tariff has done. It is a sum sufficient to buy up all of the real and personal property of twenty States like North Carolina.

This tax under the Tariff, enormous as it is, has been paid mainly by the people. They have been compelled by their necessities to buy

"The Federal Treasury has swept over $1,500,000,000 of these earnings into its vaults. The cormorant of protection has swallowed $2,200,000,000 more, not mentioning the enormous wastage in carrying the taxes of the country round in trade. We see, then, some four thousand millions gone forever from the earnings of this 11,-000,000 people of the Cotton States to respond to the remorseless exactions of the Federal Government and the Republican policy. This would leave the people of the Cotton States eight thousand million out of their eleven thousand million of earnings in the period cited. One-third of the earnings of the people have been taken away from them by Federal taxation, besides their State, county and town taxes."

Here is something for farmers to think over. They can see now where their profits go. High taxes will keep any people poor.

On June 11th, 1884, Dana said in the Sun that he would support Cleveland if he was nominated. Here are his words:

"We mean, of course, Grover Cleveland and Roswell P. Flower. Each has peculiar merits, but those of the Governor are rare and elevated. But each also has points of comparative weakness. Yet should the Convention determine to nominate one of them we say emphatically that the candidate will stand a fair chance of carrying the State of New York, and that the best efforts of the Sun will be devoted to securing his entire success. But, finally, the triumph of Democracy is of infinitely greater moment than the nomination or election of any individual, however eminent or gifted."

The fellow who wrote those words and published them is now a traitor and is trying his very best to elect Blaine, the man he has so warmly denounced. It is true he is pretending to support Butler, but that is a fixed up job. Butler is merely trying to draw off votes, that Blaine may capture New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. Read elsewhere what the Sun said of Butler.

At Waterbury, Conn., operatives in factories are bulldozed and made to vote to suit the Republican bosses. But a "change has come over the spirit of their" action. Mr. G. W. Bunham, the boss millionaire and manufacturing king of that burg or bury, is out in a letter for Cleveland and there is much consternation among the bulldozers. A New Haven special to the New York Times says:

"To him, Mr. Bunham says, Blaine i but a political trickster, an unscrupulous adventurer. The immediate effect of the millionaire's letter will be to stop the bulldozing of mechanics and laborers by overseers in those factories at Waterbury in

"Now, the reports from this State to the Agricultural Department for 1882 makes the value of hogs in Alabama $5,318,818, and the value for 1883 is still greater. The census reports for 1880 gave the value of agricultural implements as $3,788,978."

CURRENT COMMENT.

- There are distinctive and potential elements against Blame in New York that were unknown or entirely unfelt in Maine and Ohio. The Independent Republicans are large in numbers, ably led, and are veterans in independent voting. They have taught independence for years, and they have the high example of Blaine's leaders in bolting Folger and electing Cleveland Governor by 192,000. They are a power in every county of New York, and they will poll not less than 25,000 votes direct-ly for Cleveland. Another element peculiar to New York and implacable in its antagonism to Blaine is the extreme Stalwart or Conkling wing of the Republicans. Conkling voiced its feeling in the contest when he said substantially: "If Cleveland was regarded by Mr. Blaine and his friends as a good 'enough man to elect Governor over Folger, there may be many Republicans ready to accept Cleveland as a good man to elect President over Blaine," That mont is strong in Nam T

Is generally attributed to something wrong about the eyes. But before you pay heavy fees to an oculist, just see if your system is not debilitated. Very often that tells on the eyes and makes you think your sight is failing. You need Brown's Iron Bitters, which in toning up the whole system, will help the enfeebled eyes. Mr. A. R. I prescribed it myself, and it gave prompt relief in a case of Suppression of Urine, in Yellow Fever, and decidedly mitigated other di-tressing and dangerous symptoms.
