Frank Hurd will contest the election in his District. If elected fairly he will get his seat.

It will not do to rely upon each county furnishing its own tickets, except for county officers. If this is done many counties will have no printed tickets. The State Committee should furnish them and appeal for the funds should be made at once. It is only two weeks and two days to the election.

London has a new sensation. The English actor, Wilson Barrett, appeared as Hamlet. A special to the New York Herald says:

"Mr. Barrett's impersonation of Hamlet has intensity more than subtlety; is emotional rather than intellectual; his concep-tion of the part is impassioned and vivid rather than suggestive. Many passages re-called the method of Booth, and he adopt-ed a number of doubtful readings, which gave rise to gave rise to much hostile criticism.'

I)The Charlotte Democrat insists that it was under Pierce that Kostza was released from prison, and W. L. Marcy wrote the State paper in defence of the action of the Government. We thought so and so said the papers. But Spofford's American Almanac, very high authority, says Kostza was released on the 2nd of July, 1852. If this is correct then it was during Fillmore's Administration. Pierce came into office on the 4th of March, 1853.

John Robinson's Carcus.

John Robinson's circus was here yesterday, and all ages, classes and sizes turned out to see this world renowned show. The parade was a fine display, but this was only a beginning of what we were to see. The menagerie was excellent and the curiosities in it were rare and numerous, while the performance was superior to any that we have witnessed. The trapeze acting, the bareback riding, &c., were all so good that it is impossible to make any distinction; and we can truthfully say that in bad public record.
