LOUISVILLE, October 18.—A sensation was caused in the court house this morning by a fight between ex-Judge Hurgis, until recently Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, and Col. Bennet H.

Young, a well known lawyer and President of the Southern Exposition. In the argument of an injunction case, ex-Judge Hurgis made a remark reflecting on Mr.

Young, who immediately denounced the ex-Chief Justice as infamous liar. At

STEDMAN AT GOLDSBORO

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 17th, 1884.

To the Morning Star:—A large crowd attended the discussion here to-day between Judge Faircloth and Wilmington's very able and distinguished citizen, Major Stedman. Judge Faircloth led off in a speech of an hour and a half. He is popular here, and by far the ablest and strongest man on the Republican State ticket.

But he is just a mere boy in the hands of our candidate, the Honorable North Carolina statesman, Major Stedman. This was shown here to-day and it has been shown in every discussion between these two gentleman. Our people in this section are not merely satisfied, but delighted with this very talented and eloquent Major. There is evidently much of the hero and of magnetism, as well as of high intellectual power in our triumphant Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Major Stedman ought to be proud of such a man, as surely the Democratic party are, and his great popularity and success in this canvasse—the first year of his public life, or candidate for any office—deserve the higher honors than that of Lieutenant Governor are in store for him if he so desires.

He has borne himself nobly and with great effect over the State in this campaign, and won golden opinions here to-day, and we all think him unsurpassed by any of our leading Democrats now canvassing North Carolina. This is saying a good deal for young man, but the facts, and record he has made here and in every important and successful canvass, justify the remark to be true, and that he has gone, at once, from the ranks of private business to the very front of the leading statesmen and speakers of our State. Besides, he makes interesting and attractive the dry and trite topics of tariff, revenue, Republican misrule and corruption, and county government. He strikes the key note in his description of reconstruction, and in his pathetic appeals to the whites to maintain the proud blood of the white race. Our information is that no man in the State has shown more friendship for the negro race, and that no Republican has done more for the race in private beneficence and contributions both in your city and elsewhere. But his efforts for wide supremacy in the way of social consideration and government rule, are most eloquent and convincing. If his able and representative speech here to-day is a specimen of his views and of his great argumentative debate, such men as Vance, Fowle and Johnson have more experience and power than this coming man, but not a whit more of the ability necessary to arouse and lead the Democratic masses to the ballot box and to the great victory that will send the Democracy to North Carolina on the 4th day of November next. WAYNE.

BLADEN AND BRUNSWICK.

Bladen county hereby ratifies the action of

RIVER AND MARINE.

—The schooner S. S. Harding, Capt.

Melvin, which was cleared from this port for Philadelphia on the 8th inst., and sailed from Smithville on the 13th, with an assorted cargo of lumber, shingles, etc., encountered a hurricane on the 14th and 15th, in the Gulf stream, east of Frying Pan Light Ship, sprung a leak, and returned to this port to discharge cargo and repair damages. She is consigned to Messrs.

Geo. Harris & Co.

State Gleanings.

—The Democrats of Caswell have nominated George N. Thompson for the House.

Raleigh Recorder, Rev. C. A.

G. Thoms, of Warrenton, N. C., has accepted the pastorage of the Baptist church at Newport News, Va.—Rev. E. Crutch-field, who is now the oldest Baptist minister in North Carolina, rode over forty miles to attend the Mt. Zion Association.

—Goldsboro Bulletin: The first fruits of the season made its appearance Thursday morning. There will be a grand rally of the Democracy of Wayne county on Saturday, the 25th, when Gen.

Scale, Col. Duncan K. McRae and other distinguished speakers will address our citizens.

—Raleigh Visitor: The bright, nicer weather was favorable to fishing this morning. Two thousand people alone from the famous town of Durham came in about 12 m. The people seemed anxious to meet the men who by their great enterprise had kept business bright, and had made the waste places blossom like a rose.

At 8 o'clock there was a balloon ascension with fire works attached. All Durham was present in holiday attire. At least 5,000 people were in the building. Trains are hourly expected loaded with visitors.

—Raleigh Chronicle: The arrival of some specimens of the Granville county gold leaf tobacco on yesterday attracted the special admiration of many visitors to the Exposition. There were 5,000 persons in the Exposition grounds yesterday; and more than that to-day.

The North Carolina State Alumni Association of the Alpha Tau Omega Greek Fraternity held its session in this city yesterday. There was an attendance of about 40 members, who came from every part of the State.—Lieut. Winslow's visit and the meeting of the Fishermen may be put down as the beginning of the era in our fish industries—one of the most profitable lines of our future development.

—Charlotte Observer: Dr. Norman, the colored agent Gordon spoke at Huntersville last Monday to a crowd of darkies, and after the speaking a row occurred, which at one time promised to be a serious affair. It seems that the young men, students of the Huntersville

High School, were standing by themselves, listening to the speaking. They were conducting themselves quietly, when a young darky came up and accused them of carrying pistols. In his charge the young men
