Irish-Americans in Oregon are solid for Democracy and Cleveland. They ought to be so every where.

Senator Vance thinks Gen. Scales's majority will not be less than some 10,000. It can be made double that.

The Virginia Democrats are working in much earnest. There is said to be an assurance of victory all along the lines.

Watterson says Indiana is the battle ground. Not necessarily. New York, New Jersey and Connecticut Will elect Cleveland.

Wilson Barrett, in his new production of "Hamlet," is having a great success in London. He has taken the great city by storm.

Senator Fair, of Nevada, is back from Europe. He thinks his State will vote for Cleveland, and so will all of the Pacific States.

Many Republican frauds have been unearthed in West Virginia. Negro "repeaters" voted at various places. In one county the frauds were large. When the assessment Was made 2,700 yoters only could be found. But 3,400 votes were polled. Prosecuting Attorney St. Clair is on the track of repeaters.

The campaign in Indiana is very hot. A special to the Philadelphia Times represents the Republicans as having hope of carrying Indiana The Democrats, we may add, are not without hope of carrying Ohio. Mr. Rice, Democratic candidate for State Auditor, thinks Indiana will go Democratic.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXV.--NO. 28.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1884.

Tammany held a big Cleveland ratification meeting on Tuesday night. There were 25,000 citizens in line, and 100,000 Cleveland sympathizers cheered. John Kelly made a "ringing speech" for Cleveland and called on all citizens to vote for him. The old Wigwam was crowded. Union square was a mass of moving men and gleaming lights. Ex-Senator Thurman met with an ovation and Senator Bayard made an able speech which was loudly cheered. Every orator who spoke praised and indorsed the Democratic ticket. Resolutions were unanimously adopted, indorsing Cleveland and Hendricks and the Tammany nominations for city offices and judges of the Court of Appeals, and commending them to all who desire good government, and who are interested in having offices filled by men of moral courage, unwavering honesty and devotion to the trusts committed to Republican bushwhackers tell their ignorant audiences that this grand and glorious country is the richest and most prosperous country on earth and is on the highway to greater prosperity and wealth. But from January 1, to September 30, a period of nine months, there were 8,302 failures in the United States, as against 5,307 in 1881. There is a positive falling off of fourteen millions in exports of merchandize since 1883, and we have sent abroad $44,-162,750 in specie, against only $12, 164,191 thus far in 1883; while our imports of merchandize have reached the aggregate of the sum of $382, 777,779, against $346,294,829 for the same period last year.

July 19th, 1884, the N. Y. Sun

"As between Mr. Blaine and Mr. Cleve and we advise our readers to support the latter. Mr. Cleveland may be unsatisfactory as a Democrat, but Mr. Blaine is not an onest man, and that decides it."

October 17th, 1884, the Sun said

"In fruth, we hold that Mr. Cleveland's disqualifications are so exceedingly grave and revolting that, as between the two men, Mr. Blaine should be preferred on the principle of choosing the lesser evil of the

A bad, corrupt man could only write these two political morsels. We would think real Democrats would get tired after a few more months of reading such a corrupt, dirty, infamous sheet.

The Radicals appointed 1,200 negro deputy marshals in Ohio. That was nice. Now the whites there know how it is themselves. The Washington Post says of the negro marshal outrage:

"Thus it is shown that the Blaine mana-gers, under the shelter of a law ostensibly designed to protect the ballot box and preserve order, imported an army of ruffians, put pistols and clubs in their hands, and turned them loose on the city to carry the day by any means that might be found necessary. This did not happen in Hayti or Gautemala, nor even in Mexico, but in the United States, and in a city that is justly proud of its morality, refinement, artistic development, and material prosperity."

A vote for York is an indorsement of the infamous Civil Rights campaign. York will vote for the Edmunds bill in the next session if it is brought up. He will not say he will not vote for it. He has been honest enough, and stupid enough we may add, to indorse squarely the Republican platform, Civil Rights and all.

Blaine's fellows have resorted to forgery to deceive the public as to the vote of West Virginia. They sent a special and signed it D. C. Gallaher, Secretary State Democratic Committee, putting the Democratic majority at 2,500. Mr. Gallaher denounces the fraud and says the majority will be not less than 6,000.

Sir Moses Montefiore will complete his hundredth year on the 24th of October, 1884. He is very infirm; so much so that he will not be able to receive his personal friends. For three-quarters of a century his life has been marked by philanthropic and noble deeds.

Mr. F. Morris, editor of the Passaic (New Jersey) Times, has hauled down the Blaine and Logan flag and has come out squarely for Cleveland and Hendricks. Oh, carry the news to Jeemes and Black Jack,

The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee have sent out two million documents, whilst the Republicans have sent out three millions. Both have closed up.

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

The Prohibition Convention-Fire at Company Shops-State Exposition-The Drought. Special dispatch to Charleston News and Courier.

RALEIGH, October 22 .- The State Prohibition Convention assembled at the State Exposition grounds. The attendance was small. Little or no enthusiasm was shown. David Schenck and D.W.C.Benbow, both of Guilford county, were chosen as electors at large, and the following as electors for the districts:

First, David White; Second, Robert E. Ballard; Third, Jesse Moore; Fourth, Henry M. Ray; Fifth, Wil liam A. Cable; Sixth, J. M. O'Dell, Seventh, Nevews C. English; Eighth, Franklin W. Bradley; Ninth, J. J.

A fire last night at the town of Company Shops destroyed several dag stores, general stores, boot and shoe stores, a jewelry store and some residences. Loss not known. Insurance small.

To-day was a grand day at the State Exposition, 20,000 persons being present.

The drought at points north and west of here is very severe, wells drying up and grass shrivelled as if by fire. Some alarm is manifested.

This evening, at 9 o'clock, a train crowded with passengers ran off the track near the city, and when put on the rails it again ran off. George Scott, colored, fell from the platform and was cut entirely in two in the presence of a great number of spectators.

Rain began falling this evening at o'clock, ending the fears of damage by drought.

THE STATE CANVASS

A friend at Wilson writes us: "Capt. Octavius Coke spoke here yesterday to a large crowd and his speech was pronounced one of the finest presentations of the Democratic side of the question ever made in this county, Dr. York came also but declined to speak on account of physical inability. Frank Winston, the Republican candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, harangued a crowd of negroes and it is said that he stated in deference of the civil rights platform that he was the in favor of the co education of the races."

Charlotte Observer. Senator Vance will arrive in the city on the train from Wilmington this morning, and after taking break fast will be escorted to Huntersville, where he is to speak to-day. The Charlotte cornet band and a number of citizens will accompany him. He is to speak in Salisbury to-morrow. Chadbourn Times.

We have heard of big pumpkins, and read of big pumpkins, and we thought we had seen a big pumpkin; but until yesterday we never realized what a big pumpkin was. This king of the pumpkins we saw at the office of Messrs. Worth & Worth. who informed us that it was grown by Mr. A. C. Worth, son of our good friend, Mr. B. G. Worth, on his farm in New Jersey, about twenty miles from New York, Some idea can be formed of its size when we say that it weighed one hundred and forty pounds, and measured six feet in circumference-both ways, around the sides and lengthwise. The frost killed the vine before the pumpkin was fully ripe. It came by the steamer Regulator, and is sent merely as a specimen of New Jersey pumpkins. In other words, it is a Cleveland pumpkin, intended to give some idea of the size of his majority for President on the 4th of November.

Wednesday Evening's Political Enter-

The audience that listened to Gen. Scales Wednesday night was an exceptional one, Loth as to numbers and respectability, and he must have felt highly gratified at the quiet, orderly bearing for so large a crowd, and the unwavering attention with which they listened to his able and deeply, inter esting argument in behalf of Democracy and good government.

It should have been stated in our previous notice that Maj. S. M. Finger, our accomplished and scholarly candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, made a brief speech, which was received with every evidence of favor.

In this connection, we take occasion to say that the procession was a marked feature of the evening, and that much credit is due to the good management of Mr. A. Adrian, the chief marshal, and Mr. E. G. Parmelee, and others, his assistants, for the success which attended this part of the programme. There were about one hundred horsemen in line and a large number of

Mrs. Taylor, organist of St. John's Church, and Mr. Willson, the cornet soloist of our city, were very effective in their parts, which were very fine, and, in fact, the whole programme was carried out to the entire satisfaction of all present. By request another entertainment will be given on Saturday afternoon next, for the benefit of ladies and children who were unable to attend last night; and the price of admission will be reduced to 25 cents on this occasion, with no charge for reserved

A Note of Warning to Leaders of the Republican Party in the City of Wilmington.

The committee appointed at the Democratic meeting at the City Hall to confer with Republican leaders here in regard to the outrage perpetrated by the Republican procession on the Democratic meeting Wednesday night, yesterday addressed the following communication to S. H. Manning. Chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 23, 1884. S. H. Manning, Esq., Chairman of the Re-publican County Executive Committee:

DEAR SIR: The undersigned were appointed last night at a large assembly of the Democratic citizens of Wilmington, a committee to confer "with the reputable leaders of the Republican party" here, and to notify them of the feelings of the white people of this community concerning the outrage perpetrated on last night upon a peaceable assembly of citizens by a Republican procession, consisting mainly of blacks, and to notify these reputable leaders that the "recurrence of such a proceeding will lead to a difficulty, and that they wil be held responsible for the consequences.

The outrage and the facts attending i are these: Both the political parties held meetings last night and marched in procession. The Republicans met at the old market place, on Market and Front streets. The Democrats met in front of the City Hall, on the corner of Princess and Third streets. The Democrats, with the purpose and intention to avoid the possibility of disturbing or incommoding the Republican procession or the speakers, changed their programme so as that the Democratic procession should take up Gen. Scales at a remote point and march by a direction to the place of meeting altogether out of reach of the possibility of an encounter. Notwithstanding this manifestation of a peaceable and orderly disposition, a large procession of Republi cans, mainly of negroes, moved to Princess street; headed by a full band of music, and thence along that street to Third, where the Democratic meeting was held. When they reached that point the music was played lustily, and the procession yelled, accompanying the noise with jeers and derisive and offensive demonstrations, insomuch that that the Democratic candidate for Governor could not proceed with his address, and was put to silence. In the same moment two missiles were thrown, one of which struck Col. J. N. Staples, a guest of the citizens, and both of which were sufficiently dangerous to produce serious injury. This upprovoked outrage is of a very grave character being a gross interference with the freedom of the citizens, and we invite you to look with thoughtful consideration upon the consequences to which its recurrence will be sure to lead. This is not the only occasion of these outrages; they have occurred at every political campaign, beginning in 1868. Such recurrence will not be permitted to pass with impunity, and this notification is addressed to you in your political character and relation to the Republican party, with the request that you will confer with your associate leaders about this notification, its meaning and signifi-

It can readily be seen that it is strictly defensive; not being intended either to threaten or intimidate, but simply to declare a fixed and deliberate purpose. In conclusion, this committee in behalf of the Democratic people of Wilmington assures all concerned that they will concur most cordially in all measures calculated to keep the peace and ensure the free expression of opinion to all parties, and as they have in the past so will they in the future abstain from all conduct likely to lead to the contrary. They invite a similar line of conduct on the part of the Republicans, for the determination is reached not to hold any portion of their freedom on toleration or at peril. We have now done our duty, and responsibility will be incurred or avoided as this notification and invitation shall meet a favorable or an unfavorable reception.

Death of Capt. G. L. Dudley.

The sad announcement of the death of Capt. Guilford L. Dudley at Raleigh yesterday morning was received by his relatives and many friends in this city with deep regret. He had been in bad Mealth for some months, and had recently been very low, but it was hoped at last accounts that he was improving. Capt. Dudley was born in Wilmington in the year 1824, and remained a resident of this city until the year 1849, when he migrated to California, remaining in that State until the year 1860, when he returned to this place. The war coming on he joined the First Regiment of State Troops as an officer of the company commanded by his friend, the late Captain James A. Wright. Promoted subsequently to be quartermaster of the brigade he continued in that position until the close of

Deceased then held office for some years as Auditor of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. Co. Upon the election of Major J. A. Engelhard as Secretary of State in 1876, he appointed Capt. Dudley principal clerk in the Department of State, and upon the accession of Hon, T. J. Jarvis to the office of Governor, as successor to Gov. Vance, he was appointed his private secretary, a position which he held at his death. He was a gentleman of many excellent qualities, both of mind and heart, and enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of friends and acquaintances both in Wilmington and Ra-about half past 5 o'clock, was caused by the ignition of cotton on board of the large British iron steamship Carn Brea, loading at the upper compress wharf. It seems that a bale of cotton was about to be lowered into the hold of the vessel, when it was discovered to be on fire, but too late to stop it, and the fire communicated to the other bales in the hold like a flash. Fortunately there were only about two hundred bales in the after compartment of the steamer, in which the fire originated, and, therefore, the flames could not do any great damage. The firemen were quickly on hand and streams of water were poured into the hold, which soon had the fire under centrol. There were about fifteen hundred bales on the steamer, but all but the SHAKING, N. C., Oct. 23, 1884. Messrs. Editors:- Late vesterday evening it was noised around that there was to be a gathering of the faithful at Shaking where Mr. Frank H. Darby was to orate. Who can we get to meet him? Fortunately, Maj. McClammy was on his way to fill an appointment at Duplin Roads and was notified of the wants of the citizens, when he readily consented to leave his appointment and followed Mr. Darby down to the speaking-and alas! alas! for Frank! You ought to have been there to see the fur fly. The Major was only allowed thirty minutes, between Lloyd and Darby. He only consumed ten seconds in laying Lloyd flat of his back, and the balance of the time he devoted to Darby. I have never heard so much said, and to the point, in thirty minutes; and when he turned upon Darby and asked, "Do you endorse Edmunds' civil rights bill?" and Frank answered "No," I was sorry for Frank, in the arraignment of him for his devotion to a party whose policy he could not control. "Do you endorse the stonethrowing policy; the practice of throwing stones into Democratic meetings?' and Frank answers "No." "Why don't you control the actions of your colored brethren, who perpetrate deeds in the night of which you are ashamed in the day?" I can't, in the short time I have, do justice to the Mafor's effort. No one looked more relieved than Frank when he was through; and this "still hunt" was turned into grief, and instead of recruits for Chadbourn it is doubtful if they poll their strength. QUI VIVE.
