THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXV.--NO. 30. WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1884.

WHOLE NO. 5651

MORNING EDITION. DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT. GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT. THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR. ALFRED MOORE SCALES, of Guilford. FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. CHARLES M. STEEDMAN, of New Hanover.

OUTLINES.

Sir Moses Montefiore reached his hundredth year; he received hundreds of telegrams of congratulation from all parts of the world. The franchise bill passed its first reading in the House of Commons.

We have seen a careful calculation of the next House of Representatives, and it is almost certain that the Democrats will have at least thirty majority.

The North Carolina Conference will meet in this city the latter part of November. It is a large body, and some 300 delegates will be present.

On Friday morning the thermometer stood at 41 degrees, and on Saturday morning at 42. This is the coldest spell of the season.

The Philadelphia Times guessed well as to Ohio and West Virginia. It gives Cleveland from 6,000 to 10,000 in New Jersey, where it circulates.

When the Wilmington negro outrage reached Raleigh a good deal of excitement was created.

THE STATE CANVASS.

New Berne Journal. Passengers on the train last night, speak of Col. Staples' speech at Goldsboro yesterday, as a masterly and unanswerable defence of the issues now before the people.

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 23.—Senator Matt. W. Ransom addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here today. The assemblage was the largest by far that has turned out during the campaign.

Senator Vance spoke at Spring-hope, Nash county, last Friday to a small crowd. No less than half a dozen times he was interrupted by Lucian Battle and J. O. Edwards and others.

White men of Wilmington, have you registered? If not, do so at once. Paper Frelinghuysen says "no."

Nearly all of Senator Butler's library was destroyed by fire at Edgefield, S. C.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE BEST STOCK. A. DAVID—A change. HARRIS—Boggan Cash. MUMSON—Overcoats, etc.

Local News.

Day's length 11 hours. Twentieth Sunday after Trinity. Register! Register!! Register!!! Election one week from Tuesday.

Rev. Dr. Patterson will preach in St. John's Church to-night at 7.30 o'clock. Not many new-crop peanuts are yet coming in, and a market has not been established.

In Charleston all business is to be entirely suspended on election day. Shall it not be so in Wilmington? Only seven days left in which to register.

Prayer meeting at the Fifth Street Methodist Church this morning at 11 o'clock, and this evening at 7 o'clock. There were two or three cases of disorderly conduct before the Mayor yesterday, but nothing of a serious nature.

The Register of Deeds issued four marriage licenses during the past week, of which two were for white and two for colored couples. Attention is called to the announcement of an adjourned meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, to be held at Miss Hart's school room on Tuesday.

Regular semi-annual meeting of the stockholders of Bellevue Cemetery Company on Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, at the office of Mr. J. D. Bellamy, Jr. The interments in the various city cemeteries during the past week were as follows: Oakdale, 4 adults; Bellevue, 1 adult, 1 child; Pine Forest (colored), 3 adults Total, 9.

Is it the settled purpose of Gen. Manning's henchmen to disturb or break up every meeting composed of voters, whether white or colored, who oppose his re-election to the magistracy? The German brig Hermann Friedrich, Capt. Niejahr, was cleared from this port for Bremen, yesterday, by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, with 1,044 bales of cotton, valued at $47,000.

Chairman Manning to Dr. York, at Goldsboro.—You are very sick, Doctor, and I advise you not to speak in Wilmington. The night air is filled with malaria. Doctor, go West.—P. S. Incipitate this.

A colored boy by the name of Walter Williams was picked up by the police in the neighborhood of Northrop & Cumming's mill, yesterday afternoon, and sent to the City Hospital. He was very sick.

Let not the press of the State forget to remind their readers of the annual collection for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which it is customary to take up wherever services are held on Thanksgiving day.

See to it that each voting place is not only supplied with Democratic tickets, with energetic working men to take care of them and distribute them on election day, but that the names are all split and printed correctly.

We are in receipt, through Col. Chas. R. Jones, Secretary, of a complimentary ticket to the exhibition of the Carolina Fair Association, which will take place at Charlotte, October 28th to the 31st, inclusive, for which we tender our thanks.

We saw at Capt. J. B. Huggins' store, yesterday, a monster mullet, weighing exactly seven pounds and measuring two feet in length. It was caught at Simpson & Corbett's fishery, on Middle Sound, and has been christened "Cleveland mullet."

Let the full Democratic vote be brought out and polled on election day, and let the Democratic press of the State urge their country friends having teams to carry their poor neighbors to the polls, as some who are compelled to walk may be tempted to remain at home.

The members of Charles E. Ford's Opera Company, who give two performances here next week, October 31st and November 1st, will spend the whole of the following week in our city, not resuming their tour until after the election and its attendant excitement.

There is much sickness, suffering and destitution amongst the poor of this city, and our readers could not do a more charitable act than to hand in contributions of money or send supplies of provisions to Mrs. C. G. Kennedy, President of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, by which their wants and necessities may be relieved.

Chairman Manning to the Blaine "heeler":—Go to the Democrats, boys, and offer to be $500.00 that Blaine will carry New York. When they bring the money tell them you meant $500.00 on New York and $500.00 on the general result. When they produce the thousand dollars tell them you "will see about it."—P. S. Put this in the crematory.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today: For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, variable winds, slight rise in temperature.

More Chickens Stealing. Thieves raided upon the premises of Col. D. Klein, corner of Mulberry and Anderson streets, on Friday night, and stole five fine hens. Last week they took four from Mr. Montgomery, on the same premises, including the coop in which they were confined.

THE BEST FRUIT OF MEDICAL SCIENCE.—Dyspepsia is immediately relieved by Bevan's Capsule Plasters. Quick acting. Highly medicinal.

ROSDALIS.—ROSDALIS is a great remedy for Rheumatism, all pains and diseases of the Blood. It should be used at all times and seasons, especially in the Spring and Fall, when the sudden changes induce disease.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!—Are you distressed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

YOFF-DAVIS.—At 6 o'clock P. M. Thursday, October 23, 1884, at Front Street, M. E. Church, Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., officiating, Mr. TALCOTT B. YOFF to Miss ANNIE K. DAVIS, all of this city. No cards.

SMITH-HERRING.—At the residence of the bride's mother, near Clinton, Oct. 22nd, by Rev. W. L. Stewart, M. A., W. H. SMITH, of this city, and Miss ADDIE C. HARRING, daughter of the late Wm. H. Herring. No cards.

118 Market Street, WILMINGTON, N. C. A Change. THIS COLD WEATHER SUGGESTS A CHANGE in one's CLOTHING, and when the idea occurs to us we naturally look around to see where we can be best suited for our money.

The Talk of the Day!

IS THE IMMENSE CLOTHING TRADE NOW being handled at SHERRIS'. It is a subject of constant remark that while a general dullness is complained of elsewhere, THE OLD RELIABLE is strained to serve the immense patronage now flocking to our establishment to secure bargains from the late Hildesdorf Bros. & Co. million dollar savings of at least 25 to 40 per cent. on the dollar.

SHERRIS', THE OLD RELIABLE CLOTHIER.

THE UNEXPECTED RUSH FOR THE Creamery Buttered Flour! ran our supply short last week, but we will have it by Wednesday's steamer. It is a marvel in its way. Every one should try it. Remember it is prepared by Mr. Joe Strango, who was a former Wilmingtonian, and we know it is pure.
