REVEILLE. WILLIAM WATERFIELD

The golden gates of morn are wide; On every blade the dews are bright; The azure veil is drawn to hide The awful glories of the night: The roses each to each have told,

Another sun will soon be seen; And shall not I my light behold? Make day for me-come forth, my The tale the river told all night

Has taken now a gladder strain; The flowers, as eager for thy sight, With odors seek thy window pane; The jasmine tells thee, Light has come, And waves across the lattice-screen; And shall thy voice be longer dumb? Make music for my heart, my Queen.

In shade as yet, the eastern hill Stands sharp against the yellow sky, The purple woods are sleeping still, And white mists in the valley lie; But westward slopes are all awake With change and play of softer green; O Love, my summer morning make,

THE CAMPAIGN.

'Tis time for day-shine forth, my

- JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Oct. 28. -Ex Senator Chaffee arrived here Monday, and is stopping at a private boarding house avoiding hotels. He has been in close conference with local Republican leaders. The question is asked here, is Florida among States to be raided next Tuesday ?-N. Y.

- NEW HAVEN, CONN., October 28.-"Tom" Waller, as everybody in Connecticut takes the liberty of calling the Governor, appears to be on the way to a re-election, the Chairman of the Republican State Committee almost alone, of the politicans I have met, expressing a positive contrary opinion. The Congressional delegation from Connecticut is not likely to be changed. The prospect is that the Demo-crats will again have three out of the four members.—N. Y. Times, Rep.

- Troy, Oct. 27.-The following stalwart Republicans of this city openly proclaim their adherence to the Cleveland flag: Benjamin Franklin, John Sanford, Allen Conkling, Joseph McKay, F. W. Lobdell, Charles L. Sheldon, C. E. Hartwell, Wm. Hagen, T. A. Byram, Henry Burden, Theo. Voorhees, Dr. W. W. Seymour, Stanley M. Holden, Eugene Seitz, Maurice Levi, Henry Potter, Dr. W. P. Seymour, Henry L. Lamb, Everett Case, Robert Powers, Joseph Knight, Horace L. Hicks, Adolphe Stande.

- NEW YORK, Oct. 28,-This is a perplexing as well as a memorable political P. L. Bridgers & Co., battle. Certainly not for thirty years have party leaders and public men on both sides been so disturbed within this distance of election day with hopes and fears. The nearer the end of the contest approaches the more it is apparent that not only the managers but the observers of both sides are at a loss to anchor their judgments. Within the past few days the Democrats have not seemed so confident of saving their national ticket. Their talk lacks buoyancy, their arguments are less earnest and their figures less satisfactory. This State is about the only one in the doubtful galaxy that the Democrats feel certain about, and really it is practically the only one that the Republicans do not feel confident of carrying. Within the last few days the Democrats have become very dubious about Indiana, and their opponents feel as confident of carrying it as they do of getting the electoral vote of Pennsylvania. There is doubt and uncertainty in both campsmuch such a feeling as is always apparent upon the eve of a battle where two very evenly matched armies are to engage in a decisive conflict. - Special to Phil. Times,

- Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 28.-I have at last succeeded in securing a copy of the official figures made by the Democratic canvass of the State, of which in the past I have been able to speak only approximasely. The total number of voters in the State, as shown by it, is 482,161, and this I am informed, is remarkably close to the total of the Republican poll. The number of sure Democratic voters set down is 227,866-and the number of sure Republican votes 211,518. This on the sure vote would show a Democratic majority of 16,848. There is, however, an immense number of men in the State who, while their political predilections are known, either are undecided as to what their Presidential vote will be or decline to make announcement of their intentions. These are classed as "doubtful Democrats" or "doubtful Republicans," according to their known tendencies. Of these the poll shows 14,461 doubtful Democrats and 12,-472 doubtful Republicans. In addition to all of these are 7,267 sure National or Greenback voters, 1,089 doubtful Greenback voters, 1,426 sure Prohibitionists and 130 doubtful Prohibitionists. Giving the Republicans all the doubtful votes except the doubtful Democratic votes, all of the "floaters" and one third of the sure Prohibition and Greenback votes, the State Committee figure out a Democratic majority of 8,289, and there they have set their lowest peg .- Special to the World.

CAMPAIGN FUN.

- Everything indicates that there were too many strangers in Cincinnati on election day .- Cincinnati Times Star. - Mr. Blaine is said to hold that one or two men of soap are worth all seven of the wise men of Greece.-Philadelphia

- It will doubtless interest Gen. John A. Logan to learn that the meat sup plied at the so-called Brooklyn barbecue was cooked upon spits.—Macon (Ga.)

- It is the boast of an Ohio organ that "Mr. Blaine always keeps up with the procession," It ought not to be hard work to keep up with a funeral procession,-

Chicago Times.

- Ben Butler is the prima donna of the campaign. He is riding around in Mme. Gerster's palace car. There is nothing too good or too expensive for the hornyhanded candidate of the workingmen. -Chicago Mail.

- Newspapers are finding fault with Ben Butler for riding around the country in a special palace car. Every one-horse theatrical star and prima donna in the land, however, possesses a private car, and Ben is really a star of the low comedian order.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

- Mr. James G. Blaine, in his stock Ohio speech, was wont to say: "Anything less than 20,000 majority for the Republican ticket will be useless, to us elsewhere." Mr. Blaine will probably take immediate steps to deny that he made any such assertion, and clear himself from the suspicion that he deliberately, for once, told the truth. - Louisville Courier Journal.

Great Prejudice to Onions

Has existed among americans since the remarkable courtship of Miles Standish. Since that time men have been doing their own courting, and have been debarred the privilege of partaking of this fragrant vegetable. We have solved the problem by selling the VALENCIA ONION, which leaves neither smell nor taste, and can be relished by all. They are worth 5 cents per pound, and weigh from one to three pounds.

THE UNEXPECTED RUSH FOR THE Creamery Buttered Flour

ran cur supply short last week, but we will have it by Wednesday's steamer. It is a marvel ln its way. Every one should tryfit. Remember it is prepared by Mr. Joe Strange, who was a former Wilmingtonian, and we know it is pure.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

— Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter.

The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index Appeal. The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a mode el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it .-

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South. - Robesonian. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the pa-per surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Chariotte Observer. The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) STAR, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still contin volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcranton Riads.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for-tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a neweraper it has few equals, and no superior, for arms priate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepta ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington MORNING STAR has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the STAR is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the STAR (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is ly too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral infinence of the STAR never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietated, and may the healthy moral infinence of the STAR never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietation. tor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.

MOTHER'S

FRIEND.

A Precious Boon to Woman. WORDS OF PRAISE.

I most earnestly entreat every female expecting to be confined to use Mother's Relief. Coupled wi h this entreaty I will add that during a ong obstetrical practice (forty-four years) I have never known it to fail to produce a quick and H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

A lady from one of the counties of Middle Georgia, who has been acting midwife for many years, writes: "I have disposed of all the Mother's Friend you sent me, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing."

A gentleman writes: "My wife used your Mo ther's Friend at her fourth confinement, and her testimony is that she passed through it with onehalf the suffering of either of her former confinements, and recovered from its effects in much less time. She also recommended it to a lady friend who was about to be confined for the first time, and she says: 'I have never seen any one pass through this great trial with so much ease and so little suffering.'"

VANDERBILT'S MILLIONS

ULCERS 25 YEARS A member [of my church has been entirely cured of an ulcerated sore leg of twenty-five years' standing, by using two bottles of Swiit's Specific. She had various kinds of treatment, and had almost despaired of being well. Swift's Specific cured her, and she feels that she has a new lease of life.

ECZEMA! My daughter, seven years old, has been afflicted with Eczema for two years, and after trying other remedies in vain, I gave her Swift's Specific, S. S. S., and one and a half bottles cured her

AN OLD PHARMACIST.

INOCULATED POISON

Some eight years ago I became the victim of a fearful Blood Poison, communicated by a nurse to my infant, and thence through the breast, and suffered for six long years. The Mercury and Potash treatment seemed to drive the poison further into my system only to break out in worse form on other portions of my body. Three months ago I began taking swift's Specific, and it has cured me sound and well. It is the greatest blessing which has come to mankind in years.

Could not buy from me what Swift's Specific has done for me. It cured me of Scrofula in its worst form, after I had suffered with it fifteen long years, and had tried all the remedies, only to break down my health and make me almost helpless. Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, Acworth, Ga., July 15, 1884.

Cedartown Mill, July 23, 1884.

I have had to do with Blood Diseases and seling Blood Remedies for twenty-five years, and do not hesitate to say Swift's Specific is the best. Numbers of cures of Blood Poison by its use have come under my observation, and some of them wonderful. It is an excellent tonic, and is used largely by delicate ladies and children. Being entirely vegetable, it does not produce any bad effects like potash mixtures, and is the most satisfactory remedy that I sell.

ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY STH, 1883, THE U undersigned will rev've the publication of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER. the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER.

The OBSERVER will be a large 28-column weekly newspaper, and will be mailed to subscribers, postage paid, at $2 per annum, always in advance. It will give the news of the day in as ample form as its space will permit, and both regular and occasional correspondents will contrabute letters from the Capital on State politics and affairs. and affairs.

Democratic in politics, the Observer will labor, first of all, to assure the prosperity of the Town of Fayetteville, to develop the vast agricultural resources of its own and the neighboring counties, and to promote all that concerns the welfare of the people of North Carolina.

Opposed to such innovations on the homely ways of our fathers as, in the guise of progress, harm society, the Observer will be found in full sympathy with the new things born of the changed condition of the South which sound judgment or enlightened experience find to be also good.
