Buffalo Lithia Water. FOR MAJALIA POISONING. USE OF IT IN A CASE OF YELLOW FEVER. DR. WM. T. HOWARD, OF BALTIMORE, Professor of Diseases of Women and Children in the University of Maryland. Dr. Howard attests the common adaptation of this water in a case of yellow fever, and the far-famed White Springs, in Green-brier county, West Virginia, and adds the following: "I have observed marked sanative effects from the Buffalo Lithia Water in Malarial Cholera, Acute Dysentery, some of the Febrile Affections of Women, Anemia, Epithelioid, Cardiac Palpitation, Chronic Intermittent, and various other cases of debility, which had obstinately resisted the usual remedies, and which, by the use of this water, in a brief space of time by a course of treatment, were completely cured."

DR. JOHN W. WILLIAMSON, JACKSON, TENN. Extracts from Communication on the Therapeutic Action of the Buffalo Lithia Water in the "Virginia Medical Monthly" for February, 1884. "Their great value in Malarial Disease and Dysentery has been most abundantly and satisfactorily tested, and it has been found that it has been a valuable auxiliary in the treatment of the epidemic of Yellow Fever which so terribly afflicted the Mississippi Valley during the past summer. I prescribed it myself, and it gave relief in a case of Yellow Fever, in which the patient was decidedly prostrated, and it was discovered that the result (having prescribed it in but a few days) was, of course, cannot undertake to state how many cases of Yellow Fever, and how many cases of Malaria, were cured by its use. There is no doubt, however, about the fact that its administration was attended by the most beneficial results."

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

The following dispatch was tonight sent to North Carolina by the National Democratic Committee: "HEADQUARTERS NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, NEW YORK, October 31, 1884.—To R. H. Battle, Chairman Democratic State Committee, Raleigh, N. C.: I am in receipt of your telegram and of several other communications from your State, calling attention to a circular issued by J. F. Mott, Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of North Carolina, which, in order to prejudice white voters against the Democratic ticket, charges that an Act of the New York Legislature, lately approved by Gov. Cleveland, established mixed schools; while to colored voters the representation is made by North Carolina Republicans that Cleveland's election would mean their re-enslavement. These things are wholly false. They are only specimens of the many fabrications issued by the leaders of the Republican party on the eve of election, in the desperate hope of sustaining their waning cause."

"Democrats all over the land should remember that Cleveland's public record is so pure that no attack could be made upon it. The Republican managers have persistently charged Cleveland with being bitterly anti-Catholic and have appealed to the priests in a circular, which leading Catholics denounce as an outrage against the Catholic Church as well as against Governor Cleveland. Now they have turned about and in an address to their Presidential candidate, thankfully received by him, they denounce Cleveland as the representative of the party of Rum, Romanism and Rebellion."

"No man who is in favor of honest government will pay the slightest attention to these slanderous falsehoods nor can they affect the result otherwise than by arousing the indignation of honest voters and increasing the majorities of Cleveland and Hendricks electors next Tuesday."

A. P. GORMAN, Chairman Executive Committee.

THE LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. LOUISIANA. A Crowd of Negroes led by Whites Entered the Town of Larueville and Abuse and Assault the Citizens. Two White Men Shot Dead by the Victorious Mob—The Negroes Finally Driven off and a Large Number Killed and Wounded.

(By Telegram to the Morning Star.) NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—A special to the Pictorial from New Iberia, says about two hundred Republicans, principally negroes, entered Larueville a little after 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, cheering in the wildest manner and using profane and obscene language in the greatest profusion. The crowd was headed by an sheriff Vis, who was armed with a revolver. The Democratic candidate in the district. The most reliable and impartial witnesses agree that a few of the citizens of Larueville, not over fifteen, led by Joe Gilfux, met this crowd of Kelloggites and remonstrated with them. When some unknown party fired on Gilfux. The assault was very unexpected on the part of the Democrats, and before they could rally Gilfux and Capt. Bell had fallen. The latter's revolver was taken from his body; it had not been discharged. As soon as the shooting commenced there was the greatest confusion and the negroes scattered in every direction. It is very probable that many of the bails of the Kelloggites formed victims in their own hands. When the negroes started they left their wounded to care for themselves. The firing was quite general, and many were wounded and some killed who were not aimed at. Eight horses were killed at the scene of the fight, and one was found dead a mile away.

Some of the wounded negroes started to run, deserting their horses, and ran until they fell from exhaustion. It is reported that some of them ran into the bayou, where some of the negroes at some distance from the battle field caused the rumor that the negroes had been followed and shot down wherever found. It is positively stated by the participants that this is false. No shots were fired off the field, nor were any named negroes arrested. Several parties had balls exchanged here, and they say their wounds were received in the engagement.

It is stated that one man died five miles below here from wounds received in the fight. The Democrats surrounded the Republican leaders and took them prisoners. Coroner Marill went to Larueville to view the remains of Gilfux and Bell, but took no testimony. He will complete his task on Wednesday when he has heard that there must have been at least fourteen or sixteen negroes killed. Many were wounded.

The radicals have been having the bloody shirt for a long time, and at last they have got it stained. United States deputy marshal Steele is very energetic in his efforts to get the prisoners out of jail, but so far he has failed.

Judge Fontelle held a meeting here last Wednesday when the Gay party were in Larueville, and those who were present at the speeches were nothing but a series of vile slanders and abuse. The meeting, which was secret, lasted until very late at night. Very few whites were present.

GOV. CLEVELAND. He Goes Home to Vote—He is in Excellent Health and Spirits, and Considers the Democratic Prospects Very Bright.

(By Telegram to the Morning Star.) BUFFALO, Nov. 3.—Gov. Cleveland arrived here this morning at 7:30 o'clock, accompanied by his friend, E. D. Tutthill, of the Pitt House, and his nephew, Mr. Tutthill's nephew. The Governor declined the use of Mr. Tutthill's carriage and quietly strolled to his usual breakfasting restaurant, where, after partaking of a hearty meal, he repaired to his room in the Pitt House. At about 10 o'clock, while at his desk in his office, it was expected that the Governor would arrive this afternoon, and preparations had been made to give him a reception. About 1 o'clock he left his office and strolled leisurely to the Pitt House. He was attired in a handsome suit of black broadcloth, and appeared to be in very good health. He was an excellent spirits, and frequently stopped on the sidewalk to chat familiarly for a moment or two with some friend.

To an Associated Press reporter he said, "I am in most excellent health, and am more than pleased to be at my old home again." He states that the most cheering news he has heard since he left office every quarter, and that the prospects of the success of the Democratic ticket he considered quite bright.

In answer to the question as to what he thought about the State of New York, he replied that he must decline to give an opinion, and referred the interviewer to Mr. McCune, whom he said could better answer that question than himself.

The Governor will remain here until Tuesday, and will vote in his old district in the Ninth ward.

FOREIGN.

The London Times on the Political Contest in America. (By Telegram to the Morning Star.) LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Times of this morning devotes a leader to the political contest in America, in the course of which it says: "Although the number of votes polled to-morrow will probably exceed those polled at any previous contest, nevertheless it would not be rash to say that the most important contest in the history of the issue with indifference. Foreigners have still less reason to feel a keen interest in the campaign has been almost exclusively managed by experienced and adroit professional politicians, and to them alone the result will bring the greatest disappointment. The most satisfactory feature of the whole campaign is the failure of all attempts to revive for party purposes the sectional jealousies of the North and South. Mr. Blair's recent inflammatory speeches in the west will not really benefit his cause."

PENNSYLVANIA. Withdrawal of One of the Democratic Candidates for Congress in the Twentieth District. (By Telegram to the Morning Star.) PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Messrs. Andrew J. Curtin and J. K. P. Hall, contesting Democratic Congressional candidates from the Twentieth District of this State, having submitted to Chairman Hensel, of the Democratic State Committee, the question as to whether they would best serve the interests of the party as its candidate, Mr. Hensel has decided in favor of Mr. Curtin. Mr. Hall will accordingly withdraw from the contest.

FINANCIAL. New York Stock Market—Quiet and Lower. (By Telegram to the Morning Star.) NEW YORK, Wall Street, Nov. 3, 11 A. M.—The stock market opened lower this morning, and prices fell off 1/2 to 2 per cent, the latter in Union Pacific. Towards 11 o'clock there was a rally of 1/2 to 1 per cent. The market is now quiet.

CURRENT COMMENT.

By the last report of the National Commissioner of Railroads it appears that the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific Railroad Companies now owe the United States Government $102,935,794, nearly half of which is interest. The commissioner urges Congress to take speedy and final action looking to the ultimate payment of this enormous debt. This debt is what Senator Edmunds referred to as "Jay Gould's breast-works," from behind which "Mr. Blaine always appeared, musket in hand," when he and Thurman joined hands in the interest of the Government.—Boston Herald, Ind. Rep.

—Gould's stake is the Pacific Railroad monopoly. He desires to escape the payment of $150,000,000 to the Government, and to create, as ex Senator Thurman warns us, a monster monopoly more powerful and more grasping than any the country has ever known. What does Gould need to accomplish this grand object? He owns Blaine. He can buy the Senate. He moves the District Judges of the United States like pawns. Gould needs the Supreme Court of the United States. If the course of Blaineism should be visited on the country the author of the Fisher letters, the suppliant to Mulligan, the salesman of Congressional committees, the liar of the Hocking Valley, would have the power during his term of office to reconstruct the Supreme Court of the United States, the final arbiter of the Constitution and the laws. Jay Gould has bought the Judgeships. Blaine must pay the debt. He cannot defraud Gould out of the property he has purchased. With a Stanley Matthews majority on the Supreme Court Bench Jay Gould would be more supreme than the Court itself.—N. Y. World, Dem.

COTTON.

N. Y. Commercial and Financial Chronicle. NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The movement of the crop, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (Oct. 31) the total receipts have reached 285,112 bales, against 277,470 bales last week, 242,313 bales the previous week and 205,289 bales three weeks since; making the total receipts since the 1st of Sept., 1884, 1,485,830 bales, against 1,465,097 bales for the same period of 1883, showing a decrease since Sept. 1, 1884, of 30,977 bales.

The exports for the week ending this evening reach a total of 122,562 bales, of which 72,106 were to Great Britain, 3,254 to France and 47,202 to the rest of the Continent, while the stocks as made up this evening are now 878,833 bales.

Wednesday opened dearer, but the selling movement increased and the close was easier. Yesterday the opening was again buoyant and the close firm at a decided advance. Today the market opened dearer, but soon became quiet; toward the close, however, there was renewed buoyancy on the smaller receipts and the interior towns, and as compared with last Friday the market is 17 @ 19 points dearer. Cotton on the spot is quiet and unchanged until yesterday, when quotations advanced 1-16c. To-day there is a further advance of 1-16c, with a limited business for home consumption, middling uplands closing at 9 1/2c. The total sales for forward delivery for the week are 447,000 bales.

Eleven hundred and fifty names actually enrolled is not so bad, showing for the Independent Republican cause in Onondaga county.—Syracuse Herald.

N. Y. Commercial and Financial Chronicle. NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The movement of the crop, as indicated by our telegrams from the South to-night, is given below. For the week ending this evening (Oct. 31) the total receipts have reached 285,112 bales, against 277,470 bales last week, 242,313 bales the previous week and 205,289 bales three weeks since; making the total receipts since the 1st of Sept., 1884, 1,485,830 bales, against 1,465,097 bales for the same period of 1883, showing a decrease since Sept. 1, 1884, of 30,977 bales.

The exports for the week ending this evening reach a total of 122,562 bales, of which 72,106 were to Great Britain, 3,254 to France and 47,202 to the rest of the Continent, while the stocks as made up this evening are now 878,833 bales.

Wednesday opened dearer, but the selling movement increased and the close was easier. Yesterday the opening was again buoyant and the close firm at a decided advance. Today the market opened dearer, but soon became quiet; toward the close, however, there was renewed buoyancy on the smaller receipts and the interior towns, and as compared with last Friday the market is 17 @ 19 points dearer. Cotton on the spot is quiet and unchanged until yesterday, when quotations advanced 1-16c. To-day there is a further advance of 1-16c, with a limited business for home consumption, middling uplands closing at 9 1/2c. The total sales for forward delivery for the week are 447,000 bales.

Eleven hundred and fifty names actually enrolled is not so bad, showing for the Independent Republican cause in Onondaga county.—Syracuse Herald.

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

The following dispatch was tonight sent to North Carolina by the National Democratic Committee: "HEADQUARTERS NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE, NEW YORK, October 31, 1884.—To R. H. Battle, Chairman Democratic State Committee, Raleigh, N. C.: I am in receipt of your telegram and of several other communications from your State, calling attention to a circular issued by J. F. Mott, Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of North Carolina, which, in order to prejudice white voters against the Democratic ticket, charges that an Act of the New York Legislature, lately approved by Gov. Cleveland, established mixed schools; while to colored voters the representation is made by North Carolina Republicans that Cleveland's election would mean their re-enslavement. These things are wholly false. They are only specimens of the many fabrications issued by the leaders of the Republican party on the eve of election, in the desperate hope of sustaining their waning cause."

"Democrats all over the land should remember that Cleveland's public record is so pure that no attack could be made upon it. The Republican managers have persistently charged Cleveland with being bitterly anti-Catholic and have appealed to the priests in a circular, which leading Catholics denounce as an outrage against the Catholic Church as well as against Governor Cleveland. Now they have turned about and in an address to their Presidential candidate, thankfully received by him, they denounce Cleveland as the representative of the party of Rum, Romanism and Rebellion."

"No man who is in favor of honest government will pay the slightest attention to these slanderous falsehoods nor can they affect the result otherwise than by arousing the indignation of honest voters and increasing the majorities of Cleveland and Hendricks electors next Tuesday."

A. P. GORMAN, Chairman Executive Committee.

CURRENT COMMENT.

By the last report of the National Commissioner of Railroads it appears that the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific Railroad Companies now owe the United States Government $102,935,794, nearly half of which is interest. The commissioner urges Congress to take speedy and final action looking to the ultimate payment of this enormous debt. This debt is what Senator Edmunds referred to as "Jay Gould's breast-works," from behind which "Mr. Blaine always appeared, musket in hand," when he and Thurman joined hands in the interest of the Government.—Boston Herald, Ind. Rep.

—Gould's stake is the Pacific Railroad monopoly. He desires to escape the payment of $150,000,000 to the Government, and to create, as ex Senator Thurman warns us, a monster monopoly more powerful and more grasping than any the country has ever known. What does Gould need to accomplish this grand object? He owns Blaine. He can buy the Senate. He moves the District Judges of the United States like pawns. Gould needs the Supreme Court of the United States. If the course of Blaineism should be visited on the country the author of the Fisher letters, the suppliant to Mulligan, the salesman of Congressional committees, the liar of the Hocking Valley, would have the power during his term of office to reconstruct the Supreme Court of the United States, the final arbiter of the Constitution and the laws. Jay Gould has bought the Judgeships. Blaine must pay the debt. He cannot defraud Gould out of the property he has purchased. With a Stanley Matthews majority on the Supreme Court Bench Jay Gould would be more supreme than the Court itself.—N. Y. World, Dem.
