Wisconsin shows large Demoeratic gams, and if the ratio of gains down in our latest reports is maintained, Cleveland will earry that Sar by a handsome plurality.

California and Nevada, too, are rensidered doubtful States.

The result now seems to hinge on York, and we have every reasal to believe that her vote will be east for Cleveland and Hendricks. North Corolina goes overwhelmin the mocratic and has covered herwith glory.

P. S.-3.30 A. M. The news grows better and better. Our latest intelligence leaves little doubt of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks.

Mr. Abbey has spent $30,000 in playing "Romeo and Juliet" on the stage for Mary Anderson, Mr. Wingfield has been drilling 180 persons for four months, all of whom will appear in the play. Mary Anderson plays Juliet. It will be a splendid affair and the American will do her part well. The London Pall Mall Gazette

The enic artists have been careful to delineate actual streets, actually existing squares and garlens-expunging from their canvass such houses as were proved by internal evidence to belong to a later time, and substituting in their stead buildings of a correct character and style. The furniture, accessories and wall decoration of Juliet's cham er are faithfully reproduced from a quaint icture of Carpaccio, representing a female intin bed, a piece of which is to be seen the British Museum. There is probably but little doubt that Khartoum has fallen and the brave Gordon is a prisoner, if not murdered. A cable dispatch to the Herald from Paris says:

"The Mahdi, in the beginning of September, hearing of the advance of the British forces, made a supreme effort to reduce Khartoum, which place at the end of September was surrounded by 150,000

The deputation also demanded that a retreat be made to Dongola, and threatened that if this action were not taken they would join the Mahdi. Gen. Gordon thereupon consented to the plan proposed, Meanwhile a panic arose and 8,000 soldiers and civilians deserted in a body. Two thousand men remained faithful and embarked with Gen. Gordon. The rebels were alvisal of what had occurred, and harhased the retreat to Shendy, where masses of rebels, provided with artilley, disabled the flotilla. About the 14th of October Gen Gordon was sent under a strong esart to the Mahdi's camp, where he is now a close prisoner."

Bradstreet's reported for last week 234 failures in the United States, against 135 for 1881. The South furnished as follows: Florida, Maryland and North Carolina 2 each; Tennessee and Virginia 2 each; Arkansas, Louisiana and West Virginia 4 each; Kentucky 5; Missouri 6; Georgia 10, and Texas 15. Alaska Explorations.

Under this heading the Savannah Morn ing News, of Monday, has this to say of a former Wilmington boy, Lieut. John C. Cantwell, son of Col. Edward Cantwell, formerly of Wilmington, but now of Geor-

It has been already noticed in our dispatches that Lieut, John C. Cantwell, son of Prof. Cantwell, of the Georgia Military Academy, of this city, who has been in charge of the work of exploring the great unknown river lately discovered in Alaska, reached San Francisco October 8th on the U. S. steamer Corwin. The party were two months absent from their ship in Alaska, pursuing their investigations. Lieut. Cantwell is now engaged in preparing his report for the Government, and, in a letter to his sister, residing in Clyde, he gives the following interesting statements relative to the expedition: "Pushing forward into the interior of Alaska, we explored the country. Our steam launch boiler burst when about 350 miles from the mouth of the river, but we continued the exploration in a canoe with two Indians. for 12 days more; when our provisions having become exhausted, we turned about and beat a hasty retreat for home, living on the country as we came. We had plenty of flour, water and ammunition, and we liked nothing better than bread cooked by winding the dough around a stick and baking it in that way. We had bear, deer, and all kinds of birds for meat, and we would have been all right if we had not been nearly eaten up by mosquitoes. You will laugh, probably, at the idea of mosquitoes in this land of snow and ice, but it is true, nevertheless. They are simply terrific in their attacks. To sum up, I was absent from the ship 59 days, and covered over 1,400 miles of land and water; but with all that the expedition was not as successful as I could have wished, on account of the accident to the launch."

Comparatively New Article of Com-

A gentleman of this city who lately visited Point Caswell, Pender county, was surprised to find such a large business being done in the article known as vanilla, or "dog-tongue," but botanically classified as Liatzis adoratisuma. Mr. R. H. Paddison is doing the bulk of the business. He has paid out about four thousand dollars during the past year for the article in its dry state, the average price there being from 21 to 3 cents per pound. Quite a number of the colored people in the neighborhood make a living by procuring the material in its crude state and drying it for the market. There seems to be a good demand for "dog-tongue," to be used in flavoring tobacco and for other purposes.

An Attempt to Destroy Registration We learn through a special telegram to the STAR that the residence of J. B. The Election in the City. The election here yesterday was an extremely quiet one. Indeed, we question if a more peaceable one has ever been known ever in Wilmington, a city proverbial for the maintenance of good order at the polls. There was scarcely a ripple of excitement at any of the voting precincts. The advice of the STAR to vote early seems to have been literally observed. At some of the precincts half of the vote was cast before 11 o'clock. The following are the TWENTY-FOUR YEARS TO LIVE .- From John TWENTY-FOUR YEARS TO LIVE.—From John Kuhn Lafayette, Ind., who amounce that he is now in "perfect health," we have the following: "One year ago I was, to all appearance, in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave my case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours My friends then purchased a bottle of DR. WM, HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LU 'GS, which benefited me. I continued uptil I took nine bottles. I am now in perfect health, having used no other medicine." Wm. H. Green, Agent, Wilmington, N. C.

A STEP FROM STARVATION TO RICHES.—In St. Louis, Mo, a Canadian, Louis P. Alhman, re-siding in a room No. 325 Spruce st., was the hap-plest man last night. To a reporter he said, "I plest man last night. To a reporter he said, "I was out of work and money. I borrowed $1.00 srom the barkeeper at DeVota's saloon, on 4th st., and bought a fifth of ticket No. 70,469, in the Sept. 9th drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. My family ran out of food, and I offered the ticket for fifteen cents—no one would buy—when I received the drawing list, and found I had drawn $15,000, my wife and brothers who had scolded me, immediately recognized my ability, and congratulated me heartily. I once sold a ticket in this same lottery, after paying $1.00 for it, six years ago, for $3.00, and it drew $5,000 the next day."—St. Louis (Mo.) Republican, Sept. 18.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying bables and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet falled to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
