

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.-At the request of meeting: the Democratic State Committee, John Kelly ordered a salute of 100 guns fired in front of Tammany Hall at 12 o'clock to-

The excitement of the election has now subsided very much in the city, and most of the special bulletin boards in front of newspaper offices have been removed. A small number of people gathered in Print-ing House Square, but there was nothing now to read and no one remained long.

Bets on the election are being paid by Wall street men who bet on Blaine, and business is returning to its normal condi-

California, Nevada and Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8 .- With three counties to hear from, California gives Blaine 89,665; Cleveland 77,503; Butler 946; St. John 897. Blaine's majority 10, 319. The Republicans elected a full Congressional delegation of six.

With one county to hear from Nevada gives Blaine 7,689; Cleveland 6,303; Blaine's majority so far 1,386.

Nothing like complete returns can be obtained from Oregon, but it is known. Blaine's majority in the State will be fully 2.000.

The Expiring Kick of the Republicas National Committee-Alleged Frauds in Albany.

"REPUBLICAN NATIONAL HEADQUAR-TERS, NEW YORK, NOV. 8-NOOD. -To the Republicans of the Country: We have carried New York. The official count will confirm it. Blaine and Logan have 218 electoral votes, and are elected

ALBANY, November 8.-The Evening Journal claims to have discovered what it calls a "glaring fraud" in the Twelfth Ward of this city. The returns of two districts disappeared, and a Journal reporter hunted them up to day, and asserts that the figures were so altered as to elect the Democratic county treasurer by ten votes. Figures of the Twelfth Ward, given to all the papers of the city on the night of the election elected a Republican county treasurer. The Journal says 120 votes were changed in order to count out the Republicans. The matter is in the hands of ex Senator Harris of the ward thrown out. Cleveland will lose 388 votes. The Journal calls for a prompt investigation.

Cleveland's plurality in the State is 17,127. Only a few votes were cast for St. John. It is not likely that points to hear from will change Cleveland's plurality more than 1,000 votes in any event.

Several Persons Injured While Firing a Salute in Richmond. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

FELLOW DEMOCRATS:-Confined to a sick bed, and unable to be present in person with you, to share in your rejoicings over the great victory which we, as a Democratic people have achieved over the hosts of a corrupt and powerful adversary, claim the privilege out of the abundance of a sympathetic heart to send to you my cordial greetings. Under Providence and by the peaceful method of a fair ballot the people themselves have rescued the republic from the domination of dishonest forces, operating towards its present injury and ultimate overthrow, and have effected a revolution for honesty and reform, for economy and fidelity, in the administration of the government. When our National Convention assembled, there were in the leadership of the party, several prominent persons. Each capable, by intellect, by virtue and by service of justifying his selection for the chief nomination of the party. But there was that in the public record f Governor Grover Cleveland, of New York, which furnished forth so exalted a standard of official honor and executive success as at once above all others to engross the public attention.

It really seemed as occasion succeeded to occasion he had been demanded for the emergencies, and on each the man and the opportunity had come together, and the victorious prowess of the man had each time been established

It is fit and proper, ina much as the result has so happily justified the wisdom and sagacity of the selection, that the North Carolina delegation, and with it especially the delegation from our own district should receive from us an appropriate recognition of their prompt discernment of the situation and of their aid and influence in bringing about the auspicious result.

It is altogether becoming that our rejoicings should be heart-felt and enthusiastic. But it must not be forgotten that our victory is not merely a prize, which is a plaything and a toy, but is the gift of a sovereign people, embodying a power and a trust.

To the intellectual and patriotic mind there is more than a partizan election.

There is a moral grandeur in the responsibility imposed which our patriotic attributes must elevate themselves to group. The adverse forces of evil are not destroyed, but subdued. It will require vigilance, prudence, self-restraint and a faithful observance of pledges, to enable us to retain the ascendancy which we have won.

We must continue to follow our leader in the pursuance of those methods and practices which have enabled him while being politically a sturdy Democrat, to win and keep the confidence of the conservative element of his political adversaries, so as to bring them as a reinforcement in the time of need-and out of their balance of power to extract a joint victory.

If it should happen (which I pray may not occur) that desperation shall take hold upon the Republican leaders and they shall be able to stimulate their followers to another fraudulent attempt to hinder the people in the enjoyment of their right to select their rulers, and to impose upon them again a government not of their choice; in such an event we have the assurance of a seemingly aroused and determined Northern Democracy to repel such attempt to the last extremity, and to maintain the choice of the people and to inaugu-rate Cleveland and Hendricks at all hazards, let consequences come as may. In such a contingency, or in face of such a threatened condition, our duty is plain. Nothing I hope will be done by our people for provoking, or for brag, pars sensation. Let our base of operations be a sense of patriotic duty to our country, whose loyal citizens we are, and from this base we can advance on the line of right, completely equipped for all emergencies. By maintaining a calm but firm pres-ence—exhibited in a certain and dignified assertion of our rights as we understand and claim them to be—we will give the most satisfactory assurance to our brethren, that we may be relied on.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming con-vinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homcopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Return-ing home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating an-other sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her ab-sence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all bands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and al-though at first offended at the deception prac-ticed upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering orying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and over-come the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Fellow Democrats, all hail our great victory. God help us to turn it to a blessed account for our State and country.

We have achieved a glorious triumph in our State election. The white race has well nigh preserved its unity and thus defeated a mongrel coalition, finally and for good. We have given to the people tried and trusty servants, in whose hands their honor and interest may be safely reposed. And this section has cause to rejoice in that her special standard-bearer has so borne hum-self in the campaign as to win the en-thusiastic plaudits of friends, while commanding the respect and esteem of his ad-versaries throughout our land.

The elective government has been restored to its constitutional func-tions. Let us thank God andtake
