THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 13, 1884.

EVENING EDITION.

THE "MAGNETIC" KNAVE.

Blaine did not prove the "aggressive" and "magnetic" champion that his worshippers thought. He was found not only to shift his plans in the midst of the fight, but he played "fast and loose" and did the tallest lying of any man who ever canvassed for office. His actual known false statements number thirty-two. It is no wonder that Beecher described him as a "Continental liar." His "magnetism" only served to defeat him. Just as he attracted to himself such fellows as Parson Ball and Parson Burchard and Steve Elkins and the "Star Routers" generally, and Everts and other Republicans of like "kidney," he repelled such honest men as Conkling and Edmunds and Bristow and thousands of the most cultivated, purest and best men in the party. The cutting down of the vote in the big Republican States, with the exception of Pennsylvania, shows that Blaine's "magnetism" is of a very extraordinary kind—it diminishes the popular majority in almost every State for himself. A great deal less of that sort of "magnetism" would have helped his party and himself. Roughly, it may be said, his "magnetism" reduced the Republican majority as follows: Illinois 25,000; Iowa 70,000; Kansas 14,000; Michigan 51,000; Massachusetts 43,000; Minnesota, 5,000; Nebraska 5,000; Ohio 23,000; Wisconsin 20,000; Indiana 11,000; Connecticut 5,000; New York 22,000 and so on. In North Carolina his "magnetism" did not prevent him from losing some 15,000 and more votes. Garfield beat Hancock some 6,000 votes. Cleveland has defeated Blaine by not less than 150,000 majority.

HERD.

If there is one man in the North-west we honor above all others, it is Frank Herd of the Tenth Ohio District. He is a man of marked gifts and is honest. He has opinions and he expresses them without fear or favor. He is able and he uses his ability for the good of his country. He is thoroughly furnished as a political economist, and he exercises his rare powers and information in exposing brazen-faced Monopoly and insatiate and unconscionable Protection. He has been often defeated, but he never lowers his flag or palters with the enemy. He was defeated in the recent election by fraud or false counting, and rumor says he will go before the next Congress with his case. The Philadelphia Record says:

"In Lucas county he finds that he received 51 votes more than was credited to him; in Erie county a mistake of 90 votes has been discovered in favor of his opponent, and there are other discrepancies which justify a re-count. The declared result. The majority of Mr. Romeka was only 280, which is reduced to 99 by the errors already noted."

He is the ablest man possibly in the present Congress, and it is a misfortune to the country to lose the services of such a man. Able, conscientious, courageous, eloquent, he is the peer in debate of any adversary. If he has been defrauded, we hope sincerely that he will be seated. He says he will not have his seat unless fully entitled to it.

AN EXCELLENT REPORT.

We have received a copy of the able and thorough report of Dr. Thomas F. Wood made at the last meeting of the North Carolina State Medical Society. It is an attempt to set forth the work heretofore accomplished by the State Board of Medical Examiners during the last six years. The term of the Board expired by limitation and as a new Board was to begin its work, it was highly proper and, in fact, necessary that the retiring Board should report upon the operations. It is excellently done by Dr. Wood, editor of the North Carolina Medical Journal. The report concludes as follows:

"We say, in conclusion, that having demonstrated the earnestness and zeal of the medical profession by the exhibition of accomplished work, done in the interests of the entire population, we ask for a studious consideration of our needs. We have already done far more for the State than has been done for any other State in the character of the medical profession, and we trust that she will strengthen us by revising the law under which we work."

We trust that the members-elect to the Legislature that assembles in January next, will make it their special business to inform themselves as to the work done by the State Board of Medical Examiners, and that they will consider well any suggestions or requests that may be made by the new Medical Board, as well as by the retiring Board, that may be deemed necessary to give additional efficiency and strength to the Board and thereby advance the profession in the State.

It is certain that a noble work has been accomplished already and under sharp difficulties. The medical profession, that is so necessary for the human family, was never so high in our State as now. The progress has been most marked. Judicious legislation may do much to still farther elevate the medical profession in North Carolina.

The unscrupulous Philadelphia Press says "the legal battle will take place in New York city." We have for days suspected that the serious attempt to steal the vote of New York would be made in the great city, and the tone of the great dailies of Wednesday indicate this most clearly. There are grave fears that Tammany may prove treacherous and sell out. Every rasal that betrays the party will richly deserve hanging and if he does not escape to Canada such will be his fate. The fact that Tammany Aldermen voted to make a Republican Chairman of the Returning Board is regarded as significant. It was certainly a strange procedure and without excuse. It is true John Kelly says it meant nothing politically but it did, and it may mean a sell out and rascality of the deepest kind. But what a racket there will be in New York if treacherous Tammanites should attempt to thwart the will of the majority. We publish interesting extracts elsewhere from our latest Northern exchanges.

Miss Emily Faithful, in her recent book on the United States pays a fine tribute to Miss Mary Anderson, as does Max O'Rell, the French satirist, from whom we quoted recently. The Philadelphia American of the 8th says thus:

"Writing of actors and plays, Miss Faithful ascribes John T. Raymond's failure in London to the fact that the English could not understand Yankee fun. Consequently she says, Mr. Raymond did not find 'the millions in it' he has in his own country. Mr. and Mrs. Florence were fortunately provided with a play full of broader and more general humor, and they obtained a wide and enthusiastic hearing. London players gave no niggardly greeting to Mr. Jefferson, Laurence Barrett, or Edwin Booth, and as for the beautiful Mary Anderson, she has simply taken the whole of Britain by storm! Miss Anderson emphatically represents what the stage still wants in both countries, well-bred, educated, accomplished ladies, whose principles have been tested, and whose culture is the result of thought and experience."

The election stealers tried their hand in Albany in the Twelfth Ward. A legal jay-hawker, according to the Times, "presented an affidavit to the effect that twelve votes were received in the Twelfth Ward of that city from persons who were not registered, and he moved that the whole Ward be disfranchised for the alleged misdemeanor of the Inspectors in that case. This is a piece of injustice against which the law very carefully provides."

Blaine gained 43,277 majority in Pennsylvania. His plurality is 80,553. That vote shows precisely how stupid are the starving workmen who have no work. They believed Blaine's lies about Protection and voted accordingly.

The Savannah News has an editorial the object of which is to disabuse the minds of the colored people of any danger to their liberties in the election of Cleveland. It characterizes and very properly as "preposterous" the idea of returning the colored people to slavery. It says that there is widespread alarm and without any reason. It says:

"When the matter is thoughtfully considered, however, it is not so very remarkable that the most ignorant of the colored people should be troubled with doubts and forebodings of danger. Their sphere of observation since they obtained their freedom has been extremely limited. They have not yet reached that point where they are able to grasp the actual facts of the situation and form a conclusion of their own. They are to be pitied. Only the heartless will attempt to increase their alarm."

The Norfolk Ledger and Landmark have judicious and timely reference to the same needless scare. The whole thing is a lie out of the whole cloth.

The great Italian actress Ristori, has just appeared in Philadelphia as Elizabeth, in the tragedy of that name. It was her first performance in English. The Times of that city says of her performance:

"Ristori's Elizabeth has many points of resemblance to Rossi's Louis XI. in its polished craft and in the strength of character and will that underlies every manifestation of weakness and dignifies every physical collapse. Its historical accuracy is not necessary to discuss; as a dramatic impersonation it is as complete as it is complex, and as a display of technical mastery, in the expression of the widest range of sentiment, passion and emotion, it has not been surpassed upon our stage in recent years nor equaled save by Ristori's brilliant countryman."

Rev. Dr. Deems has been explaining. He says he is not as reported "a life-long Democrat," and is "not now a Democrat." He says he has voted as often for Republicans as Democrats and in the last election voted for St. John. For his sake we are glad he did not vote for the "plumed knave"

Skeat, in the Supplement to his great work on Etymology, says that Yankee is from the verb to yank (also found in low German and Dutch), and, therefore, indicates quickness.

THE PERIODICALS.

The Sanitarian for October contains noticeable articles by capable medical and scientific writers. Dr. Bell writes about "The Truth about Narcotics and Stimulants." Dr. Kedzie treats of "Drainage for Health." Prof. Youmans discusses "Temperance Physiology." There are other papers of more or less interest. Price $1 a year. Published at 113 Fulton street, New York.

The Musical Herald, published in Boston, is a capital monthly of its kind. Get it. You find at least three good pieces of music in each number and entertaining reading. Price 10 cents a number.

The North Carolina Teacher for October is well printed and well filled as is usual with this clever and creditable North Carolina monthly. Price $1 a year. Eugene G. Harrell, Managing Editor, Raleigh, N. C.

MR. CONKLING ON THE SITUATION.

New York Herald, 12th. Being asked as to his views on the result of the Supervisor's canvass of the Presidential vote of New York State, Mr. Conkling said to a reporter of the Herald yesterday:

"My information now extends to some fifty counties. In twenty-three or more the boards of supervisors met to-day and concluded their task. No changes were made worth noting, but with straightforward honesty the fact was certified as it had already appeared by returns filed in the offices of the county clerks and published days ago.

"In the other twenty odd of the fifty counties heard from to-day, there seems no ground of controversy or doubt, but everything indicates that in these counties also the boards of supervisors will declare what the filed returns have from the first shown.

"In this city and Kings county there seems no reason to apprehend any serious difficulty or question about the number of votes given to the Presidential tickets—that number is already known far and wide.

"As to writs of mandamus, or other extraordinary proceedings, I cannot discover any need or excuse for them so far, nor any justification for prolonging or haggling over the matter.

"Indeed, it seems to me that any one who seriously intended the various rumored attempts must have been imposed upon as to the facts.

"It will surprise me if all are not finally satisfied when they learn what seems already past doubt.

"It seems quite obvious that the State of New York has appointed the electors favorable to Cleveland and Hendricks, and the sooner the fact is accepted the better it seems to me it will be for the whole country."

An Awful Wall.

The old rebel yell already rings all over the South. And why not? The old days have come back and the South is once more in the saddle. The victories of the man of the Union are at last reversed and the hungry hordes may well glory in the prospect of the loot that is before them. They will scarcely do as well

THE LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

NEW YORK.

Special Dispatch to the Washington Post. New York, Nov. 11.—The Democratic committee have received advices from every county in the State to-day, which have been satisfactory without an exception. In this county, New York, and in Kings and Queens counties, which comprise Brooklyn and part of Long Island, only an organization was effected. Senator Gorman informs me that the committee have the best reasons for believing that Cleveland's plurality, instead of being reduced, will be increased to nearly 8,000, the result of the return of erroneous additions.—Stanton Huletts, editor.

Special to Philadelphia Times, Ind. Rep. New York, November 11.—Canvassed returns received this evening by the Democratic State Committee, from twenty four counties, indicated a change of six votes in favor of Blaine, against sixty (in Livingston) in favor of Cleveland. No returns had been received by the Republican National Committee, at the Victoria Hotel, and Chairman Draper, of the Republican State Executive Committee, could not be found. General John N. Knapp, Stalwart Republican from Auburn, said he believed the official canvass would make no material change in the published returns. "If there is any hitch," said he, "it will be in New York and Kings counties. Up in the country people are now in twenty-four hours after the polls close what the result is. I think it is a sure thing."

Philadelphia Times, Editorial, Wednesday. Whether the apparent collapse of the Blaine fraud cry is a surrender at discretion or a cover for some fresh scheme to be developed hereafter, yesterday's proceedings do not disclose. It is possible, of course, that some errors may be discovered more important than came to light yesterday, but the official figures thus far so exactly sustain the returns already published that it will require a very strong case indeed to shake the public confidence in their general accuracy.

N. Y. World, 12th, Editorial. It is rumored that a fraud is contemplated in the returns through a conspiracy between a Supreme Court politico-judicial heeler, certain lawyers well "up" in political tricks, the Republican Aldermen and some purchased Democratic members of the board. We do not believe there is any foundation for the rumor. It probably arises from the election of a Republican Alderman as Chairman of the Board of Canvassers by Republican and Tammany votes. But it is doubtless baseless. Tammany has shown good faith as an organization. We do not therefore credit a report of treachery. But if any fraud should be contemplated it would only end in the total discomfiture of its promoters. It would be very fortunate for them if it did not end in worse.

N. Y. Times, 12th. "Why, they'd mob any Democratic Alderman who betrayed the party in the count of the electoral vote in the city!" exclaimed a Democrat last night who has an intimate knowledge of the plans of the Democratic managers. He added: "Every Democrat in the city knows that Cleveland is elected, and they expect that trickery on the part of the Blaine people will be reported to prevent his getting the honest result of his election, but they will not tolerate trickery or treachery on the part of members of their own party."

"It may be a question whether John Kelly can control the Tammany Aldermen if an organization is placed behind him by the Blaine managers. He seems to them that he can, however, and he apprehends no treachery on their part. A representative of the National Democratic Committee called upon him at his house last night and had a long interview with him about the deal between the Tammany and Republican Aldermen which gave the Chairmanship of the Board of Canvassers to a Republican. Mr. Kelly said that the casting of the vote in Tammany's Aldermen for Alderman Waite was without political significance."

New York Sun, 12th, Blaine Organ. Now that the defeat of Blaine is beyond question, the tongues of his partisan supporters will be loosened, and we shall probably hear a wail of lamentation and a cry of rage over the blindness which sacrificed the Republican party by his candidacy.

It is gratifying to observe how closely the returns which the Sun has printed during the last five or six days coincide with the figures now furnished by the official canvassers. As the canvass proceeds we shall continue to correct our table in accordance with these findings, but nothing has come to light up to this time which indicates that any very considerable change in the figures will become necessary.

N. Y. Herald, 12th. One successful burglary leads naturally to a second attempt, and so the men who hold the presidency and got the rewards tempt new cohorts some of the old ones to help them—to another theft of the same kind. The "plunder" is extending to the adventurous kind of politicians.

With this list before them, no doubt it will be possible to tempt men disposed to crime to assist in the Blaine attempt to steal the Presidency a second time. But it is useful to remember that it is New York, not Florida and Louisiana, which is the chief theatre of the drama, and that the State Prison yards for the men who are trying to— and we trust for the big as widely as for the little ones.

BLAINEISM.

Norfolk Virginian. Members of the Republican National Committee concede Cleveland's election. They telegraphed Blaine on Thursday, and again on Friday, that Cleveland had been elected. On Thursday this conversation is said to have occurred over the wire:

National Committee—"We think Cleveland is elected."

Blaine—"Do you?"

Committee—"Yes. He has carried New York."

Blaine—"Can nothing be done in Indiana?"

Committee—"No."

Blaine—"Nor in the South?"

Committee—"No."

Blaine—"Well, all I have to say is that you gentlemen must have mismanaged."

Committee—"We have done the best we could."

Blaine—"Well, for the present claim everything."

These, say the reports, are a sample of the messages with which Blaine has kept his wire hot day and night.

The Canvass of the Returns—The Gains and Losses as Compared with First Reports.—Blaine's Net Gain 84—Cleveland's Net Loss 199. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) New York, November 13.—The gains and losses in the returns of the Board of Canvassers, so far as the canvass has been made, as compared with the Press returns sent out in the afternoon, are as follows: 1st Assembly district—84 election district, Blaine has a gain of 10 votes; 16th election district, Blaine loses 1 vote and Cleveland loses 49; 8d Assembly district—8d election district, Cleveland gains 3 votes; 12th election district, Cleveland gains 1 vote; 15th election district, Cleveland loses 1 vote; 17th election district, Blaine gains 78 votes and Cleveland loses 155 votes; 2d Assembly district—10th election precinct, Cleveland loses 2 votes; 23d election district, Cleveland gains 1 vote; 26th election district, Blaine loses 8 votes.

[The canvass of the returns, in previous dispatches, has been compared with the table of the New York Times, which has been proven generally correct. The above dispatch makes a comparison with the first reports of the Associated Press, which were notoriously incorrect, and so worded as to deceive the public and create as much confusion as possible. The correctness of this latter dispatch will therefore have to be received with much suspicion.—STAR.]

FOREIGN.

The Cholera Gradually Spreading in Paris—Heavy Exodus from the City—Gen. Gordon Aged Reported Killed—Resignation of the American Minister at Rome. (By Cable to the Morning Star.)

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The cholera epidemic seems unquestionably to be spreading gradually throughout the city. In spite of this, however, the people show no signs as yet of panic fear. Precautions of every kind are being taken by the public and by individual people, and as far as possible, the deadly progress of the plague. On Monday one warehouse sold 30,000 yards of red flannel, the wearing of which is supposed by many to be efficient in guarding against the disease. Such troops and policemen as are detailed for night duty are given an allowance of rum in the coffee.

Many people have already left the city, in hope of getting beyond the fatal influence of the disease. Lately the exodus has been increasing, and a continuous stream of vehicles can now be seen in the streets leading to various railroad stations, filled with people eager to get at a safe distance from the city.

PARIS, Nov. 13.—Prime Minister Ferry communicated dispatches to the Cabinet this morning, from which it would appear that General Gordon has been shot dead while passing from Khartoum to Berber.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—The Politische Correspondenz says that the American Minister at Rome resigned his position as soon as he received the news of the election of Governor Cleveland.

MICHIGAN.

The Presidential Vote—Seven Fusionists and Four Republicans Elected to Congress. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.)

DETROIT, Nov. 13.—Forty-three of the eighty counties in Michigan report official count Blaine's pluralities 13,353; Fusion pluralities 6,370. The remaining counties are all evenly divided between the Fusionists and Republicans, but the Republican plurality figure in the figures so far reported has been cut down to between 4,000 and 5,000. The Congressional delegation stands seven Fusionists and four Republicans.

NEW ORLEANS.

Fire on Board of a Cotton Laden Steamship. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.)

NEW ORLEANS, November 13.—Fire was discovered last night in cotton stored amidship on the British steamship Rhodora, loading for Havre. About 1,500 bales were aboard, and much of it was badly damaged. The vessel was from Penarth, Wales, and was owned by Edwards & Robinson, Liverpool, and chartered for the Harrison line. The extent of the damage to the vessel and cargo has not been determined.
