For several years I have used no other Hair warmly recommended to me by a friend who had tested its value. It has, in my experience, accomplished all that is claimed for it as a wholesome preserver and restorer of the natural color of the hair, and a thorough preventive of dandruff.

The Morning Star

TO MY JEWEL.

BY W. H. BLOUNT.

Come back to me, my jewel, I now do you beseech. With you away the town to me Is but a barren beach; Come back to me, my jewel, And wreathe my sombre hours With buds of joy which blossem out In your delightful bowers.

Come back to me, my jewel, Dark night hangs o'er my sky, Come back and make it twinkle With love beams of thine eye; Come back to me, my jewel, There's gloom in my sad heart, Come back and with your presence The shadows will depart.

Come back to me, my jewel, And let your merry voice, Impart its thrill of rapture And make my heart rejoice; Come back to me, my jewel, And let me once more see The flowers of that lovliness

Come back to me, my jewel, I need my precious gem, The brightest that ever sparkled In love's rich diadem: So, now, come back, my jewel.

I will an anthem raise

Which bloom so sweet for me

And to my Queen, at last returned, Her many virtues praise. - Wilson Mirror

DELAYING THE CANVASS.

N. Y. Times, Rep., Thursday. The Board of Aldermen, after two days' effort, have canvassed the returns of three Assembly districts. At this rate they will not be through before the end of next week. The State Board of Canvassers will meet at Albany to receive the county statements of the votes for Presidential Electors on Wednesday next. If the statements are not all in they may adjourn from day to day not exceeding five days. There seems to be nothing to prevent the Aldermen from taking their time, and perhaps they are working with reasonable expedition, but they could easily have their statement in the hands of the Secretary of State before Wednesday next if they would canvass the returns for Electors throughout all

- Mr. George William Curtis is credited with and can take the cake for the champion campaign conundrum, the answer to which makes James G. Blaine like a grand piano "because he is neither square nor upright."—N. Y. World.

- We are told that Casabianca Reid, of the New York Tribune, stood on the burning deck in New York until the flames that lit the battle wreck stole into the powder magazine and blew that young and faithful heart to smithereens. - Chicago

- In the Third district one vote for Belva Lockwood was found, and also one for "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." - The Republicans who pin their faith to Evarts, Elkins & Co., should understand that New York State is not a Louisiana or a Florida of 1876. The Casanave and the J. Almost a Miracle!

A REMARKABLE STORY. A few days ago a gentleman of high standing in Atlanta met Dr. J. Bradfield on the street, and elated the following, in which all ladies are deeply interested:

"For the past eighteen months my wife has been an invalid, caused from womb trouble, cessation of menses, etc., and I have tried everything I could hear of in the way of medicine, and have had several of our best physicians attending her, to one of whom, (calling him by name) I paid one hundred and sixty-three dollars. Instead of improving or getting any relief, she gradually grew worse, and I had almost given up hope, and really did not believe she would ever get up from an invalid's bed; but a friend of mine who krew of the case suggested the use of Bradfield's Female Regulator, and although he stated that he knew of a similar and although he stated that he knew of a similar case being cured by it, and endorsed it highly himself, I was so discouraged I did not believe it would do her any good; but as a last resort I bought a large bottle of it and she began taking it, and from the very first a marked change took place. She begun to improve rapidly, her appetite returned, her whole system was built up, and tooday the is as well and sound as ever in her life. to-day she is as well and sound as ever in her life, and I am under life-long obligations to you and your remedy, for it undoubtedly saved her life;" and he added. "I wish every lady in the world so afflicted would try it, as I know it will cure
