- In all the affairs of life the where the fulcrum is placed.

- Do you want your pastor to put more life and warmth into his prayer meetings? Put yourself into them—that will — The Centenary offerings in the West Virginia M. E. Conference aggregate about $16,000. The Centenary committee was continued another year.

- Rev. D. A. Payne, the senior Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, has nearly ready for the publishers a volume on the "Christian Home." - Jackson Miss., gives four thousand dollars as a Centenary offering: Starkville, Miss., gives three thousand dol-lars and Meridian, Miss., give $641.35. - St. Paul had three wishes, and they were all about Christ: that he might be with Christ, that he might be found in Christ, and that he might magnify Christ - The Churches of Christ (or Campbellite Baptists) in Great Britain and Ireland have a membership of 7,506. In this country the denomination numbers 631,720-ninety times as many as in Great

- The Presbyterian Church maintains thirteen Theological schools in the United States. Whole number of professors 55—seven other teachers; number of students 516; number of graduates this year 150. - Dr. John Hall's congregational contributions are larger than any other Presbyterian Chucrh. Of the more than $148,000 given by it to religious objects last year, only $36,000 were for congregational expenses.

-Rev. Jas. Wesley Wightman, D.D., once of the South Carolina Conference but more recently of the West Va. Conference, has lately been received into the Greenbrier Presbytery of the Southern Presbyterian Church. Dr. Wightman has ever proved himself a man of sterling character, and has been for years an earnest and strong preacher. We shall follow him into his new ecclesiastical relations with no abatement of affection for him personally, and with no loss of interest in the usefulness of his ministry. The Dr. is a younger brother of the late Bishop Wightman, whom he closely resembled.—Southern Christian Advocate. -Look at the history of the Church, and you will see that most, if not all, of those whom God had employed in a all, of those whom God had employed in a signal manner for His glory, have been. in one way or another, among the most afflicted of men, either in heart or in body—sometimes in both. Therefore do not be afraid of suffering. Do not think that suftering interferes with service. On the contrary, it helps it on. When, therefore, we offer our prayers to God, and ask Him to take us and make us, don't let us forget to but up another petition between these two. put up another petition between these two, and ask Him to break us. That is a short and comprehensive prayer, "Take me! break me! make me!" God answering that prayer can do something with us. — Theo-dore Monod.

- It is the sin of the nations and the curse of the Church that we have never properly appreciated the Bible as we ought. It is the Book of books, for the priest and for the people, for the old and for the young. It should be the tenant of the academy as well as of the nursery, and ought to be incorporated in our course of education from the mother's knee to graduation in the highest universities in the land. Everything is destined to fail unless the Bible be the fulcrum on which these levers revolve, Can such a book as the Bible be read without an influence that is commensurate with its importance? As well might the flowers sleep when the spring winds its mellow horn to call them from their bed; as well might the mist linger upon the bosom of the lake, when the sun beckons it to leave its dewy home. The Bible plants our feet amid that angel group which stood with eager wing expectant when the Spirit of God first hovered over the abyes of chaos, and wraps us in praise for the newborn world, when the morning stars sang together for joy. The Bible builds for us the world when we were not, stretches our conceptions of the indefinite beyond the last orbit of astronomy, pacifies the moral discord of earth, reorganizes the dust of the sepulchre, and tells man heaven is his home and eternity his life time.—Bishop Pierce. - The Republicans are so mad at the Prohibitionists that many of them have taken to drink out of pure spite. - Boston

MR. BLAINE ISREALLY MAD

Why he Thinks Phelps and Whitelaw Reid were the Cause of his Ruin, Special to the New York World, Augusta, Me, November 13.—It may be interesting to the readers of the World to know there is a very bitter feeling just now in the Blaine household here notwithstanding the denials that have been made. Defeated candidates generally have somebody to find fault with. Mr. Blaine is not an exception. Blame is not an exception. He does most seriously blame some of those who have been very near him through the entire campaign and to whom he has looked for good and safe advice. Emmons Blaine, who is now in New York, had a long conversation with a lady here just before he left in which he completely unbosomed himself as to the views his father takes of his defeat. This lady in turn tells the story to me and I betray no confidence in giving the substance of it in the World. According to Emmons Blaine, the elder Blaine thinks he would have carried New York by a large majority and been elected if the election had taken place a week before it did. He now regrets above all things that he stopped in New York on his return from the West, for it was there during the last week of the campaign that two fatal blunders were committed which would not have been committed if he had been elsewhere. The first was the celebrated lapsus of Dr. Burchard, and the second, the Delmonico din-

Abraham Lincoln's Successor. New York Morning Journal.

Comparisons are said, upon good authority, to be odoriferous. In spite of this time-honored adage, his admirers have begun to compare our simple minded Governor to Abraham Lincoln. He certainly does not look like the martered President in appearance, although he may resemble him in simplicity of character and geniality of humor. If he makes only half as good a President the country will have made no mistake.

Revelations of St. John. Chicago Tribune, Rep.

And this is the God and home scoundrel who lured away 24,000 sentimental, simple-minded Republican cranks of New York from Blaine in order to elect the rum and rebellion candidate Cleveland! He would make a pretty figure hereafter "lecturing on temperance." Satan lecturing on religion should be his traveling companion.

State Gleanings,

-- Rockingham Rocket: For a bad year we consider what we give below as pretty good: Mr. W. C. Cole planted five acres of upland in corn, from which he gathered one hundred and fifty bushels. From the same number of acres in cotton he gathered 8,484 poonds lint, or 1,690

- Louisburg Times: It is with regret we learn of the loss of Mr. H. D. Egerton. His large dwelling about four miles from Louisburg was destroyed by fire on Thursday, together with a large portion of its contents. He thinks that it caught from a spark, as when he discovered almost the entire roof was in a blaze. Loss about $3,500; insurance $1,500. Mr. Egerton and his wife were both away from home, nobody being in the house except his mother and children.

-- Norfolk Virginian: RALEIGH N., C., November 13.-Gov. Jarvis to day ordered the State Board of Canvassers to meet on the 18th inst. to canvass the returns for Electors and State officers. The Board of Canvassers is composed of the Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General and Senators—the latter being W. H. Chadbourn and R. W. Winston, one a Republican and the other a Democrat. Scales, for Governor, will certainly have over 20,000 majority. -Danville (Va.) Register: The eople of Danville, are glad to know this. It is a pleasure to them at all times to en-tertain this distinguished son of "The Old North State," who so bravely and unflinchingly stood by them when John Sherman's investigation committee was using its utmost power to traduce, malign and vilify them. Danville appreciates his labers, and she will not fail to do him that honor he so richly merits, and that she delights to give.

Hurrah for Gov. Vance. -New Berne Journal: Mr. Solomon Broughton of Bairds Creek, Pamlico county, reports the biggest potato yet. It measures twenty six and three-quarter inches in circumference, and weighs eighteen pounds — Mrs. Dr. Burkhead, of this city, we are pleased to learn, has obtained a patent for an improvement on the corsett. Mrs. Burkhead's father was the inventor of the famous Utley cotton press, and obtained patents for several other important inventions. She seems to have inherited a good share of his genius.

A few days ago a gentleman of high standing in Atlanta met Dr. J. Bradfield on the street, and related the following, in which all ladies are deeply interested : "For the past eighteen months my wife has been an invalid, caused from womb trouble, cessation of menses, etc., and I have tried everything I could hear of in the way of medicine, and have had several of our best physicians attending her, to one of whom, (calling him by name) I paid one hundred and sixty-three dollars. Instead of improving or getting any relief, she gradually grew worse, and I had almost given up hope, and really did not believe she would ever get up from an invalid's bed; but a friend of mine who knew of the case suggested the use of and although he stated that he knew of a similar case being cured by it, and endorsed it highly case being cured by it, and endorsed it highly himself. I was so discouraged I did not believe it would do her any good; but as a last resort I bought a large bottle of it and she began taking it, and from the very first a marked change took place. She begun to improve rapidly, her appetite returned, her whole system was built up, and to-day she is as well and sound as ever in her life, and I am under life-long obligations to you and your remedy, for it undoubtedly saved her life;" and he added. "I wish every lady in the world so afflicted would try it, as I know it will cure them."

We Claim and can Prove Beyond a Doubt By the highest and most undoubted testimony: That this Remedy will cure all womb troubles.
That this Remedy will cure leucorrhoe or whites.
That this Remedy will restore the menstrual That this Remedy will stop excessive monthly flow That this Remedy will relieve painful menstruation.

That this Remedy will build up the system as a tonic. That this Remedy will cure all female disorders.
