It is funny reading to see the can-

The stagnation of business is general. Now for a change. Garfield defeated Hancock by only some 6,-000 votes. Cleveland beats Blaine by at least 100,000-possibly more. The New York Tribune tries to make it appear that he is elected by

Gen. Dorman B. Eaton is a bitter Republican, but he pays Mr. Cleveland a strong tribute. He says that he is the only President ever elected on account of his special fitness for the the position. This is not true, but it is near enough to be complimentary. Gen. Eaton is the Civil Service Com-

A shocking story is telegraphed from London. Miss Key, a wealthy and beautiful young woman, was murdered by her valet, who had been repulsed by her in some presumptive advances he had made. We hope that Mr. Cleveland will not think of putting Randall, a High Protectionist, in his Cabinet. Hear him talking thus:

"I think that in the first session of the Forty binth Congress the tariff bill will be introduced and pressed for consideration similar to the famous Morrison bill. In my judgment such a bill would fail of passage. The business men of the country would oppose it, and Congress would fail to pass

Randall evidently thinks the Dem ocrats were lying at Chicago when they adopted the Tariff Reform plank. If Randall had gone with Butler and Dana we should have rejoiced.

We have found a good item for North Carolina editors. At Macon, Missouri, lives Robert Gibson. He was born in Randolph county, this State. He is only 118 years old. Fact! No joke; certain; no record; but not necessary. The record is never necessary. An exchange says of him:

"He was not a soldier in the war of 1812 being too old to perform military duty at the time. He drank a good deal of whiskey in his early days, but finding that the habit was growing on him abanded it and has been a teetotaller ever since. He has chewed tobacco for sixty years and 'does not think it hurts him.' He does not know when he was born, as the family record that together, it is made out that he first saw the light in the year 1766.

It was about six inches long, somewhat resembling a toad fish in some particulars, espe cially about the eyes, but of variegated colors: the fins being fringed with a silvery white. The mouth of this handsome fish is on top of the head; but the most singular thing connected with it is the fact that when the thumb and finger are pressed under the jaw and on the top of the head, the mouth opens and the experimenter instantly feels an electric shock in the hand and arm, extending to the shoulder. I'A REMEDY FOR LUNG DISEASES —Dr. Robt. Newton, late President of the Eclectic College, of the City of New York, and formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, used DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM very extensively in his practice, as many of his patients, now living, and restored to health by the use of this invaluable medicine, can amply testing the live of the tify. He always said that so good a remedy ought not to be considered merely as a patent medicine, but that it ought to be prescribed freely by every physician as a severeian remedy in all cases of Lung diseases. It cures Consump-tion, and all pectoral complaints. Wm. H. Green, Agent, Wilmington, N. C.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
