EVENING EDITION.

NORTHERN GROWLERS AND SLAN-

Of course there are hundreds of thousands of people in the North who distrust the South and even hate the South. They are of that class who prefer Jim Blaine to an honest man. They stand ready to echo every denunciation of the people of the South that they may hear. It matters now how well the people have borne themselves under defeat, destruction of property, robberies, oppressions, slanders, infamies; it matters not how generous and selfsacrificing they have been in withholding all effort to control the Government, seeking only the good of all, and voting in five Presidential elections for Northern men, and not even asking for recognition in the Cabinet; it matters not how readily they have accepted the situation and have striven to rehabilitate their section and to advance the interests of the whole country; it matters not how resignedly they have borne the heavy taxes that have been placed upon them and how promptly they

We have been struck with the tone of the Northern Radical press latterly. They have turned loose afresh their denunciations and misrepresentations. The South is not to be trusted, because twenty-three years ago a war was begun between the sections. Although half of the voters in the South in 1884 never fought in the war or voted in the war, and are in some sense a new generation, they are denounced as rebels, as unworthy of the confidence of the Northern people, as unfit to hold office, as striking at the true interests of the country, as false and have met every obligation of citizenship, they are still maligned, sus-example and the smaller dogs all yelp to the same music.

There never was a more groundless slander. The people in the South have never betrayed any trust re-North know that there are no people more to be trusted than the men they fought so bravely for four years. In no particular have the men of the South-the "old Confederates"been recreant to any duty or untrue to the Federal Government since the war closed. They have in a thousand ways illustrated the greatness and stoicism and virtues of an heroic people, and have given every guarantee that they are loyal to the Union of States whilst loyal to themselves.

But this does not satisfy the dirty Radical bellows-blowers. The vote for Cleveland means treason. The vote for Reform means destruction to the Government. Never before unmitigated bosh. Men that preferred an honest, tried, faithful Northern Governor, who was respected and honored by every decent man in his own great State, to a vile scamp that the best men in his own party would not support, are to be accused of "treasons, stratagems and spoils," and are to be denounced as plotting evil against their Government. . When will this sickening, disgusting nonsense cease? Not, we fear, until the fools and rascals all

One of our citizens has handed us copy of a paper published at Lebanon, Pennsylvania. One Isaac Hoffer is the editor, and it is the organ of the "U. B. Mutual Aid Socity of Pennsylvania." It has an editorial on the vote of the South for Cleveland which it regards as very "impolitic." It is all right when eighteen Northern States support an arrant rogue like Blaine; but it is highly injudicious and "absolutely baneful" when the South gives sixteen States for Cleveland.

This Pennsylvanian editor is only specimen of a certain type. He is fair representative of that class of editors who prefer a Republican scoundrel to a Democratic honest man. We will copy some of his stupid "sectionalism" that our readers may better understand how their conduct in voting for the upright Cleveland is viewed in the North by Blaine supporters. The Aid Journal says:

"For the people of the Southern States to come as a solid body and ask that the overnment which they tried to destroy should be handed over to their indirect con trol, is a demand in such unreasonable shape that it seems impossible that sensible men should make it. The unreasonableness of the implied proposition that the de-fenders and preservers of the government should turn it over into the virtual control of those who tried to destroy it, for the sake of reconciliation and peace, or for any other reason, has no parallel in history, and can have no other effect than to invite and provoke the bitterest opposition against uch an unjust, and to the people of States, dangerous looking proposition. * * * So long as the South remains a sectional unit arrayed against the parties that saved the Union, so long will it provoke a united opposition, and so it should; for the encouragement of sectional solidity for partizan purposes is the worst form of demagogism, dangerous to the peace and happiness of the people, and should destroy the influence and power of any party that seeks to be penefited by it,

The assininity of that editor is of the dead-level sort; he need not climb to show it. It is simply an untruth when it is asserted that the South seeks to control or possess the Government. They do not expect to control it. They have voted for an honest, able, trustworthy, tried man, who was supported by tens of thousands of the most honorable, intelligent, influential and highly educated Republicans in the North. They rejoice very greatly that honesty has triumphed over corrupt methods and malignant rascality. That is the head and front of their offending.

PRESIDENT-ELECT CLEVELAND AND THE NEGROES.

Gov. Cleveland has spoken in re gard to the apprehensions of the negro, and he has spoken wisely and to the point. Conservative by nature and patriotic in purpose he cannot fail to prove a blessing to his country, however much he may disappoint a large class who desire office. He is a Civil Service practicer, and pected, slandered. Blaine sets the he will doubtless pursue a prudent cautious course as President. He will have to remove every officeholder in the South, or he will fail in doing his duty both to his party and country. The Republican officials in the South have been its curse and affliction. To pursue the right and to vindicate good government will require a sweeping out of every office -the most thorough purgation. However conservative the next President may be in dealing with officials in the North, he must apply heroic treatment in the South or there will be general disappointment and general disgust.

The people of the South have been sorely victimized and oppressed by the superserviceable officials of Radical Administrations, and anything short of a general cleaning out will not meet the ends of justice and give posed in them. The soldiers in the full satisfaction to those who have borne and suffered so long. We have no doubt that the elected President will give the country an eminently safe, conservative, wise and economical Administration. He is a man of solid parts, of equal temper, of high motives, of much decision of character. He will be President and not Senators and Representatives. We have an abiding confidence in his ability and integrity and good intentions. He will not disappoint the fair minded, considerate people. But our purpose was to express our gratification that the Presidentelect has spoken so opportunely and well as to the fears of the negroes that they were to be molested in their was there heard such senility, such | rights. Of course there has never | been any cause or reason for such fears, although bad, designing men have used them for their own vile purposes. Mr. Cleveland says to

"But there is not the slightest objection calling the attention of all who are in the least uneasy or uncertain upon this subject to the fact that the title of the colored people to freedom and all the rights of citizenship cannot be disturbed except by change in the constitution, which it would be absolutely impossible to make. So far as the new administration is related to this subject, the whole country can be sure that the lawful power and jurisdiction of the executive will be so exercised that the rights of citizens-white or black -under the constitution and laws will be reserved and protected and all advantages to which they are entitled by reason of their citizenship will be secured to them. There need be no fear that either the Democratic party or its newly elected administration proposes to oppress or enslave any part of our population, nor to destroy the business nterests of the country. We hope, on the other hand, to do something to benefit the

These are timely words, and we hope that they will serve to remove at once any apprehension of evil that may lurk in the minds of the colored people. Let us have good order, and let all men strive to attain to perfect citizenship.

SALARIES.

There is such a thing as being penny wise and pound foolish.' The STAR is the steadfast advocate of judicious and needed economy in the Government, State, National, County and Municipal. It does not believe in waste and extravagance. It is known that of the 111,000 Government officials thousands can be dispensed with. We suppose that 20,000 could be abolished, thus saving a large annual sum to the people. At any rate it is admitted that there can be a large curtailment in the number of officials.

As to State matters we favor a strict economy but not a niggardiness that is born of demagoguism and ignorance. We favor paying a sufficient salary for all State officers. We do not believe the people desire mere display or extravagance, but they are willing to pay those who serve them a good, living salary. The STAR has long insisted that the pay of the Superintendent of Public instruction was desgracefully small. For a State like North Carolina to pay the man who is to have charge of its public schools less than a Wilmington first-class bookkeeper receives, is a reflection upon the intelligence, discernment, and appreciation of our people. The Superintendent, to fill the bill, must be an exceptionally strong man, with manifeld gifts and thoroughness. A trifling salary will rarely secure the services of such an official.

Then there are the Supreme Court Judges. We agree with our esteemed contemporary, the Raleigh Register, in the opinion that there ought to be five Justices instead of three. It was a mistake to reduce the number, and it ought to be corrected as soon as possible. The work cannot be properly done by three Justices. The work to be done now is very much greater than it was before the war. The population then was 950, 000; now is more than 1,500,000 Our able contemporary says, and i explains the difficulty of a remedy:

"The Legislature cannot remedy this evil by increasing the number of Judges; the Constitution stands in the way. But if t cannot curtail the business that comes to the Court, it can at least take the necessary steps for amending the Constitution so as to enlarge the Court. Timid members, timid of taxing the people that is, risk nothing in permitting the people to vote upon the question in the next general election. That is the process of amending the Constitu-

"The salary of the Supreme Court Judges is altogether insufficient. The terms of the Court now occupy the whole year, and the small compensation and the short tenure of office do not permit the removal of a Judge' family to the Capital. At least one-third of his meagre salary is expended in his own support away from home, without at all decreasing his household expenditures. The inevitable tendency is to limit the choice of Judges to the rich, or to residents of Raleigh. Neither limitation is desirable. The evil the Legislature can remedy."

BLAINE AS AN INCENDIARY

Norfolk Landmark, Dem. Not satisfied with "firing the Northern heart," Mr. Blaine attempts to alarm the negroes by a most gratuitous and wretched piece of low mendacity, and here it is: "With the Southern Democracy triumphant in their States and in the nation the negro will be compelled to work for just such wages as the whites may decree; wages which will amount. as did the supplies of the slaves, to a bare subsistence, equal in cash, perhaps, to thirty-five cents per day, i averaged over the entire South. This is false, absolutely false. The negroes will not be disturbed, molested or oppressed by the South, and of this they have had assurances of the strongest kind from the leading men and newspapers of this section. Mr. Barbour, the head of the Demo cratic party, gave them this assurance last Tuesday night at Richmond, in the presence of a multitude of white people, and with three negro clubs the Democratic line. General Hampton has done the same thing in South Carolina, and Mr. Blaine has earned a new right to be called in-famous by his wicked attempt to foment trouble between the races. To the negroes we repeat what we have already said: They will not be disturbed in their churches, their voting, or their schools. They will have the protection of the laws and courts. They will be left - under their own vine and fig tree with none to make them afraid; and we trust and hope the grapes may be as big as cannon balls and the figs as large as pumpkins!

For the Star. A SUGGESTIVE QUESTION.

Can you tell your readers why it is that some manufacturers who clamor for "protection to American" labor" have reduced the wages of their employes whilst other mills where owners and managers are for a tariff for revenue are paying, now, the same rates which they have paid for the last ten years; such rates being at least twenty per cent. higher than those paid by the mills which love the "laborer" so much? The above is a hard question, I know, and I fear you cannot elucidate it Who is the better friend of "American labor"-he who wants a tax for public purposes only, and yet pays full wages, or he who wants a tax for private purposes and pays reduced wages? This question you can an-Respectfully,

CURRENT COMMENT.

-- Legitimate business will be nade healthy and prosperous. The Tariff will be revised in the interest of industry, and not in the interest of monopoly. There will be no attempt to depart from the true standard of protection to our diversified labor, but in so far as our Tariff needlessly taxes the necessaries of life, and creates and fosters monopoly in one branch of industry at the cost of others, it will be modified, and it will be done by the aid of the conservative men of both parties. The constant strain upon legitimate business that comes from the now supreme gambling business of the land, will be removed; new markets will be opened for over-production without cheapening our wages, and the honest frugality and industry which alone can make a people happy and prosperous, will be manfully fostered ministration of the government. The fever of war inflation and war gambling is fast dying out, and it needed only a resolutely honest, businesslike Executive and Congress to assure early and enduring prosperity to every interest and section of the Union. The nation fondly believes that it has enthroned business administration by the late election, and government administered on honest ousiness principles, must give the argest measure of health, vitality and profit to every legitimate business of the land. Business will heartily support a business administration. The signs are unmistakable that the whole business interests of the country, outside of the gambling centres and combinations, will give to President-elect Cleveland an honest and generous support in fulfillment of his pledges made to the people. - Phil. Times, Ind. Rep.

-- The organs which cry out for "Democratic administration," and bow the Independents out, seem to us to misapprehend the political situation. Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic party are not necessary to the Independents; but what is to become of the party or of Mr. Cleveland's administration if the Independents leave it and go back to the Republican party? In the recent election the immense defection of Democratic voters from the party was one of the most remarkable phenomena. Mr. Cleveland will be a Democratic President not because he was elected by the Democratic party, for he was not, but because he is a Democratas opposed to a Whig or a Republican -by political theory. That he should invite old Whigs or Republicans into his councils is, of course, out of the question. It would be to stultify himself and breed confusion. But are not the main body of the Independents Democrats in political theory? The Republican party was formed by a coalition of anti-slavery Democrats and anti-slavery Whigs. It was intended originally to be only a limited partnership, having for its object the limitation of the area of slavery .- N. Y. Herald, Ind.

A COLORED MAN WHO IS NOT AFRAID.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Sun: Sir:-I read in the papers of the excitement, which almost amounts to a panic, which exists among my race, because of the election of Cleveland and Hendricks. There is no one more responsible for this than the Republican press. It has from time to time declared that the success of the Democratic party meant the curtailment of both the political rights and liberty of the colored man. As a member of that race I voted and worked for Blaine, and when I found we were beaten I felt as any strong party man would feel at the defeat of his candidate; but I feel sure that all intelligent colored men will agree with me that no danger need be feared on account of the Democratic victory, and that it will be to that party's interest to conciliate, and not antagonize, the negro C.
