MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINE.

A dispatch from Egypt reports the Mahdi dead and his followers dying very fast. Texas gives Cleveland a plurality of 134,536; as compared with the vote of 1880, Texas shows an increase of 56,298 votes. The electoral college of Maryland met yesterday and declared its vote for Cleveland and Hendricks. Senator Mitchell has prepared a bill granting a pension of $5,000 a year to Gen. Grant, beginning with the date of his retirement from the Presidency. The Ways and Means committee meet to day, and probably decide as to the advisability of introducing a tariff bill in this session of Congress. The plan of a new factory, New York city, is valued at about $140,000; two firemen were injured. Presidential electors of New Jersey united in recommending Attorney General Stockton to President-elect Cleveland for a Cabinet position. At Raleigh the ballots used by the Presidential electors were made of silk grown in North Carolina. In Saco, Maine, a large hall in which the Salvation Army was holding a meeting was set on fire. A small war is threatened in Lecher county, Ky., between the friends of a man charged with murder and friends of his victim; citizens have organized to clean out both parties when the trouble begins. New York markets: Money 1/2 per cent; cotton firm at 10 1/2 to 10 3/4; sugar 10 1/2 to 10 3/4; corn, No. 2, 49 1/2 to 50; rosin steady at $1 30 to $1 37; spirits turpentine weak at $1 31 to $1 32.

Referring to the Attorney General.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World writes on the 29th: "Senator Garland, of Arkansas, is a favorite candidate of the Southern people for this position. He is one of the most profound lawyers in the Senate. He has been for years a member of the Judiciary Committee. He is not a partisan, and has been often consulted by the Republican lawyers of the Senate as any man in that body. Roscoe Conkling when he was in the Senate constantly advised with this most serious and conservative Arkansas Senator. Judge David Devens when on the Supreme Bench said that no briefs that came into that Court ranked higher than those which were presented by the firm of which Garland was the senior member. "He is tall, broad shouldered, deep-chested, manly looking, with the large head and serious, smooth shaven face of a great tragedian. He has a very rich, deep, resonant voice, and a dignified manner which makes him a most interesting speaker. His worst enemy has never charged him with the slightest breach of his public duties. He has as clean a public record as the most fastidious could desire. Although he has been for years in public life, he is a poor man, and lives in the plainest and most simple fashion in marked contrast to some of his millionaire colleagues."

It is the Western railroads and land companies that are alluring the negroes from South Carolina.

Several hundred have gone and others will follow. They have the promise of free transportation, cheap houses and big wages. A special from Charleston to the New York Herald says: "The small negro planters have no capital of their own, and without the help of the land merchants cannot carry on their operations. The result will be a surplus of labor in sections where the merchants adopt this policy, and the small negro farmers will either have to become day or contract laborers or seek employment elsewhere. This is the main reason for their removal West, where they hope to set up for themselves. The Methodist Messenger, organ of the Northern Methodist Church here, strongly advises the negroes to stay where they are, or, if they must leave, to go in colonies and settle on the government lands in New Mexico."

Crocker, near Selma, last week, the following rather startling particulars: Mr. Crocker sold a bale of cotton in Selma, and one James who has been living in or near Selma for several years, dissuaded him from spending his money, and asked to ride home with him. James got out of the buggy and walked "through," making a nearer route than by the road; and he shot Mr. Crocker from behind. Several shots entered his neck, but he is recovering rapidly, and James is in jail in Smithfield. He confesses to the shooting, and to the murder of two negroes, and claims kinship with Jesse James.

Snow Hill Telegram: We learn that a Mr. John Webber, who lived at Mr. Mark Taylor's, in this county, was murdered in Wayne county on last Saturday night. He had been to Goldsboro where he sold some cotton and was returning home in a cart when he was assaulted, robbed and dragged out of the road and left for dead. When he was found some time afterwards by Mr. Neesham Taylor and his brother, who coming along afterwards saw an overcoat and hat in the road and heard some groans in the woods, and looked and found Webber. He died on Sunday, and returned sufficiently to consciousness to state that those who assaulted him struck a light after dragging him into the woods, and that he then saw that they were either negroes or were blacked.

Special to the Index-Appeal.

RALPH, N. C., December 1.—Charles Crocker, colored, mail agent on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, has been arrested at Fayetteville for entering the postoffice there and stealing $160 from Postmaster R. M. Orrell. Crocker is in jail. Work progresses very rapidly on the new line of railway from Cheraw, S. C., to Hamlet, N. C. To-day laborers came in sight of the latter place. The iron is all ready and the track will be laid in a few weeks. This is an important link in the new direct line from Washington, D. C., to Columbia, S. C. The other link, from Petersburg, Va., to Ridgeway, N. C., will soon be completed. A large force is at work on Great Neck, in regard to this important Northern and Southern line.

Trouble Among Firemen.

Certain members of the Hanneker Hose Reel Company, a colored organization, were before Mayor Hall and Capt. G. D. Myers, Chief of the Fire Department, yesterday, charged with acting disorderly at the fire on Saturday morning last. The evidence was to the effect that certain of the firemen, who were identified, attempted to take possession of the private hose belonging to the Wilmington Cotton Mills and remove the pipe. They were prevented from doing so, whereupon they talked of using force, "cleaning out things," &c.; and one used language considered very incendiary. A member of the Cape Fear Company was implicated in the matter. Some of the cotton mill men testified that they were using their own private hose to protect their own private property, which was very valuable and considered in danger, and that the men used language calculated to create a riot. The case was finally referred to the Chief of the Fire Department for a report.

It is very necessary that proper discipline should be preserved in the Fire Department, and we are glad to see that the officers of the companies in question showed a disposition to have the matter thoroughly investigated, with this view.

A Wanderer Heard From.

Many of our citizens will remember Mr. Thos. Hansley, who lived at Smithville during and shortly after the war. He was a man of no little mechanical genius, being capable of doing almost any sort of work. Among the other pursuits which he followed was that of taking pictures. He left soon after the close of the war and very little was subsequently heard of him. He left his wife and one child at Smithville. Yesterday a gentleman arrived here in search of Mrs. Hansley, stating that her husband died in Wisconsin about two years ago, leaving quite a large fortune, which he had accumulated in the oil and coal business. There is a sister of Mr. Hansley residing in this city, besides other relatives. His widow still resides at Smithville.

Arrest of an Alleged Embasser.

A man who arrived in this city yesterday morning and registered at the Parcell House, as "A. N. Dodd, Toronto, Canada," was arrested last night on the authority of a telegram from the Chief of Police of Toronto, Canada. The telegram asked that if George E. Wingate stopped in the city he be arrested, for embezzling $9,480 from the North British Canadian Investment Company. A description of Wingate followed, which tallied exactly with Dodd's personal appearance, and hence his arrest. He was given quarters for the night in the Mayor's office at the City Hall, and telegrams were sent to Toronto, announcing the action taken.

Foreign Exports.

The following embraces the foreign shipments yesterday: The Norwegian barque Proteus, Capt. Hansen, for London, by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co., with 600 casks spirits turpentine and 2,898 barrels of rosin, valued at $10,186; the German barque Constantine von Blencke, Capt. Freyher, for Stettin, Germany, with 2,786 barrels of rosin, valued at $3,700; the Norwegian brig Hilding, Capt. Pedersen, for London, by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co., with 2,272 barrels of rosin, valued at $3,008; and the British Schr. Pioneer, Capt. Kelly, for Nassau, N. P., by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, with 97,600 shingles, valued at $624.40. Total $16,967.40.

Street Improvements.

Some very important street improvements have been made lately. We have already alluded to the one on Princess between Fourth and Fifth streets. By the introduction of pipe there has been a decided improvement in the drainage at the intersection of Mulberry and Front streets, the water now being carried under the street at that point, instead of flooding the top of it in a hard rain. At the corner of Fourth and Orange a similar improvement has been made, which will be appreciated by persons residing in that section of the city. The sidewalk on Second, between Mulberry and Walnut, east side, has also just been put in order.

Birth to Martha.

The funeral of the late John H. Pugh took place from St. James' church yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Smodes officiating. The remains were escorted to Oakdale Cemetery by the members of Order Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., of which deceased was a member, and the following were the pall bearers: P. G. J. M. McGowan, W. C. Farow, W. S. Hewlett, C. D. Morrill, V. G. John S. Barnes and B. F. Penny.

Military Conventions.

A military convention for the election of field officers of the Second Regiment, N. C. State Guard, will be held at the armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry, in this city, this morning at 10 o'clock.

SILVER AND MARINE.

Capt. B. W. Skinner went up the river yesterday on the steamer Excelsior, with two steam pumps and a gang of hands for the purpose of raising and floating the steamer Wase, sunk at Whitehall. From Capt. Jeff. Robinson, who came down for assistance, we learn that the Wase lies close in shore, with the freight deck out of water. A dispatch from Falmouth, Eng., Nov. 8, says: The fire which broke out in the hold of the brig Herman Friedrick, from Wilmington, N. C., for Bremen, at this port, is not yet extinguished. She is discharging her cargo into lighters.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today: For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, westerly winds, and nearly stationary temperature. "Painted Red." Mr. Wilkin Roddick, of this city, has in his possession a copy of the Whitehall (N. Y.) Times, a Democratic newspaper, which is literally "painted red," or at least printed entirely with red ink. It is overflowing with rejoicings over the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, and the portraits of the successful candidates, the jubilant rooster and the booming cannon, as well as the reading matter, are all blaring out on the white sheet in the most brilliant of crimson hues.

CITY ITEMS.

THE ONLY GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY.—Those eminent chemists, Professors Foreman and Battershall, endorse Benson's Ointment as follows: "It is the only great external remedy. It cures the most obstinate cases of Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, and all other painful affections of the skin. It is sold by all druggists and chemists. Price 25 cents a bottle."

THE $1,000 PRIZE TO AN UNKNOWN HERO.

It is collected by the Louisiana National Bank for an unknown depositor. The lucky $1,000 was presented at the main office of the Louisiana National Bank by Mr. A. L. Cabrier, Cashier. This is all the Lottery Company knows of, and Mr. Luria declined to name the fortunate holder. The prize of $1,000 was deposited to the credit of the lucky depositor.—New Orleans City Item, Oct. 18.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NORTH.

The following is an extract from a letter written to the Greenback, formed at Chambersburg, Penn.: "A Bazaar was held at the residence of Mrs. Winslow, which will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the North. Of this we are so sure, that we will send her a medal to mark her services. Mrs. Winslow, for helping her to survive and escape the griping cold, and to the credit of the Bazaar, she has done more than any other woman in the city. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of the 'Griping Cold' Syrup for Children's Use. If we had the power we would make her the subject of a play for the theatre. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle."

Gen. Gordon is reported to have captured Shendy.

Some one placed a floral rooster on Senator Gorman's desk.

According to Bradstreet's no less than 75,000 tons of pig-iron have been shipped from the South to the Northern States.

President Diaz was inaugurated President of Mexico on the 1st inst. He was elected on the 13th of August. He has been President before.

Speaker Carlisle is reported as introducing Secretary Metcalch's Tariff views. He is, however, opposed to another Republican Tariff Commission, and for good reason.

Mr. and Mrs. Estrekin separated twenty years ago. He lived in Philadelphia; she lived in Albany. They were reconciled the other day over the coffin of their dead boy. She has gone to his home with him.

The speculation in Washington among Congressmen is that the President is quite in earnest as a tax reformer. Representative Springer thinks he aims to cut off one hundred millions. Mr. Morrison says there is no need of a Tariff Commission.

Rev. Dr. Marcus L. Wood has resigned the Presidency of Trinity College. Who will be his successor? The Methodists ought to endow their only College, in North Carolina, and put it on a high plane of scholarship as well as of usefulness. Money is absolutely necessary if you would command the best talent and secure the most desirable patronage.

A colored paper at Richmond, Va., talks as if the negroes could be induced to support the Democrats if they were given offices of some value. Jess so. The Plant is its name and the sort of thing it boasts of is a lust for good, fat offices. It says: "If the Democrats really want the vote of the negro, why not give him something substantial? Why not show their appreciation of our race office by appointing one of our number to a position above a spittoon of water? Why not follow the example of Butler, of Massachusetts, and give us judges on the judicial bench?"

So the darkeys are for sale are they?

The Philadelphia Record, a paper of real ability, in commenting at length upon Secretary McCulloch's report, has this to say of one of his recommendations: "While tobacco is an agricultural product, the tobacco in common consumption is quite as much an article of manufacture as the whiskey that is produced from the grain and corn. But all advocates of revenue reform will agree with the distinguished Secretary in regard to the unwisdom of repealing the tax on distilled spirits, which could not be accomplished, as he truly says, without creating a necessity for higher duties upon imported goods. In this, too, the Republican Secretary is in the most perfect harmony with the platform on which the coming Democratic Administration was chosen."

Charlotte Observer: Mr. Pinkney Morrison, an influential citizen of Charlotte, died at his home in this county last Saturday night. The report of Chief of Police McNeill was that the distinguished citizen died of apoplexy, and that he had been suffering from the disease for some time. During November the illness amounted to $150.

Spirits Turpentine.

—One Raleigh dealer has sold 30,000 barrels of flour of a Virginia manufacturer in six years.

Stonewall Enterprise: The system now carried on in the Berns market are the best, all in all, the citizens have enjoyed for many years.

Concord Register: Those negroes who rocked the procession, on Monday night did well to sneak, like coward curs, so that they could not be caught.

Greenville Reflector: Just as we go to press we learn that Mr. William Whitehead lost his gig and forty-five bales of cotton, at the Gosham place Monday.

Winston Leader: Mr. Harmon U. Miller, well known to many of this community, and a former resident of this place, was found dead in his bed on Tuesday morning last, at the residence of his brother. He was 27 years of age.

Lumberton Robesonian: The editor gave the necessary bond, took the oath and entered upon the discharge of the duties of the Treasurer's office last Monday. His bond ($24,500) is said to be the largest ever given by a Treasurer of this county.

Wadesboro Intelligencer: On Friday last Mr. Orestis Moore, of the Long Pine neighborhood, had a difficulty with Pete May, colored, in which the latter was stabbed in the left thigh. On Thursday Mr. B. F. Clark and Esquire Williams, of Lilesville, were thrown from a buggy and seriously hurt.

Pittsboro Home: We learn that during an altercation that occurred at Carthage last Saturday night between Mr. Robert McNeil and a colored man, several pistol shots were exchanged, one of which fired by the colored man, inflicted a fatal wound on Mr. McNeil's face and the last shot fired by Mr. McNeil entered the colored man's heart killing him instantly.

Raleigh Evening Visitor, Tuesday: The members of the Electoral College met to-day and reported to the Governor and were all commissioned. Adjournment was then until 12 o'clock, at which time Mr. John N. Staples, one of the Electors at large, will be elected President. Messrs. Rowland and Gilliam will be Secretary and Assistant Secretary. In casting the vote several speeches will be made.

Elizabeth City Economist: The Albemarle section is more largely interested in fishing than any part of North Carolina or than any part of the United States. We are emphatically a race of fishermen, born, metaphorically, on the crest of the waves with a fish spear in our hands. The sun-dried, cured in the shade, commands good prices by weight in the Richmond market, where there is a factory for grinding it. It is abundant in our fields and forests.

Kinston Press: The iron bridge across river at the foot of the new road has been completed and will be turned over to the county Friday—to-morrow—when they meet. Many of the colored citizens of Kinston met at the Court House last Tuesday night for the purpose of organizing a fire company. Work on the old Clubfoot and Barlow's Creek Canal (now New Berns and Beaufort) is progressing finely under the supervision of Col. S. L. Freeman, of Wilmington, and Mr. T. P. Morgan, of Washington, D. C., the contractors.

Lenoir Topic: Mr. William L. Coffey, of Meigs Camp, Watauga, showed us yesterday a curiosity in the shape of a double calf hide, stuffed. The calf was born dead last April. The most remarkable feature of the animal creation we have ever seen. Standing naturally, it is as though two calves were rearing on their hind legs, facing each other and touching their heads. At its breast the four legs and with half a body, two hind legs and a tail, the fore legs of the secondary trunk emerging on the left flank of the main trunk. Both are hairy.

Raleigh Chronicle: Mr. Udeley, who lives between Raleigh and Johnston county, tells of the shooting of Mr. Harry Level seas. —No cases for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. —Receipts of cotton, yesterday footed up 567 bales. —The mercury in the STAR thermometer was down to 88 yesterday morning. —Rev. Dr. Robey preached at the Fifth Street church Tuesday night, and had a large congregation. —For the first time since its institution the Criminal Court, at its last term, sent no convict to the Penitentiary. —Mr. W. B. Turlington had on his table Monday some second crop Irish potatoes grown in his garden, and they are said to have been fine ones. —Mr. D. Turner, agent of the Gus Williams troupe, has been here and made all arrangements for their appearance on the 10th. Box sheet opens Monday the 5th. —Mrs. C. G. Kennedy, President of the Ladies Benevolent Society, requests all the lady visitors to meet this morning at Mr. J. H. Strauss' store, northeast corner of Chesnut and North Water streets. —Capt. Divine, Superintendent of the W. & W. Railroad, offers a reward of $500 for information to convict the miscreant who tampered with the railroad switches on Sixth and Ninth streets last Saturday. —Two colored boys were arrested and locked up, yesterday afternoon, charged with being engaged in a fight in the neighborhood of the Commercial Hotel. Others were connected with the scuffle, but made their escape. Personal. —The friends of Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., are glad to know that he has been returned to Front Street Church, this city. Dr. Yates is very popular in this community, and especially the charge which he has served so faithfully and well. —Rev. D. H. Tuttle, the newly appointed pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, has already entered upon the discharge of his duties. Last year he served the Church at Smithville. His reputation is that of a fine speaker, possessed of a somewhat striking originality of style, and a promise of much energy and usefulness in the prosecution of his work. Small Cotton Fires. —The alarm of fire at 1 p. m. yesterday was caused by the burning of two bales of cotton on the yard south of the Wilmington Compress. At 2:30 p. m. fire broke out among a quantity of cotton on the north side of the compress. The alarm was sounded and the fire department was quickly on hand. There were grave fears of a serious conflagration at first, but fortunately these apprehensions were soon allayed when the firemen got their streams upon the flames, while at the same time men were busily employed in isolating the burning bales. Damage slight. Superior Courts. —Judge Avery arrived Tuesday night, and yesterday the December term of the Superior Court for New Hanover convened. No business of special importance was transacted yesterday. Solicitor Galloway was also in the city yesterday.
