FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION.

Indian Affairs Discussed in the Senate-Railroad Land Grants and the Inter-State Commerce Bill Considered by the House. [By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

SENATE. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.-Mr. Vest's resolution of yesterday, calling for an investi-gation into the lease made by the Indian tribes of land in the Indian Territory, was taken up and the amendment offered by Mr. Conger was agreed to, including within the scope of investigation the lease of lands in the Indian reserve. Mr. Plumb, referring to Mr. Vest's criticisms, made yesterday, upon the course of the Interior Department, said the present Secretary of the Interior was only following the precedents set by his predecessors. Much of the land held by the Indians, Mr. Plumb continued, was land that they did. not aud would not need, and which was for agriculture. It was becoming a question for Congress to con-sider whether, owing to the rapid exhaustion of the public domain, some of these lands should not be obtained for settlement. He hoped the investigation now contemplated would result in suggesting a plan which would reconcile the needs of the settlers and Indians.

The resolution was then agreed to. Several Senators were, at their own request, relieved from present committee as signment.

A couple of bills of minor importance coming over from the last session were

Mr. Slater gave notice that on Monday next he would move to take up and press to a passage the bill declaring forfeited unearned lands granted to aid in the construction of the Oregon Central Railroad. The select committees of the Senate in existence on July 7th, 1884, were continued and the presiding officer of the Senate was given power to fill existing vacancies, or such as may occur this week. The Senate then, at 12.55, went into executive session and when, at 1.45 p. m., the doors were reopened, adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. amendments to house oil, forier unearned land grant to the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company was non-concur-

At 12.30, on motion of Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, the House went into Committee of the Whole (Mr. Cox, of New York, in the chair,) on the bill making temporary provision for the naval service. No amendments were offered to the bill, and no discussion was had upon it, Mr. Randall merely making a brief statement to show that the total appropriation for the support of the Navy for the current fiscal year was $15,636,167, a reduction of $258, 268 from the appropriation for the previous

The committee then rose, and the bill was passed, and the House resumed consideration of the Inter-State Commerce bill. Messrs. Seymour, of Conn., Long, of Mass., and Peters, of Ks., argued the importance of the subject before the House and supported with certain limitations the bill reported by the committee. Mr. Peters cited instances of the wrongs perpetrated by railroad companies upon the producing classes of the country by unreasonable charges for freight transportation and declared that remedial ,legislation on the subject was imperatively demanded. Such remedial legislation was contained in the provisions of the bill under consideration. He strongly favored the commission plan, contending that all legislation which was conservative in its nature should be conservative and not radical. At the conclusion of Mr. Peters' remarks the subject matter went over until to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Morrison it was or dered that when the House adjourn tomorrow, it be to meet Monday next. The House then, at 3.35 p. m., adjourned.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] BIDDEFORD, December 3.-While the Salvation Army were holding a meeting in a large hall in Saco, last night, the building was discovered to be on fire, and a serious disaster was only avoided by the prompt manner in which the audience which packed the hall was dismissed before the danger became apparent. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) Macon, Dec. 3.-Last night, at Camilla, unknown persons entered Stephen Goodwin's house and killed him with an axe while in bed. They also killed Malinda Gregory and her son in their beds. No money was taken, but Goodwin's horse and buggy and shotgun are missing. KENTUCKY.

A Small War Threatened in Letcher County.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., December 3.—The Courier-Journal's correspondent at Barbourville, Ky., learned from a couple of lawyers who had just returned from Whitesbury, Letcher county, the particulars of a state of war prevailing there. A man was to be tried for murder, but was bailed and his friends determined he should not be punished. The case was set for last Wednesday, and on that day the accused came marching into town carrying a double-barrelled shot gun and a belt full of revolvers, followed by a score of his friends armed to the teeth. These were almost immediately followed by another crowd of about the same size, all carrying shot guns and pistols. The latter company was composed of friends of the victim, who encamped on a bluff overlooking and commanding the town. In the meantime a [By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] manding the town. In the meantime a third band, composed of citizens who thought the law should be allowed to take its way and peace be preserved, "even if they had to kill every desperado in the county to secure that end," organized among themselves and went on duty to stay until after court had adjourned. The bands composed of friends of the murdered man and those of his murderer are watching each other closely. One to keep the other in town and the other to keep their foes out, while the citizen's band stands ready to attempt to clean out the entire party when trouble begins.

The Clerical Question in the German Reichstag.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.) BERLIN, Dec. 3.-In the Reichstag today Bismarck declared that the reintroduction of Dr. Winthrop's motion to repeal the law empowering the government to expel or intern priests for illegally exercising their functions, after its recent rejection by the Bundesrath, was disrespectful to the Bundesrath. Moreover, he said, the last two Prussian ministers of public worship had not applied the law, The atworship had not applied the law, The attitude taken by the party of the Centre impeded an understanding between Germany and Rome. Prussia would not consent to repeal the law; at least not for the Polish districts. The government would only accept the prelate for the Archbishopric of Posen, who did not sympathize with the efforts to sever West Prussia and Upper Silveia from the Prussian State. Negotia-Silesia from the Prussian State. Negotiations between Prussia and the Roman Curia, since 1878, had been practically without result, although Prussia had granted various concessions. These negotiations were still pending. In spite of M. Bismarck's opposition, Mr. Winthrop's motion to repeal the law in question was passed by a vote of 217 to 93.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

On motion of Mr. Cable, of Ind., Senate | Meetings in Various States-New Jersey Electors Recommend Stockton for a Cabinet Position-The Ballots Cast at Raleigh. [By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Announcements of the meeting of Presidential electors to-day in various States are being received. In a majority of them action was purely formal, but one or two varied the monotony somewhat. In New Jersey, after concluding the regular business the electors united in recommending Attorney General Stockton to President-elect Cleveland as a proper representative of New Jersey for a Cabinet position in case Gov. Cleveland should determine to select a member of his Cabinet from that State. At Raleigh, N. C., the ballots used were made of silk grown in North Carolina and were made into United States flags.

New Orleans, Lt. SON will begin, and we shall throw open our doors to old Santa Claus, to give him the warmest welcome he has had for many a year; but, like many other old-fashioned people, the Jolly Saint is set on his notions, and insists upon plenty of room for the display of his multifarious treasures-his stacks of Toys, his thousands of Dolls his Velocipedes, his Drums and Trumpets, and all the rest of his Christmastide paraphernalia. To get this room is the problem before us this week. We can only do it by clearing out the goods now on hand, and we know by experience that the surest way to do that is to mark them at prices which shall represent, not their cost or value, but our anxiety to get rid of them. We mean, therefore, to make the next six days and affairs.

Democratic in politics, the Observer will labor, first of all, to assure the prosperity of the Town of Fayetteville, to develop the vast agricultural resources of its own and the neighboring counties, and to promote all that concerns the welfare of the people of North Carolina.

Opposed to such innovations on the homely ways of our fathers as, in the guise of progress, harm society, the Observer will be found in full sympathy with the new things born of the changed condition of the South which sound judgment or enlightened experience find to be also good.

As to the rest: it will strive to deserve the reputation of the name it inherits.
