All of the States went through the form of voting for President on Tuesday. Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks were duly elected. Now let us change the Constitution and get rid of the absurd and cumbrous Electoral College and vote directly for President and Vice President.

President Arthur was urged by Grant's immediate friends to recommend pensioning him. He yielded, and he is much criticized for so doing in Washington circles. A special to the Philadelphia Times says:

President himself had come knocking at the doors of Congress, begging for an annuity, and his friends here are almost as deeply chagrined as though they had witnessed that humiliating spectacle."

Senator Bayard does not desire the office of Secretary of State, but he is being urged by papers, politicians and business men. We are content to leave the matter where it belongs -with the President-elect. Mr. Bayard would make an excellent official. A committee, appointed on behalf of the New Orleans World's Fair, has made a report as to the Mason cotton picker and its practical working. The test occurred on Nov. 22. The report is long. We give the most important part:

"It could have scarcely been subjected to trial under more untavorable circumstances—those above mentioned and others that might be enumerated—and yet at each passage over the row about fifty per cent. of the cotton there standing was bagged. Its almost intelligent selection of the open cotton, to the exclusion of almost every thing else, was the most remarkable as well as gratifying feature. Those who have seen it work in a field with luxuriant weed, and on the first opening of the cotton, testify to this wonderful result. The seeding lint alone was gathered, while the blooms. eaves and immature bolls were left unin-

"An intelligent planter from Mississippi who witnessed its performance at this stage of the cotton plant offered the highest prospective price for the machine for his own use in the present cotton crop. After close examination of the results, he gave it as his opinion that, with the machine then working and three good hands to follow and glean after it, he could do the work of forty hands a day.

"We take pleasure and pride in reporting that, in our opinion, this great South Caro lina invention will prove a success. Mr. Mason himself, however, is not yet wholly satisfied. He believes that with better tools, which he will soon have all facilities for perfecting, he can render his machine still more effective. He is now aiming at gathering all the open cotton at a single passing over a row, and thinks he can do

If so he may get the Senatorship. The alleged fraud will be vigorously prosecuted. A special from Springfield, Ill., of 2nd of December, says:

> "Mr. Leman makes public to-night his reply to the open letter sent last night by Rudolph Brand, his Democratic opponent, proposing a recount of the votes throughout the entire district, and a final determina-tion of the contest by the testimony of the voters. Mr. Leman declines the proposition, claiming that the proceedings pro-posed is illegal and would be void if carried out, and concludes by saying that in-asmuch as the Governor has declared him legally elected, and will issue a certificate to him, he (Leman) will submit to no tribunal except the State Senate.'

The New York Evening Post, Rep., says the Democrats will be forced to meet the Tariff issue whether they so elect or not. Referring to the Morrison bill of the last session, it says:

"No successful attack could be made upon them, because they had the best Republican authority in support of the bill. The Republicans opposed it, not because it was a measure of tariff reduction, but because it proposed 'horizontal' reduction. It was not upon grounds of principle but rather upon grounds of form that they took issue with it. The bill failed in the House because a small fraction of the Democratic member combined with the Repubicans against it."

The Washington special to the Philadelphia Times of December 1st

"The tariff reformers are in high glee over those portions of the report of Secretary McCulloch which recommend a reduction of duties in the interest of foreign trade and home industries, and over the practical endorsement of his position by the President. They say that the report places the financial head of the government and the Chief Executive himself at striking variance with the spirit and policy of their party, and shows them to be in perfect sympathy with the Democratic Congressmen who were defeated by a combination of Republicans by a few disagreeing Democrats in the contest over the Morrison

He was eleven years of age.

- Tarboro Southerner: Last Friday_evening, while Mr. Tolston, manager of the farm of Mr. F. M. Cook, was packing cotton, the cotton in the press accidentally caught fire by the knocking over of a lamp. The fire soon communicated itself to the gin house and efforts to save it were utterly futile. Two negro men who in the box of the press at the time, packing down the cotton, were very seriously burned, and t was with much difficulty that they aged to extricate themselves from the burning cotton. The affray occurred last Monday afternoon, but up to yesterday Mullis had not been captured. The scene of the fight was at or near the store of Joel Watts, in Morning Star township, where the two young men met and began to make friendly over a bottle. Both, we are told, were under the influence of whiskey. About the time they had drained their bottle a quarrel sprang up between them, and with his blood aroused young Dulin jerked up the bottle and dealt Mullis a stinging blow over the head with it. Railroad Meeting Next Monday.

A meeting will be held at the rooms of the Produce Exchange on Monday next, at 12 o'clock, to hear the report of the committee, of which Mr. B. G. Worth is chairman, in relation to the recent survey for a railroad to a point in Onslow county and for the continuation of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad from Fayetteville to this city. Let every citizen of prominence be present and show his interest in these important enterprises. It is very desirable that legislative action in regard to the proposed roads should be secured as soon as possible.

Help for the Needy. We mention as an incentive to others to do likewise, that a young gentleman of this city went to work a few days since and collected $70 for the benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, which, with other donations, has enabled the Society to supply wood to a number of needy families. A liberal donation of potatoes has also been received from a benevolent gentleman of this city. There is a good deal of sickness and destitution in the community just now, and such contributions as these noted are a great help.

We had the pleasure of a call yesterday from Major W. F. Campbell, of Fayetteville, commander of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry. His command is one of the legion, to be formed of one company from each of the original thirteen States, that will attend the inauguration of President Cleveland.

Mr. Thos. W. Strange has just returned from a trip to the North, during which he visited President-elect Cleveland and was much pleased with him.

Escaped Convict. We notice in the New Berne Journal an account of the escape of Peter Pickett, a colored convict from the penitentiary, who was employed with others in that section of the State on what is known as the Quaker Bridge Road. Peter was tried in the Criminal Court of this county, in 1882, on the charge of stealing cattle, and was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. He will probably make his way in this direction.

Pursuant to General Orders No. 12, military Convention of the Second Regiment, to elect field officers, was held at 10.30 A. M. yesterday in the armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry. Capt. R. H. Beery called the Convention to order and requested Maj. W. L. Campbell, of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, to take the chair, he being the senior officer

Mai. Campbell stated the object of the meeting and declared the Convention open for the dispatch of business.

Second Lieut, J. C. Morrison was elected Secretary, on motion of Capt. Beery. The Secretary read the votes of the companies, which were as follows: Company A, Fayetteville Independent represented by Capt. W. S. Cook, 3 votes Company C. Wilmington Light Infantry, represented by Capt. R. H. Beery, First Lieutenant W. C. Jones and Second Lieutenant J. C. Morrison, 3 votes.

Light Infantry, represented by Maj. Campbell, 5 votes. Company B, LaFayette Light Infantry,

Company E, Shoe Heel Rifles, represented by Maj. Campbell, proxy, 8 votes. Company F, Sampson Light Infantry, represented by Capt. R. H. Beery, proxy, Company H, Smithville Guards, repre sented by Capt. R. H. Beery, proxy, 3 Owing to the fact that Company E was not represented in the Convention, an ad-ournment was had until 3 p. m., so as to give the absent company time to send their proxy or representative. At 3 p. m. the Convention re-assembled, and, after reading the minutes of the morning session, a telegram was read from the Captain of the Shoe Heel Rifles, re questing Maj. Campbell to cast the vote of that company. Nominations being in order, the name of First Lieut. W. C. Jones, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, was put before the house by Maj. Campbell and seconded by Capt. Cook, for the position of Colonel There being no further nominations for this position, the Convention proceeded to call the roll by companies, which resulted in the unanimous election of Lieut. Jones for the ensuing term, which is two years.

Upon the vote being declared, Lieut. Jones, amid calls from his comrades, arose and acknowledged in fitting terms the honor conferred upon him.

Nominations for Lieut. Colonel being next in order, the names of Maj. Mc-Rae and Capt. Faison, of the Sampson Light Infantry, were placed before the convention. The roll being called, the result was the election of Maj. McRae.

The names of Lieut. J. T. Murphy, of the Sampson Light Infantry, and Capt. Cook, of the LaFayette Light Infantry were placed before the convention for the position of Major. The roll was called, and Capt. Cook was declared elected, who suitably acknowledged the honor con-

There being no further elections, the following resolution was offered by Maj. Campbell and unanimously carried:

Resolved, That the office of Adjutant General has been most acceptably filled by Gen. Johnstone Jones, and that the State Guard has materially prospered under his administration.

Lieut. Morrison expressed an earnest desire to see the Second Regiment encamped at Smithville during the approaching summer, whereupon, on motion of Lieut. Jones the field and staff officers of the regiment were appointed a committee to endeavor to secure an appropriation from the State Government to this end, and also to make all necessary arrangements for said encamp-

The following, offered by Capt. Cook, Resolved. That the thanks of the conven tion are due and are hereby tendered to the Wilmington Light Infantry for the use of their armory and to the officers for their kind attention while in the city. On motion, the convention adjourned. We would state, as a fitting finale, that the meeting was entire ly harmonious, and unusual satisfacthat the selection was arrested here Wednesday night on suspicion of being George E. The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of two colored boys-Jos. Harriss and F. G. Almanac-charged with fighting in the vicinity of the Commercial Hotel on Tuesday afternoon. The boys were told to go and sin will be much gratified to learn that on yesterday he was unanimously elected to the position of Colonel of the Second Regiment of the State Guard. This is a deserved compliment and we are confident that Mr. Jones will fill the position with credit to himself and satisfaction to his regiment.
