When a woman expresses her opinion upon the merits of anything she has used. it is, in almost every case, given in words direct from the heart, and free from the dictations of pecuniary interest or policy, which too frequently influence the actions of the sterner sex.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

It is said by those who are now engaged in cutting out work for our next Legislature that they will legislate in reference to our fishing interests. There is no doubt a pressure will be brought to bear upon them by differing interests, and suppose antagonistic interests of fishermen. Now we will suggest to our Leislators briefly, in two words-"go slow." Men will approach you, professing to know and believing they know all about fishing. "Go slow." They will give you good and plausible reasons for the faith that is in them. They will substantiate their opinions by their own, long experience, "Go slow." Others will approach you of a contrary opinion. -Elizabeth City Economist.

Some people are full of forebodings. They dare not raise to their lips a cup of joy lest somewhere in it should lurk one drop of sadness or sorrow. They expect adversity rather than prosperity. When Cleveland was elected the croakers said "he will be cheated out of it." When that failed they said "he will never be inaugurated," and when told that there was no earthly danger of that-that Gen. Grant, the man who stood ready to use the army and navy, if need be, to inaugurate Hayes, did not even vote at the late election, they say that "a plan is on foot to weaken Cleveland's administration by the Republican Senate failing to confirm his appointments." Well, what if there is? Who expected anything else?—Lumberton Robesonian.

PERSONAL.

- A Hungarian woman has just married her eighth husband. - Sarah Bernhardt's ill health is now attributed to unrequited love.

-Archbishop Gibbons's book, "The Faith of Our Fathers," is being translated into Swedish.

- Gen. Phil. Sheridan says he is a soldier and not a politician. We are glad to hear this; for it was to be feared that he would apply for a position in the smallpox bureau of the Indian Department.—Atlanta Constitution.

- President-elect Cleveland's letter returning the jovial Newfoundland dog to the admiring Brooklyn donor is delicate, though manly and self respecting. Notice is pleasantly served upon the country that the President-elect will not accept gifts.—
New York World.

-Pope Leo was visited by "Mont," of the Baltimore Sun. the other day, and the correspondent was at once put to his Ps and Qs answering a volley of questions about President elect Cleveland. The correspondent was amazed at the Pope's knowlege of local matters in New York State.

- A wise man has discovered that the figures "22" occupy considerable space in President Cleveland's history. To begin, there are 22 letters in his name. He was born on the 22d day of the month, is the 22d President of the United States, exe-cuted a man on the 22d of the mohth, and there are just 22 letters in Rev. Mr. Burchard's celebrated alliteration.

POLITICAL POINTS.

- There is no better timber for Cabinet making than Democratic oak .-Brooklyn Eagle, Dem.

- The people who expected a dying party war-whoop in the President's message will read it this morning with the keenest disappointment.—Phil. Times, Ind.

- "What we of the South have contended for is a pure and constitutional government, equally administered. We have no more selfish desire than to be equal participants with every State and section in such a government."—Senator Colquitt.

- Mr. Randall is making triumphal progress; the Montgomery Advertiser says: he would have an ovation "in any city of the South." It might be advisable for every "ovating" city to instruct its Congress to support Mr. Randall more efficiently in Congress.-Phil. News, Rep.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The eagerness of the Republican Senators to come to the support of Mr. Vest in his resolution calling for an investigation of the recent leases of land by the Indian Territory shows that they have experienced a change of heart since the election.—N. Y. World.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.

- Miss Mary Anderson has recovered from her late illness and played last night at the Lyceum Theatre, in London. - Rice is forming a comic opera company to play the old-fashioned reper-toire. They will fill special engagements on certainties. - The new Chicago opera house, to be opened in the fall of next year, will seat 2,200 persons; have a stage fifty feet deep and an opening at the curtain of thirty eight feet in width.

- Mme. Albani will sail for New York January 1, and after singing at the Philharmonic concerts in that city and WHITE CYPRESS & YELLOW PINE Brooklyn, will begin her regular season at Montreal early in February.

N. Y. World. PITTSBURG, Dec. 2.—Chairman Jones, of the Republican National Committee, is getting even on the $100,000 he donated to the cause of Blaine, by reducing the pay of the workingmen in the American Iron Works. Notice of a 10 per cent. reduction was given to-day to take place next Monday. It affects all employes who are not in the Amalgamated Association, except the common laborers, making in all between 800 and 1,000 men. The men were very much surprised at the notice as they had not been led to expect anything of the kind.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS: The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press.

The Wilmington STAB has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

—Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington Stan has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands 'up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAE has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette.

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best pa pers in the South, in every department from ty po graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appea.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a mode of newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington Star has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

Tarboro Southerner.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably-edited newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Robesonian.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth range of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter.

The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance. Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcroanton Rhade. Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newgraper it has few equals, and no superior, for apprepriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepta we are proud to rank it among our most accepta ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder. ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprie-
