WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 10, 1884. MORNING EDITION. THE LATEST NEWS.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION.

Naval Appropriations—The Liquor Traffic—Lottery Legislation—The Bill for the Repeal of the Act Relating to the Sale of the Cherokee Reservation in Arkansas, was read a third time and passed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Mr. Hale called upon the Naval Appropriation bill, which is the subject of the conference committee, and as to which that committee had reported that it had been unable to agree. He moved amendments and order a new conference. It was so ordered.

A large number of petitions were presented, urging a constitutional prohibition of the liquor traffic. On motion, it was decided by a party vote—yeas 35, nays 25—to take up the bill for the admission of Dakota; the Republicans voting in the affirmative and the Democrats in the negative.

The Dakota bill having thus secured the right of way for 2 o'clock, the Senate proceeded in the interim to the consideration of bills on the five-minute calendar, and some bills for private relief were read a third time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Morgan, of Texas, the Pacific Railroad land grant for the future was made the special order for Tuesday of next week. On motion of Mr. Logan, the joint resolution to amend article one, section seven, clause two, of the Constitution, relating to the veto power, was made the special order for Wednesday of next week.

Joint resolution authorizing the President to veto special clauses of appropriation bills, while approving the remainder. Among the bills introduced and referred was one by Mr. Sherman, to provide for the erection of a statue to the memory of Gen. Lafayette.

A bill to provide for the sale of the Cherokee reservation in Arkansas, was read a third time and passed. A bill to amend sections of the Revised Statutes, which prohibit the delivery of registered letters and the payment of money orders to lottery companies, was read a third time and passed.

The amendment consists of striking out the words "fraudulent," so as to cover lotteries generally, and not merely "fraudulent lotteries." In a short debate on this bill, Mr. Morgan expressed the belief that its passage would prohibit the payment of money orders and the delivery of registered letters relating to private transactions of persons engaged in the lottery business; also, those relating to church raffles.

Mr. Jackson, who reported the bill from the Committee on Postoffice, did not think the bill open to these objections. The bill, he said, was merely intended to harmonize certain sections of the Revised Statutes, some of which contained the word "fraudulent," while others did not. This bill would make the sections uniform in expression.

The Senate then took up, without debate, the bill reported last week by the House from the Committee on Claims, providing for the ascertainment of claims of American citizens for spoils committed by the French prior to the 31st of July, 1801. It is the last bill that passed the Senate two years ago.

The Dakota bill was then taken up. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. Chalmers, of Mississippi, introduced a bill to restore a republican form of government to the State of Mississippi. Referred.

Some derisive laughter from the Democratic side greeted the reading of the title of this bill. (It provides that Congressional and State elections shall be held on the same day in that State as in the other States.) Congress shall be permitted to appoint in writing one inspector and one clerk at each voting precinct, who shall be permitted to witness all proceedings. It is made a crime, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any person to assault, intimidate, threaten or insult any inspector or clerk.)

The consideration of the Inter-State Commerce bill having resumed, Mr. Barksdale, of Mississippi, addressed the House in a constitutional argument in support of the right of Congress to legislate on the subject. There was an absence of reasons, Mr. Barksdale said, why Congress should not exercise that right. States could not legislate beyond their own boundaries, and Congress alone could adopt a uniform system which would regulate the railroads of the country. He supported in general terms the bill of the committee on Commerce, but he expressed his preference for some of the features of the Reagan substitute.

Debate was further continued by Messrs. Davis of Ills., Horr of Michigan, Reagan of Texas, Boyle of Pa., and Weaver of Nebraska. Pending discussion the House adjourned.

Mrs. E. H. Bowling, Wake Forest College, N. C., says: "I have unbounded confidence in Brown's Iron Bitters. Its virtues are truly wonderful."

WASHINGTON. The Holiday Recession—Investigation Committees—Proposed Relief for the Whiskey Dealers—Nominations and Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—A resolution has been presented by a member of the House of Representatives providing for the adjournment of Congress from the 20th inst. to the 2nd prox. It has not been acted upon, however, by the Ways and Means committee, from which the resolution for adjournment must come.

Representative Sprinzer to day announced Messrs. Hemphill, Ryan and Milliken as the sub-committee to investigate court officials' accounts in the First Comptroller's office. This committee will hold its first meeting Thursday, and will at that time examine J. J. Barker, who made the charges on which the investigation is ordered.

The sub-committee appointed to investigate the conduct of Marshal Wright, in the Ohio October election, will meet until Friday. Ex-Pension Commissioner Dudley will be subpoenaed to appear before the committee before it leaves for Ohio.

A sub-committee has agreed to favorably report to the House on the Indian Affairs bill providing for an allotment of lands in severalty to Indians on various reservations, and extending the protection of the laws of the States and territories over Indians.

A number of Congressmen are moving to secure legislation at the present session of Congress for the relief of whiskey dealers. It is proposed to have the request for Congressional action come from the Executive department. Since the adjournment of Congress in July, a large quantity of whiskey has been exported, and it is asserted that by this exportation the government has lost several million dollars. The proposition is to have the Secretary of the Treasury make out to Congress the loss that the government is sustaining by the exportation of whiskey, and to request that legislative action be taken as a remedy. Whiskey dealers desire a practical extension of the bonded period for nine months instead of being compelled to export their liquor at the end of the existing three years, the bonded period, as is now required. If they export at all, they propose to export whiskey at the end of nine months thereafter, and to give bond that the exportation shall take place at that time. In the meantime they hope that the quantity of our production will be reduced and that better prices can be obtained. If the whiskey remains in this country, the government, they say, will secure a tax which would be lost by exportation.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of James Harlan, of Iowa, to be presiding Judge of the Court of Commissioners of Alabama claims, and Walter G. Gresham, of Indiana, to be United States Circuit Judge for the Seventh Judicial Circuit.

The President nominated to be postmasters, Milton Orwell, Newport News, Va.; Edward A. Richardson, New Bern, N. C.; A. H. Dunbar, Marion, N. C.; H. S. C.; David C. Gist, Union, S. C.; W. C. Moulton, Georgetown, S. C.; John C. Newton, Valdosta, Ga.; Geo. P. Burnett, Rome, Ga.; Jas. H. Peodge, Greenville, Ala.

The report of the bank examiner upon the Middletown National Bank of Middle-town, N. Y., says that the books show liabilities of $638,373 and nominal assets $799,546; but that a sifting of the assets will make the statement in round numbers about as follows: Liabilities, $638,000; assets, $440,000; deficiency $198,000.

In the executive session of the Senate to-day the nomination of Hon. Hugh McCulloch to be Secretary of the Treasury was taken up. Mr. Riceberger moved that the consideration be postponed until after the holidays; which motion was lost, as was also another by the same Senator to postpone until next Monday. Senator Riceberger proposed to state his objections to the nomination, but he would as a preliminary ask for the reading of one of Secretary McCulloch's annual reports during his former administration of the Treasury Department. He yielded, however, for a motion to adjourn, which was carried unanimously.

Mrs. Adella Strickland, 619 Harnett St., Wilmington, says: "My husband, Dr. Brown's Iron Bitters for malaria and general debility, and found it far superior to quinine, as it cured when the latter failed. We heartily recommend it."

VIRGINIA. A White Man Murdered and a Negro Nearly Slain to Death by a Desperado in Pittsylvania County.

LYNCHBURG, Dec. 9.—Charlie B. Palmer, a gambler and bad character, of Chatham, Pittsylvania county, who was arrested at Lynchburg, accused William Ackers, with whom he had had an altercation before, and commenced shooting at him. Several shots took effect and Ackers soon died. Palmer then took an innocent man, a young son of a yellow bug, and fired a posse of citizens have been looking for him all day but without success. They are greatly increased, and will probably lynch the murderer if caught. Although only a few years of age, Palmer has become notorious throughout this section as a swindler and desperado.

Mr. R. M. Terry, Raleigh, N. C., says: "I suffered with chills and dysentery. Doctors advised me to take Brown's Iron Bitters and regained health and strength. I heartily endorse it as the best medicine for such cases."

PENNSYLVANIA. Fire in a Mining Town—Six Persons Burned to Death.

MORNINGDALE, December 9.—Early this morning three blocks of houses at Trenton, a small mining town near here, were totally destroyed by fire. Six persons—Thomas Barlow, his wife and three children and a boarder named Fitzgerald—were burned to death. Only one of the Barlow family, a child five years of age, was saved.

Mrs. A. W. Watson, Wilmington, says: "I have taken Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion and experienced great relief, can recommend it to all sufferers, believe if they will take it they will be cured."

Spirits Turpentine. Raleigh had five interments last week. Mrs. E. E. Cressy, Concord, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters greatly improved me."

The Warrenton railroad is complete and the cars run from Warrenton to the Raleigh & Gaston road. Mr. M. D. Gurley, Stout, N. C., says: "I found ready relief from dyspepsia by using Brown's Iron Bitters."

Wilson Mirror: For the life of us, we can't understand why trees should have trunks. They never travel anywhere. They leave, anyhow, whether they travel or not; least their trunks for board, too, very often.—Asheville Elevator.

Mrs. Dr. A. F. Newkirk, Wilmington, says: "Having suffered with severe headache, my nerves became much affected and general debility followed. I took Brown's Iron Bitters and it improved me very much."

Goldsboro Messenger: It pains us to announce the death of our esteemed friend, Mr. Jesse T. Aycock, a brother of our townsman, C. B. Aycock, Esq., which sad event took place at his residence near Fremont on Friday last.

Mr. Kent Buier, Monroe, N. C., says: "I have used and am still using Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion and feeble health, and am almost sound and well. I highly recommend it."

Smithfield Herald: On Wednesday morning, at the gin of Mr. J. W. Ayers, Hancock county, while running the cotton gin, had his right leg badly cut. The knee cap was cut in three places and there were three gashes from his knee down.

Mrs. A. J. Gordon, Hillsboro, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters all merit claimed for it, especially recommend it for neuralgia; two doses cured me of a severe case when other remedies failed."

Baltimore Sun: The Dismal Swamp Canal Company will shortly commence the construction of their waterway, with a view to making it a first-class ship canal. Over $200,000 will be expended and a force of over 200 hands employed. Six years is the limit fixed for its completion.

Mrs. W. K. French, 619 Market St., Wilmington, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family with most gratifying results in cases of malaria and weakness, and cordially recommend it as a most excellent tonic."

Asheville Citizen: An affray took place on Wednesday night in the locality known as 'Hell's Half Acre,' resulting in the shooting of George Johnson, a negro gambler, of a negro, George Bryant, who was shot in the thigh, and another negro, Henry Ledbetter, who was shot in the hand. Johnson was arrested, and in default of bail committed to jail. This locality is inhabited by negroes exclusively. Mr. Alvin Bowen, Harrison Creek, N. C., says: "I have taken Brown's Iron Bitters for some time and regard it as a good medicine for all the diseases it claims to relieve."

Hickory Press: A telegraph line is being established along the Ducktown branch of the W. N. C. Railroad, between Asheville and Charleston. Many bears and other wild animals have been killed in the mountains this fall. Coal is getting to be extensively used in Hickory.

Mr. H. S. Jackson, Hertford, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has proven itself to be a valuable remedy for chills and fever."

Warrenton Gazette: The proposition to establish another Orphan Asylum in this State, is, we fear, premature. The one now on foot is non-sectarian, is supported by all classes of our citizens and is doing a good work. But while it gets aid from the State, the Masons and the public, it is often cramped for funds.

Mrs. Annie E. Jones, Forestville, N. C., says: "I consider Brown's Iron Bitters the best tonic I ever used."

Washington Gazette: The schooner Cobb arrived here last Saturday from Aurora with a cargo of 1,500 bushels of rice, which sold at $1.01 per bushel. The first white shad of the season was in market last Saturday and sold for $1. Sixteen residences have been erected within the past six months.

Mr. T. A. Miser, Mt. Pleasant, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family for malaria and found it most satisfactory; can recommend it."

Elizabeth City Economist: The people of Shiloh who attended the jubilee in Elizabeth City give glowing accounts of the joyous occasion. Capt. E. T. Cowell, a well known and highly respected citizen of Shiloh, died on the 23rd ult. —Thos. F. Gregory, of Shiloh, died on the 20th ult., leaving a wife and seven small children. His estate is nearly all ginned and there is scarcely any work left.—[Make maunre.—Ed.]

Mr. Jas. O. Fitzgerald, Pelham, N. C., says: "I suffered from weakness and indigestion followed by an attack of typhoid fever. Brown's Iron Bitters restored my health and vigor."

Statesville Landmark: Dr. York arrived here last Saturday evening about sunset, on his way to Washington. He complained of being sick, his complexion was of a yellow hue, and he appeared greatly debilitated. He came here from Trap Hill in a covered wagon, with the curtains drawn down on the sides and ends. He made the most of the trip stretched out in the bottom of the wagon. He left on the midnight train going west. His wife accompanied him to Washington.

Mrs. Wm. Brewer, Smithville, N. C., says: "I had chills and fever. Brown's Iron Bitters was just the medicine I needed. I highly recommend it."

Beaufort Telephone: Mr. D. E. Simpson brought an oyster to our office, taken from his oyster farm in North River last week, which was hard to beat. The shell was a mammoth in size and the oyster when opened was found solid and fat, the same as that of a yellow bug, and 2 1/2 inches in width. —Mr. M. Chaplin killed a hog on Tuesday last, sixteen months old, which weighed, when dressed 504 pounds. [We think one weighing some 4,000 pounds was reported in the papers during the year.—STAFF.]

Greenville Reflector: Mr. Fred. Wolfenden, near Snowhollow, Beaufort county, lost his gin house, a large quantity of cotton seed and a thousand bushels of peanuts on Saturday night. The fire was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Sam Smith of Swift Creek township, lost his gin house and seven bales of cotton by fire on Monday last week. —The dwelling of Mr. Arnold Mills, at Haddock's Cross Roads, was burned on Tuesday of last week. The family were home at the time, and everything was a total loss.

Rockingham Rocket: We are grieved to learn that Walter P. Myers, Esq., well known in our county, was accidentally shot through the left foot while gunning for ducks on Little River on Tuesday last. —By the way, it was a general remark among the members of the Conference that Wilmington seemed to get her best foot foremost in taking care of her guests. Her praises were in the mouth of everybody. Bishop Parker impressed both ministers and laymen as a preacher of great power and in administrative capacity over affairs of Church, as a man equal to any emergency. See the Star's various issues of last week to get a just estimate of the Conference occasion in Wilmington.

Raleigh Chronicle: Instead of the Northern people going to Florida and other portions of the South, they should come to North Carolina to spend the winter. Our climate is all that could be asked for, being mild and pleasant. Mr. Wm. J. Brown, a resident of Raleigh, was accidentally killed on Saturday morning in the 75th year of his age, with a heart attack. He was a well known citizen of Buncombe county, died at his home near Asheville Saturday morning in the 75th year of his age, with a heart attack. He was a well known citizen of Buncombe county, died at his home near Asheville Saturday morning in the 75th year of his age, with a heart attack.
