It is said to be a fact that in the great monument erected to George Washington his name does not occur once. The men who were chiefly instrumental in raising it, including engineer, &c., are named. Then in whose honor is this big pile of stone tered upon its second year. An intelligently edited paper, conducted with dignity, candor and ability, it deserves success.

We have no navy worth the name, and yet under such an incompetent Sicial as the present Secretary of the Navy it cost the people $17,292,-601. How this sum could have been squandered on such a navy is a puzzle that the marines may wrestle with in a vain effort at solution.

The New York World of Tuesday gives this glimpse of social degradation and unsavory scandal:

"The excitement incident to the elope: ment of Farmer Terry and Mrs. Clary Downs, wife of the pastor of the Congregational Church at Northville, L I., had hardly subsided when the town was overwhelmed by the news that Mrs. May Arch, the handsomest married woman in the town, had eloped with a colored man of Quogue. She was the wife of Ephraim Arch, a wealthy farmer of Quogue."

Chase of a Chicken Thief-He Drops His Bag of Poultry-Two Shots

As policeman S. H. Terry was passing in the neighborhood of Seventh and Walnut streets, yesterday morning, about 1 o'clock, he discovered a colored man in advance of him, in the act of crossing from the southeast to the northwest corner of the streets named, carrying a bag. He hailed the man, who, instead of responding, dropped the bag and started in a brisk run up Walnut street, with the officer in pursuit. Arrived at the intersection of Walnut and McRae streets, the fugitive darted into the latter street, thence through a vacant lot leading to Anderson street; and finally escaped. Officer Terry fired two shots at the thief as he ran, and thinks he must have struck him; but if he did the fellow abated not his speed. Officer Merritt assisted in the pursuit.

Returning to the intersection of Seventh and Walnut streets, the officers picked up the bag, which was found to contain ten chickens, two of which were dead, the live ones being plump and fat, and among them a fine rooster. The bag and its contents were taken to the City Hall, together with the hat of the thief, which he dropped as he ran, and the chickens were subsequently placed in a coop to await a claimant. The hat has been much worn and has quite a number of air holes in it. The owner can get it by applying to Chief of Police Brock, at the City Hall, who will take pleasure in restoring it. Harman Kuhl, a seaman, charged with engaging in an affray with another man, on Monday night last, was required to pay a fine of $5. Both men escaped at the time, but Officer McCall arrested Kuhl Tuesday night and locked him up.

Delia Gardner, charged with being insane, was sent below to await an examination by the proper authorities. She has been having periodical attacks of mental aberation for a long time, and has on more than one occasion been under confinement in the insane department at the County Poor House.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do ress up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are Dally sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and units in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW—Ladies Visitor, New York City.
