WHAT HAS BEEN SAID ABOUT

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Southern People WHO HAVE USED IT.

like previous testimonials these have all een received during the past few weeks. They come from people who having bought and used Brown's Iron Bitters have received such marked benefit that they willingly testify to its merit. It seems warcely possible to submit stronger evidence than this. If you are feeling peorly, and are disposed to try Brown's Iron Bitters, you can obtain it from any reputable druggist. There are, however, preparations containing Iron, from the sale of which the druggist obtains a greater profit than he makes on Brown's Iron Bitters. For this reason some may try to persuade you that something else is just as good. Do not be deceived; Brown's Iron Bitters is the only Iron medicine which does not blacken the teeth, produce headache, or cause constipation. Price of the genuine

Mrs. N. H. Nash, 817 McRae St., Wil-mington, says: "I had a serious attack of malarial fever, was so prostrated that my mind became afflicted. At this period I commenced using Brown's Iron Bitters and was rewarded by a speedy cure. My husband was also benefited and we highly recommend this valuable medicine.

PERSONAL.

- Mr. Gladstone's salaries amount to $37,500 a year-yet he chops his own

- Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt, through his attorneys, Messrs. Addison & Howland, has entered judgment in the Supreme Court against Gen. Ulysses S. Grant for $155,-

- Lieut. Greely says that of his nineteen men who perished all but one were smokers, and that one was the last to die. The seven survivors were non-smoking men.

- President Arthur recommends that Congress grant a pension to General Grant. He should also have recommended that a guardian be appointed to take care of the money.—Nashville Banner.

- Mr. George H. Monroe, "Templeton," of the Hartford Courant, and one of the most vigorous of the Boston Blaine bolters, has been put on the Democratic ticket as Alderman of the Tenth Boston district, and although he declines the distinction the Democrats insist that he shall run.

- Mr. Vennor completed his almanac for 1885, a little while before his death, and it has just been published at Montreal. The fall of 1884 he predicted would be very open, with a mild, unsettled winter, to follow with great falls of rain and snow. He also predicted an unusually green Christmas and a mild New Year.

Mrs. Annie E. Jones, Forestville, N. C. says: "I consider Brown's Iron Bitters the best tonic I ever used."

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

- Texas has now about 6,617,524 cattle, according to assessors' returns, val-ued at over $81,000,000. The increase in numbers this year has been over 500,000, worth $9,500 000. - CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Dec. 9.

-Great excitement existed yesterday in Western North Carolina over the discovery of a new gold mine near Marion, McDowell county. Scores of miners are flocking there from all sections, and some valuable pockets are said to have been discovered. Wonderful gems-rubies, amethysts, garnets-have recently been picked up in that

- Flanagan, of Texas, has been nominated to an Internal Revenue Collectorship in Texas. He will be remembered as the plain-spoken patriot who, at the Re-publican National Convention of 1880, disurbed the hilarity of the occasion by compressing the bright lexicon of practical politics into the historical question: "What are we here for except the offices?"—Phil.

Mr. H. S. Jackson, Hertford, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has proven itself to be a valuable remedy for chills and fever."*

POLITICAL POINTS

- Those who think Cleveland will prove a weak executive will cut their wisdom teeth before 1888.—Boston Post, Dem. - If advice were money Governor Cleveland would just now be in receipt of a larger income then Mr. Vnnderbilt.-N. Y. Star, Dem.

- We propose that Cleveland shall be the last President elected by fraud.— Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. This sounds "smart and chipper." Only one man was ever seated in the chair of the Presidency of the United States through fraud. His name was Rutherford B. Hayes.—N. Y. World, Dem.

- Republican editors wonder that the Democratic press should favor the abolition of federal deputy marshals, inasmuch as under a Democratic administration they would be good for thousands of votes for the Democracy. They forget that what is wanted in this country is a government of the people, for the people and by the peo-ple.—Boston Post, Dem.

Mrs. E. E. Creasey, Concord, N. C., says: "I felt weak and debilitated. Brown's Iron Bitters greatly improved me."

WE THINK NOT.

New York Times, Rep. Will Mr. Cleveland recognize the worst element of his party by putting in his Cabinet a representative of jobbers, lobbyists and plunderers? We think not. Will men who helped to divide the "swag" of the Pacific Mail steal dictate to Mr. Cleveland Cabinet appointments? We think not. Will men who are now haunting the corridors of the Capitol at Washington to block legislation necessary to forfeit unearned land grants help Cleveland make his Cabinet? We think not.

Will men who figured in a notorious attempt to purchase electoral votes eight years ago be appointed to Cleveland's Cabinet? We think
