ganton Riade. Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for-tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAE has steadily "waxed" un-til it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newera-per it has few equals, and no superior, for appris-priate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepta ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington MORNING STAR has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remark-able success of the STAE is due to its strict atten-tion to business. The boast of the STAE (rightful-ly too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the pa-per is all that the term of "good newspaper" im-plies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men.
