It is Frank Hurd's time next to contradict that report.

Men are said to be more liable to take chelera than women and single men than married. Fact!

Great throngs of visitors called on President-elect Cleveland to wish him a Happy New Year. There is nothing that succeeds like success.

If the Legislature goes into the county-making business, of which there seems to be a full supply already, it is to be hoped they will make no more Radical counties.

One of the absurdest things you will find in newspapers is that a tax on men's vices is repugnant to our form of government. They think it is awful to tax a drink or a cigar.

It requires $576,650 to support the city government of Savannah. This is $79,350 more than the actual cost for 1884, but the estimate for 1885 is as first given. That is pretty steep.

Mr. Paul H. Hayne is booked as being 51 years old the 1st of January. We had supposed him to be older. We hope he will have as many more returns of his natal anniversary and have troops of readers of his fine poems.

During the year 1884 about 150 immigrant families have come into our State. We suppose we have lost quite as many by emigration, possibly many more. If the State could hold its people it would grow 30 per cent, in a decade. But we are glad to see desirable strangers moving into the Sate, especially those with some

The Charleston News and Courier compliments its colored troops and

"It would be a good thing to send a repre sentative colored company to Washington, to take part in the grand parade at the in-auguration of Cleveland. No body of citi-zens is more interested in the success of Democratic administration than the colored people are, and South Carolina can furnish a colored company that would stand com-parison, in discipline and neatness of ap-pearance, with the crack companies of New England."

The well informed and able Philadelphia Record corrects a strange error into which the ordinarily intelligent and careful New York Times fell, in referring to President Polk as "obscure" at the time he was nominated. The Record says: "He had refused a re-election to Con-gress after serving there for fourteen years, having been thrice nominated and twice having been thrice nominated and twice elected to the Speakership, and during his term of service on the floor of the House he had been one of the leaders of the opposi-tion to Adams, and one of the most efficient supporters of Jackson. He had also been Governor of Tennessee and a Vice Presidential candidate at two National Conventions; so that we do not think be can be accurately described as 'obscure.'"

- An agent was in the city yesterday making arrangements for a lecture to be delivered in this city on or about the 20th inst., by Hon. Carl Schurz, a prominent politician and a most eloquent and at-ractive speaker. He will draw a big house.

A. Campbell, colored, who was arrested for being drunk and very disorderly on Fourth street, in "Brooklyn," about 9 o'clock Friday night, by Officer Latham, of the police force, and who proved very obstinate on the way to the station house, was ordered to pay $5, failing to do which he was sent below. He is said to be the same individual who was arrested as a "chum" of Pompey Sneed's, but was subsequently released.

Two young white men, who gave their names as A. E. Mitchell and C. E. Lyon. and said they were from Princeton, N. J., went to a residence in the vicinity of Second and Ann streets. Friday night, and called for something to eat. A lady went to the door first, and, when they had stated their errand, said she had nothing for them and shut the door. A gentleman next went to the door, and, as they still lingered, he ushed what they wanted, and when they answered as before he ordered them off; whereupon they cursed him and invited him to a warmer climate. Being down the street shortly afterwards, and seeing Sergeant Bishop, the gentleman told him about the two men, whom he thought were acting rather suspiciously. As he did so the men passed and were pointed out to the officer, who proceeded to take them into custody and conduct them to the station house. They represent that they started for Florida, but their money run short and now they want to get back north, and talk of taking the next steamer. One of them had eleven dollars in money in his pocket. They were held for further developments.

Narrow Escape. A narrow escape occurred at the residence of one of our citizens on Friday. A brave little fellow had just started to go down a high flight of stairs, with the baby in his arms, when he stumbled and fell with his precious burden and tumbled to the very bottom of the stairs, but never once released his hold upon the little one. Reaching the bottom of the steps he screamed Ma. I've killed the baby!" The mother ran horrifled to the spot, picked up the little darling, and found, to her intense satisfaction, that it had not sustained so much as a bruise. The frightened brother, greatly relieved to hear that no bones were broken. then remembered that he "rolled clear over the baby" once in his giddy flight.

Be careful with the babies !

To Be Forwarded. Arrangements were made yesterday for the transfer of the remains of the late L. B. Wilklaw to the home of his relatives in Indians. The body, under the direction of Coroner Jacobs, was taken up and carried to the establishment of Mr. J. W. Woolvin, where it was placed in a casket. It was expected that the remains would be forwarded last night or this morning.

The fifty convicts alluded to a few days ago as having passed through Goldsboro en route to Pender county, are to be employed in constructing a road from Croom's Bridge to the mouth of Buck Branch, on the northeast side of Angola pocosin, near K. F. Powers' place, a distance of about ten miles.

Reading Room. Mr. C. M. Harris, the newsdealer, has opened a reading room in the rear of his store, which has been neatly fitted up for the purpose, and supplied with sufficient material to accommodate the demands of the reading public.

RIVER AND MARINE.

- The New York Herald records the loss of the schooner Estelle Day, Capt. E. T. Williams, from Charleston to Philadelphia. Capt. W. is well know in this city, having married a step-daughter of Mr. R. J. Scarborough. He is also remembered in connection with the narrow escape of himself and wife from the ill-fated schooner Mary E. Feme rick, which foundered at sea in the early part of last year. His wife was not with him on this occasion. Capt. W. states that he sailed December 16th with 172,000 feet of yellow pine lumber, and had fine weather till the 18th, off Cape Lookout, when the weather became squally; at 8 p. m. hauled down tib and staysail and hove to, the wind blowing heavily and a heavy sea; pumps kept going every hour all night. At 6 s. m. 19th, wind heavy and a mountainous sea, the vessel began to heel, and at 9 a. m. rolled over, the crew clinging to the outside, and the sea washing over them. They remained thus until Sunday night, 21st, when the vessel began to right just before daylight, and on the 22d they all got into the fore rigging. The vessel was then breaking up fast and the lumber coming out. At 8 a. m. she broke up with a great noise and sank immediately, and left the crew hanging on to the lumber and other floating material. At 9 a. m. the mate, Mr. E. S. Curling, of Lynn, Mass., failed to hold on to the raft and was drowned. At 2 p. m. a sail bore down to them. They had met portions of the wrecked stuff and were looking for the wreck. She proved to be the Norwegian barque Onward, Captain Olsen, from Stock-

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED.—Mrs. Harriet Cummings, of Cincinnati, Obio, writes; "Barly last winter my daughter was attacked with a severe cold, which settled on her lungs. We tried several medicines, none of which seemed to do her any good, but she continued to get worse, and finally raised large amounts of blood from her lungs. We called in a family physician, but he failed to do her any good. At this time a friend who had been cured by DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, advised me to give it a trial. We got a battle and she began to improve, and by the way of three bettles was entirely cured."

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTERSS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Porence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind coilc, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it coile, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
