The Louisville Courier Journal takes the New York Sun to task for writing "AVenerable Chair." It says:

Evidently the Sun commits the common but inexcusable mistake of using 'venerable' as a synonym for 'ancient' or 'aged. The Sun might as correctly term Mr. B'aine's or Mr. Hoar's tirades against the South venerable.'

The Sun is "nothing if not critical."

The Prince of Wales's eldest boy, Prince Albert Victor of Wales, is now twenty-one. He is in the line of Kingship. But if the Prince of Wales should succeed his mother to the throne, and he should reign as long as she has, the young Prince will not have much showing to play with crowns and sceptres.

We see it mentioned in the Northern papers that President-elect Cleveland regards the Blair educational bill as "unconstitutional and inexpedient." True every word. We hope he will veto it if it passes during his term. He gives another excellent evidence that he is a man of brains and has a proper regard for the organic law of the land.

'It is an undoubted fact that the white voters of the South have suffered hardly ess than the negroes from the intolerance and the tyranny of the Bourbon leadership. Men have been driven from public life for having an opinion of their own on such matters as the Blair bill."

Oh ill-informed American, a majority of the Southern Democrats now in Congress are fairly howling for the Blair bill and still they have been sent back. The truth is the Southern Democrats are sadly demoralized at the prospect of that big school "appropriation." Selah!

McClure is the agent of Mr. Cleveland, and that he is travelling through the South investigating the records of the men who are mentioned in connection with the preminent places under the new administration. He has made ample inquiries as to Gov. Jarvis, Judge Merrimon, Judge Fowle and other leading Democrats. He is now fully posted as to North Carolina."

- Raleigh Chronicle: The members and the public in Raleigh who have given the subject attention express entire satisfaction with the committees. Mr. Speaker Holt and Mr. President Boykin had an eye to business. — But we are becoming badly "mixed" on the subject, proof whereof is given by the fact that Mr. Green's most wealthy and influential constituents prefer for the tax on tobacco to remain. Almost every manufacturer to the State find the tax a benefit. Yet these gentlemen raise no objection to its abolitionin public, at least.

- Dossey Battle in Tarboro Southerner: Dr. D. B. Batts, one of our worthiest farmers and a county commissioner, found his pasture dotted on Wednesday morning with the carcasses of his sheep, killed by dogs on Tuesday night. — T. P. Braswell, of the Battleboro section, a most intelligent farmer and live man generally, has lost so many sheep by the destroying dogs that he has been forced reluctantly to abandon the field. And this when North Carolina could easily add wool growing as one of our most profitable industries.
