The Arkansas Solons have elected two ladies as clerks, one engrossing and one enrolling. Miss Annie Petugrew and Miss Jeannie Sims are the roong ladies, the former being speearly commended for her good looks.

We copy a part of an highly enlogistic article on Booth's Iago from the New York Times. That paper anst have changed dramatic critics. The tone of this article is far more landstory than that of other articles on Booth in the same paper, if our memory does not serve us a trick.

Mrs. ex Gov. Cornell, referring to Miss Cleveland, who is to be mistress of the White House, says she is t "lady of rare culture and attainments, and she regards her as admirably qualified to discharge the important social duties which will fall to her lot." But the President must marry and then Mrs. and not Miss Cleveland will do the honors.

Our editorial on second page was written and it type before we rethat the Senate had passed a resolution indorsing ex Governor Jarvis for a Cabinet office. So what we have said cannot be applied particularly to him. We were expressing ourselves on "general principles" and hna." writing what we thought.

If the Republicans in the Fifth District had gone on a still hunt they would have elected Edwards or some other Republican, as the vote cast for Mr. Reid is extremely small-not one-third, we suppose, of the usual vote. But most fortunately the opposition had a very small vote. If they had known how few Democrats were going to vote they could have taken "snap judgment."

The latest from Mr. Cleveland, according, to the Hartford Courant's correspondent at Washington, is that at least four fifths of the Republican officials must go. Let us see: there are 111,000. Four fifths are 88,000. Well, that will do to start with-say for the first year. There are 15,000 that come under the Civil Service regulations. So there are some 8,000 more to be disposed of.

A Halifai "Subscriber" writes on the 21sting 1-

"I see in the columns of your paper where you say nearly everybody in Halifax county are in favor of the No Fence law, which is a mistake. Three-fourths of the people are against such a law and they are against the passage of such an unjust law."

The STAR did not say as mentioned, but it copied from some other paper something about the no-fence law in Halifax. We are surprised that "Subscriber" calls it an "nnjust law" and that "three-fourths of the people" of Halifax are opposed to it. Are three-fourths of the farmers who build fences opposed to it? That is the real question.

GOVERNOR SCALES.

The Inaugural Ceremonies in Metropolitan Hall. Raleigh Chronicle.

Last night the town was full of distinguished visitors, who came to be present at the inauguration to-day, and every train this morning brought more. Just before moon the special train from Greensboro, with Gen. Scales aboard, arrived, and was met at the depot by a large crowd of pee-ple, the citizens' committee and a committee from the Cleveland and Scales Club. Gen. Scales and his military escort proceeded to the Capitol, where an informal reception was held until the time arrived for the inaugnral ceremonies.

Metropolitan Hall was profusely decorated. Over the stage hung banners with the State's coat of arms; the boxes were filled with the smiling faces of ladies; on the rear of the stage sat the distinguished men in al! branches of life.

The hall in all its history-political, theatrical and ecclesiasticalhas never been more densely packed, or more beautifully filled with smiling faces. The section reserved for the members was not large enough to hold them all; behind these sat ladies packed and smiling, and the rest of the hall was filled with everybody else. The gallery was occupied by a promiscuous crowd that stood and looked over shoulders and big hats to see all they could. Down stairs there was a philosophic rabble which made good natured efforts now and then to get inside, and fell back declaring that anybody could see Governor Scales to-morrow without any rush at all and without its costing a cent. It was as interesting a crowd to watch as has ever been seen in Raleigh.

Presently the military marched down the street, the four Wizard Oil horses drew the retiring Governor, elections in commencement officers were the incoming Governor and Senator | held by the respective societies on last but Vance, and the prime actors in the pretty show finally got into the hail, and whoop! what cheering! Tue gaudy gear of the soldiers added new colors to the gallery and more lungs to the audience. It was a sight well worth coming a hundred miles to see-a sight that stirred everybody's patriotism.

President of the Senate Boykin called the General Assembly to order; Rev. Dr. Smith, of Greensboro, offered prayer, and each outgoing officer presented his successor to Chief Justice Smith, who administered the oath of office.

Col. Kenan presented Attorney. General Theo. F. Davidson; Mr. Scarborough presented Superintendent of Public Instruction J. M. Finger; Senator W. C. Troy presented Treasurer Donald W. Bain; Mr. L. Overman presented Auditor W. P. Roberts; Senator E. T. Boykin, President of the Senate pro tem., presented Lieutenant-Governor Charles M. Stedman; Governor Jarvie presented Governor-elect A. M. Scales, After he had taken the oath of office Gen. Scales was introduced by Mr. Jarvis :-

"Ladies and Gentlemen: I present to you the Governor of North Caro-

Governor Scales delivered a long inaugural address, reviewing the condition of the State and all the governmental departments. It is a suggestive public document. He declined to allow it to be copied in advance, and he had hardly concluded its delivery when the Chronicle went

- Statesville Landmark: Wednesday morning Mr. James Yates, who lives near Belt's bridge, in Cool Spring, township, went off to the field to plough, and his wife took the baby and went on a visit to a neighbor, Mrs. Green, who lives in sight, leaving two other children, little boys, one aged six years and the other four, alone at home. The statement of the elder is that the younger child, while sitting on a chair in front of the fire, lost his balance and fell forward into the fireplace. His clothes blazed up and he made a dash for the bed. 'Fhe elder brother kept him off the bed, and he ran out into the road in front of the house a flame of fire. There he dropped and died, everything being burned off of him except his shoes and stockings. - Charlotte Observer: During the calendar year of 1884 the amount of bullion assayed at the mint was, in round figures, $163,548 42. Business seems to be considerably slack in the city at present, and dull times seems to be a dully cry. — The trial of Peter Foust, white, and Sam Martin, colored, for the murder of storekeeper Wheeler, has been concluded in Greensboro, and the accused were re-leased on bail. Judge Gilmer, who tried the case, gave it as his opinion that the evidence was not sufficient to convict before a jury, but in his opinion it was suf-ficient to justify the parties being put under a bond for further investigation. He placed Foust's bond at $2,000 and Martin's at $1,000. The bonds were given and the accused returned to their homes in Ran-dolph county.

- Greensboro Workman: There was an alarm of fire this morning about 4 clock, the location of which was in the rear portion of the National Bank of Greensboro. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, being kindled just under the front of the fire place in the chamber of the bank It burned through the floor here and there for a space of two by five feet, part of the burnt space being covered by a carpet, which was also partially burned. The fire was kindled in the cellar, in which was stored the fuel, consisting of coal and wood, for the service of the bank. - We have seen a young gentleman on the streets here who has been uffering greatly with a sore lip. He thinks was poisoned with nicotine while smoking. It will be well to be careful. Such Cases are not rare. A case of cancer in this State, which proved fatal less than three weeks ago, is traceable to constant smoking. Some cigarettes are said to coutain opium and "what wo." Beware! [Gen. Grant has had to give up smoking on ac. count of the condition of his mouth. STAR !

- Raleigh News-Observer: In one of the speeches made the other day the value of property in North Carolina was stated to be $186,000,000. That was true. Now $201,000,000 of property is listed for taxation — Neither of the Senators desires or would accept a position in the capi net. They prefer to continue to represent their State in the Benate. - Through Mr. Richard H. Bettle, chairman of the Democratic Executive committee, Hou. Z. B. The pames of the claimants under the French Spoliation bill can be seen at the office of Mayor Hall, who has received a pamphlet containing them and other particulars for the information of these interested. The bill has passed both houses of Congress and has been signed by the Prestdent. It provides that the various claims shall be referred to the Court of Claims, hich is to make a report next Decer as to their validity. The necessary appropriation to meet the claims will not be made until it is ascertained from the report referred to how much money will be required for that purpose.

Unsuccessful Attempts. Several attempts have been made lately to rob the residence of Mr. W. B. Turking ton, corner of Seventh and Chesnut streets, and to a faithful dog has been mainly due Raleigh Visitor. Senator Vance arrived in the city last evening on the train from Weldon. He was met at the depot by a committee and conducted to the hall of the House of Representatives, where a large audience had assembled to greet him. Senator Vance was formally presented by Mr. Means, of the committee, which was responded to by the distinguished visitor in his happiest style. The occasion was in all respects a happy ene. the failure of those who have attempted it. A few nights ago some one was heard jumping down from the roof of the woodhouse, and upon investigation it was found that a cat had been killed and thrown into it, with the expectation, no doubt, that the dog would be induced to enter, when from his cafe perch the thief could lean over and

The case of Louisa Allen, colored, charged with being implicated with Ben Allen in counterfeiting the silver coin of the United States, had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Gardner yesterday moraing. Officers Whitney and Ashs and Baisam Fuller, the bill poster, who accompanied Officer Carr in the raid upon the counterfeiting den, were examined, and their evidence tended to show that the woman was not only acquained with the business upon which her lodger was engaged, but that she took a conspicuous part in the effort to conceal, the evidences of the crime when it was discovered that the officers were upon them. The defendant had two witnesses called -one a young woman and the other a young mau-both of whom occupied rooms is the house, and their testimony rather tended to confirm what had already been testified to on the part of the State, and at the close of their testimony, and the refusal of the defendant to testify in her own benalf, which the Commissioner assured her she had a right to do, she was required to enter into bond in the sum of $1,000 for her appearance at the next term of the U. s. District Court, which meets in this vity in May next; failing in which she was comaitted to jail.

An Attempted Mobbery and Berrow

Mr. John Mayland, bar-keeper at the Purcell House, who resides on Dock, between Seventh and Eighth streets, had a narrow escape a night or two since. Be heard a noise in his yard, about 8 o'clock inthe morning, and went out to investigate, wnes he suddenly found himself in the presence of a thief who was in the act of robbing his hen-house, and who, finding he was discovered, turned upon Mr. Mayland and tackled him for a fight. A suffle ensued, which was finally brought to a close by the robber, was retreated and jumped the fence, Mr. Mayland seizing and retaining in his grip a portion of the fellow's coat tail as he went over. The fence was not a high oue, and as soon as the robber got on the outside he opened fire upon Mr. Mayland, discharging his weapen three times, while the balls whistled uncomfortably close to Mr. M.'s head, but luckily did not strike him. A bunca of keys belonging to the thirf was left in the lock to the hen house. The intruder was a colored man.

Chesnut Street (Colored) Presbyterian

There will be a pre re nate meeting of Yadkin Presbytery at the Chesnut Street Presbyterian church next Saturday, 24th inst., convening at 11 o'clock a m. The Presbytery will consider and act upon the resignation of Rev. D. J. Sanders, which is to take effect february 1st. We understand that the retiring pastor will remain in the city and devote mere time to the publication of the Africo American Pres byterian, which has now become a weekly, and will engage in some missionary work.

The Time O'Day. It is interesting to see how watches differ as to the exact hour of the day, while at the same time they may all be good ones if the owners could (or would) only have some standard regulation to be guided by in actting them. Yesterday morning a number of persons were standing in front of the Court House, when some dispute arose as to the exact time. Various watches were pulled out and the time called as follows: Two 11.10; two 11.15. two 11.19; two 11.20; one 11.25 and two 11.30.
