MORNING EDITION

OUTLINES.

Khartoum fell on the night of January 27th: the Arabs were admitted through the treachery of two pachas who had been punished by Gen. Gordon; a message from the Mahdi says that Gordon had become a musselman and that all English officers had better follow his example; the Arabs are preparing to attack the British force at Metemneh. — Collision of freight trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge over Raritan river, New Brunswick, N. J.; oil tank cars exploded and fired the bridge and a large manufacturing establishment. -Cotton crop, in sight, 5,057,830 bales. __ The New York banks hold $54,985,-125 in excess of legal requirements. -Diphtheria is raging in Southampton county, Va. - A gang of counterfeiters acrested at Columbia, Tenn. Fire in the Signal Service office, Washington, D. C., destroyed valuable records, instruments, &c., the damage to the building was slight. - President-elect Cleveland beseiged with another throng of visitors yesterday. - Fifteen thousand Italian troops have been ordered to Egypt. and 12,000 more were mobilized for the same service. - New York markets: slouey 11@1 per cent.; cotton steady at 111-@118c; southern flour weak and quota ations at $3 20@5 75; wheat, ungraded white 84@90c; corn, ungraded 50@511c; rosin steady at $1 25@1 271; spirits tur-
