Gen. Wolseley's friends in England say he was never in favor of the route he took up the Nile, but favored the Red Sea route. This plea may or may not be true. The reinforcements are all being sent by the route by Suakin.

The South-haters in the Kansas Legislature are boiling over because ex-President Davis participated in the Liberty Bell reception. They have passed red-hot resolutions of denunciation that will hurt no one but the fellows who did it.

The State Senate refused to pass a bill granting $3,000 to help publish Cal. Sloan's "History of North Carolins in the war between the States." It would be well to pass a bill to have the Roster of troops in the late war corrected for it abounds in er-

The Reformers in New York State do not seem to favor either Whitney or Manning for a Cabinet place. We do not know much of these men. Manning is a sharp party manipulator but he is hardly a statesman. Whitney is son-in-law to Senatorelect Payne, of Ohio, who is said to be the candidate of the Standard Oil monopoly. Whitney is said to be much preferred to Mauning by the county Democracy of New York.

We are in receipt of the "Third Biennial Report of the Superintendent of Fish and Fisheries of the State of North Carolina for 1883 84." It is a neat pamphlet of 35 pages and contains a full account of the operations of Superintendent Worth, who is an efficient officer. It also contains the lecture of Lieut. Winslow, of the Navy, on the Oys er Industry, and a paper on the same subject by Prof. Brooks, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

There is a painful rumor from Washington concerning the Greely party. It is now said that Lieut. Greely was himself guilty of the very published. A special from Washington to the Boston Post says:

"The extracts from the diaries which are published indicate that there was nothing worse than a mutinous disposition in the party; that Henry was shot a month after the rations were exhausted; that Greely made no effort to get the 1,500 rations at Cape Hawkes, nor to go to Little-ton Island, although Lieut. Kislingbury asked for one of the boats. The diaries tend to show that Lieut. Greely was inefficient and incompetent, and that he is responsible for the loss of the 19 men who died at Cape Sabine. It is this story which has begun to be whispered about Washington,"

- Davidson Dispatch: We were informed this morning that a full roller flour mill of seventy five barrels daily capacity, is to be built in Lexington during the summer. The contract for the erection of the necessary buildings has been signed.

- Monroe Enquirer-Express: A negro named Lee Staton was incarcerated in our county jail on last Friday on a charge of attempting to commit a rape on the person of a little white girl, aged 10 years, daughter of Mr. H. M. Bancom, who lives near Olive Branch, in the eastern portion of the county.

- Charlotte Observer; Mr. Andrew Berry, of Lemley's township, died last Tuesday, at the age of about 70 years. He was a prominent man in this coupty. — The many friends in Charlotte of Mrs. Mary Mattoou, wife of Dr. S. Mattoon, of Biddle University, were pained to learn of the sudden death of that lady yesterday morning. — At 12 o'clock last night the thermometer had reached 12 degrees

- Oxford Torchlight: Jessie Parham, who shot Mike Cook on the streets of Oxford last Tuesday and immediately afterwards ran away to avoid arrest, was captured the next morning at Clarksville, Va., and carried to the Boydton jail. -We notice among those licensed to practice law by the Supreme Court last Tuesday, the name of Marcellus Charles Ransom, of Oxford, a colored man who until recently taught school and preached.

Senator Lapham says he knows from experience the North Carolinian does not exalt the curative properties of the "weed" too highly. — Report says nine negroes were buried one day last week in Fayetteville; and three the next. - Prof. J. The charter was introduced in the Senate, and will be reported on favorably to day. The Oxford people are enthusiastic over the building of the proposed road. An inter State cocking main between Virginia and North Carolina commences tomorrow, near Portsmouth, -- Some disposition is manifested to locate here the preparation and manufacture of Gen. Clingman's tobacco remedies. — The Durham cotton mills are putting on the finishing touches to their handsome and commodious buildings. They propose to begin operations in March. - Lincolnton Press: Last year O. Toutherow, of this county, raised 1,600 pounds of tobacco on two acres of land near town. Some idea of the quality of the tobacco may be formed from the fact that Mr. Toutherow was offered 25 cents per pound or $400 for the lot by a Shelby tobacco firm last week. — A few weeks ago we published an item relative to a fight between Miles Hester, "the bully of the Big Ore Bank," and George Stiller, in which Hester was worsted. It is the invention of Mr. Clement Bailey, of Kinston, for which he has obtained patent, and is the most complete thing of the kind we have seen. It is an elegant carriage, a snug little crib, a beautiful, convenient cradle, and an easy chair.

The original statement of the case was based upon information furnished by a resident of that neighborhood and the Falcon had no reason to question its authenthenticity. In further justice to Capt. Scarborough it should be said that an eye-witness to the rescue and to the efforts made by Capt. Scarborough and his subse quent actions, made a detailed statement of the case to the Falcon and completely exonerated Capt. Scarborough.

Truck Farming.

We had the pleasure of a call yesterday from Mr. T. H. Massey, of Oak Grove, Westmoreland county, Virginia, but formerly of Maryland, who is here on a prospecting tour with the view of purchasing land and going into the truck farm business on an extensive scale. Mr. Massey was led to visit our immediate section on this errand from reading an article in the STAR from Maj. W. L. Young on the "Semi Tropical Area," which he contends embraces the country round about this city. He had the paper in his pocket yesterday, and was much struck by the views there advanced. Mr. M. says that if he becomes sufficiently satisfied by what he sees to decide upon embarking in the business here, others of his friends will follow. He will spend severa days here in looking around, and we hope that he will be afforded every facility in his investigations that he may require.

An Exciting Runaway. A wagon team, belonging to Capt. T. J Southerland, started somewhere on Front street yesterday morning and ran away, Dashing down Front to Princess street, they turned that corner and were running furiously in the direction of Second, being nearly abreast of the stables, where a young colored man named Jamie Whitty, in the employ of Capt. Southerland, rushed out, threw himself by the side of the frantic horses, seized the one next to him by the head-gear and instantly arrested them in their wild flight, seemingly at the imminent danger of his life. Those who witnessed the dangerous exploit, among whom were several who have had much experience in the matter of looking after horses, say that it was well done. But for the sudden stoppage serious damage might have resulted to the wagon and team, if nothing else. As it was, if there was any injury it was very Boy Without a Name, Home or A small colored boy, apparently about ten years old, was found by a policeman asleep in a private yard on Wednesday night and taken to the guard house. He could give no account of himself further than he used to stay over in Brooklyn. He says his parents are both dead and that he can't tell what their names were. He only knows that his name is Bennie; don't know that he has any other. He has been in the habit for some time past of sleeping under houses or wherever he could get a chance. He says he has no home or friends. Chief of Police Brock will make an effort to secure a home for the destitute and forsaken little fellow. In the meantime he will be cared for at the station house.

New Steam Fire Engine. The new steam fire engine purchased by the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1, arrived on the steamship Benefactor yesterday. OPERA HOUSE.

Wilton Nobles in "Love and Law." Milton Nobles, who is a great favorite in this city, presented his new play, "Love and Law," last night, and won fresh laurels to his well earned reputation.

The Opera House was packed, and this fact seemed to be fully appreciated by the different actors, who acquitted themselves most creditably.

The play has many strong points, and the author, Mr., Nobles, has the happy faculty of presenting these points in such a manner as cannot fail to please.

Mrs. Nobles, as Ritta, won most hearty applause, and her acting was excellent. Mr. Nobles, in the character of Felix O'Paff, sustained himself most admirably, and in the last scene, where he personated the Italian, the audience were at a loss to identify him until he threw off his dis-

Criminal Court. The following cases have been disposed of since our last report:

State vs. Jordan Lemon, charged with larceny. Defendant found guilty. State vs. Thomas Gardner (a colored youth), charged with an attempt to burn a house. Defendant found not guilty and State vs. Julia Ford, charged with assault and battery. Defendant found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and the State vs. Wm. Carter, charged with inflicting injury to real estate. Defendant found not guilty.

Lieutenant J. U. Rhodes, of the revenue cutter Bibb, in service on Lake Ontario, is here on a short visit to his friends. He is well known and highly esteemed by the people of Wilmington. Lt. R. is accompanied by his sister, Miss Jennie Rhodes, of New Haven, who will spend some weeks in our sunny clime. Capt. E. D. Browning (kommonly kalled 'Dolly"), the well known conductor on the W. & W. Railroad, has resigned. The old man's popularity is only exceeded by his size, and the traveling public will regret to hear that he will call no more "tickets."

In discussing the Judicial Bill in the House of Representatives, last Tuesday, Mr. Womack stated that he held in his hand, a petition signed by 1,000 tax payers of New Hanover county asking that the Criminal Court be abolished. Surely, there must be some mistake about this matter. We knew there was opposition to the Court, but we had never heard that it had reached the formidable proportions of "1,000 tax-payers." The friends of the Court should give that petition a careful examination.

Lutheran Musical Entertainment. The young People's Association of St. Paul's Lutheran church gave a very pleasant musical entertainment at Memorial Hall on Wednesday night. We thought we had secured the services of a special reporter, but he failed us. The efforts of the young people are very highly complimented. Young lady amateurs rendered most of the pieces, and did so exceedingly well, considering the fact that as a general thing they had never appeared before an audience before. The attendance was quite large and everything passed off agreeably.

Change in Time of Holding Courts. Mr. W. T. Bannerman, Clerk of the Superior Court of Pender county, requests us to call attention to an act of the Legislature to change the time of holding Superior Courts in the counties of Carteret and Pender, by which, Mr. Bannerman states, the Court in Pender is brought on the eighth Monday after the first Monday in March and September, and in Carteret on the fifteenth Monday. The next term of Pender Superior Court will meet, therefore, on the 27th day of April under the present law.

Mayor's Court. C. E. Jevens, charged with engaging in one of his periodical entertainments for the benefit of his neighbors, but which seem to prove anything but satisfactory to their sense of propriety-in other words, with getting tipsy and having a general "blow out"-had a hearing and was ordered to be confined for fifteen days in the city prison. THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A Benefactress. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow" Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
