MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The National Cotton Planters' Convention, at New Orleans, adjourned; the next annual meeting will be held in Charleston, S. C. — In a quarrel between T. C. Spellings and Ben B. Price, opposing attorney, in Tancy Co., Mo., Price shot and mortally wounded Spellings. — It is said in Washington that an extra session of Congress is no longer probable. — President-elect Cleveland is devoting all his spare time to the preparation of his inaugural address. — In the House of Representatives, yesterday, a motion to suspend the rules and pass the Grant retirement bill was lost; not the necessary two-thirds voting in the affirmative. — A dispatch from Kort confirms the news of the capture of Kharطوم and the death of General Gordon. — Two negroes while attempting to wreck a railroad train were killed near Luling, Texas. — Two masked men boarded the passengers on the Galveston (Harrisburg & San Antonio R. R., and made their escape. — A cotton warehouse at Eufaula, Ala., burned; loss $100,000. — A mob of unemployed workmen created great excitement in London; they attempted to storm the Admiralty and the Home Office but were driven off. — New York markets: January 14th per cent; cotton firm at 11 3/8; 6-11 7/16; southern four week at 92 3/8; wheat, ungraded red 89 3/8; corn, No. 2 54 1/2; rosin dull at 23 1/2; turpentine steady at 30 1/2.

The Senate protests that no extra session is necessary. The Legislature hangs on. It might have done all needed legislation in the first thirty days and been off.

John Morrissey is in Paris. In a recent interview he said that his agents are the authors of the dynamite explosions.

The last effort to select a Cabinet officer for Mr. Cleveland was by certain petitioners from Indiana. They ask for Jo McDonald, and Senator Voorhees presented it.

Formal charges of mal-administration, violation of civil service rules and misappropriation of public property, have been preferred against Walter Evans, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Gen. Graham will command the Sudan expedition for the relief of Gen. Wolesey and Gen. Gordon, if he is not dead. It will consist of 11,500 men. England ought to send 25,000 men into the Sudan and be done with it.

We have received a copy of the argument of R. D. Burton, Jr., of Halifax, who appeared for the contestants for seats in the Legislature held by Thos. W. Mason, Jas. W. Grant and Jas. H. Edwards. Mr. Burton made a clear and able, if not a convincing, argument, and of that we give no opinion.

— Tom Buford is dead. He died in the lunatic asylum in Kentucky. He killed Judge Elliott seven years ago. Since that time he has seen his family lose all their property, and the trouble of his brother was undoubtedly the cause of the suicide of the noted turfman, Gen. Abe Buford, who killed himself last summer.

Those who regard the Constitution will have more hope for the country if the Paternal Pedagogy bill does not pass this Congress. Whether the next Congress will have more regard for the written law than the present one has remains to be tested. We are glad to see that the friends of the very unwise and dangerous measure are not hopeful of getting through their dynamite package this session.

We mentioned in our announcement of Gordon's death that when he left England he thought he was going to his death. A friend of the great hero says that Gordon had had a presentiment that he would never come back, and still he did not hesitate a moment. He must have had it before he left England, but only five hours elapsed between his summons before the Cabinet and his departure.

Bradstreet's reports for last week 273 failures in the United States against 242 for the same week in 1884. Of these the South furnished as follows: West Virginia 2; Maryland 3; Mississippi and Tennessee 4 each; Alabama and Kentucky 5 each;

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXV.—NO. 125. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1885. WHOLE NO. 5746

North Carolina 6; Arkansas 7; Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia 8; Louisiana 9, and Texas 15. The failures in North Carolina were: "Asheville—S. D. Peiham & Brother, druggs, assigned. Blue Wing—W. S. Holroyd & Co., general store, assigned. Enfield—B. F. Whitaker, general store, failed and offers 25 cents. Hallsville—Burton & Scott, general store, assigned. Sutton—G. L. Aycock, general store, assigned. Lillabites—$1,000, actual assets $1,000. Whitakers—Watson & Joyner, bar, failed."

We have not read a novel by Christian Reid in some nine years. We follow an author until we get his gauge and style and then, as life is so short, we go to fresher fields and "pastures new" where there are new gleaners. The Appletons have just published another story by our gifted North Carolinian. The Charleston News and Courier says of "Roslyn's Fortune," for such is its title: "Miss Fisher writes as charmingly as ever, but has not succeeded in introducing any specially new characters or incidents into her latest novel. It is a pure, clean, sweet story—almost too sweet—and better adapted to summer reading than for amusement in winter weather."

Mr. Randall has a bill before Congress that may do good. It is to get the opinions of practical experts in naval affairs and ships as to the best way of constructing a navy. The New York Times says of the plan: "They are to decide on the general classes and character of vessels to be constructed and call upon expert builders, engineers, and inventors to furnish competitive designs, rewards being offered for the best. Having got these and made their selections, they are to invite bids for contracts to construct a specimen of each type, and, if, after trial, it prove satisfactory, it is to be adopted as a standard of its class."

Spirits Turpentine.

— Rev. Dr. Milburn is still lecturing in this State. — Greenville Reflector: Many new houses can be seen going up throughout the county. We noticed several on the road from this place to Bethel a few days ago.

— Henderson Gold Leaf: Rev. Mr. Sprunt preached two interesting sermons at the Presbyterian church Sunday. He was heard by large congregations. He has agreed to accept the pastorate of this church.

— In the trial of Shields for killing Sitton, now going on at Statesville, the sister of Shields confessed being guilty of immorality in connection with the murdered man, and of having told it to her father and brother.

— Raleigh Chronicle: The death of Mrs. Jesse Brown, yesterday, has caused general grief in the city and to a wide circle of friends. She was the daughter of the late Rev. Wm. McPheeters, D. D., and was born in Augusta county, Va., Dec. 30, 1809.

— Beaufort Telephone: A movement is on foot, and quite a respectable amount of stock subscribed, to purchase and lay out a new cemetery for Beaufort. It was held on Friday evening, the 13th ult., Mrs. Belle Y. Garrison after a long and painful illness of consumption.

— Mockville Times: Davis Turner, colored, living near Kappa, this county, awoke one morning recently and found his wife and one of his children dead in bed with him. — The wife of Mr. Luther Sherrill, of Mecklenburg county, was found in her house burned to a crisp.

— Lenoir Topics: A petition has been sent to the Legislature praying for the establishment of a new county out of portions of Caldwell and Burke, to be known by the name of Iron. It is doubtless the same area included in the projected county of Lee, petitioned for to the last Legislature, which took in parts of Mitchell and Wayne, and contemplated Cranberry as the county town.

— Pittsboro Home: The Wilmington STAR in a very sensible editorial argues against overburdening the minds of school children with too many and too difficult studies. — It is currently reported that J. T. Mann, who stands indicted for the murder of James Pace, and who has been arrested, will be tried at a trial at March Court. There is a move to erect a telegraphic line between Moncure and Pittsboro.

— Durham Plant: Nancy M. Price, of Cove Creek, committed suicide on Wednesday of last week, by hanging herself. She had been insane for about two months. We regret to learn that Mr. J. R. Thomas, one of the most prominent young men of Jackson county, has been recently deprived of his mind, by a severe attack of meningitis. We understand that he is to be taken to the asylum. — The thermometer was six degrees above zero yesterday morning.

— Oxford Torchlight: Tuesday night twelve prisoners escaped from the jail in this place. Only one, who could have gotten out if he had desired to do so, consented to remain in confinement, as his term expires this week, and it was not worth his while. The manner in which they effected their escape is the same that has been practiced by many prisoners for some years past. A hole was cut in the floor, through which they managed to crawl without any great amount of trouble.

— Plymouth Examiner: Died, in this county, Capt. Thomas J. Norman, in his 47th year. He was widely known throughout this section and universally respected by our people. He was a gallant soldier during the war and commanded a company in the 17th North Carolina Infantry, from this (Washington) county. — Last Sunday night the gta house, gta and spurs, belonging to Mr. Benj. Tetterton, two miles from Plymouth, were entirely consumed by fire. The work was unquestionably the deed of an incendiary. — Clayton Bud: Col. R. E. R. Ridges was in Smithfield last Monday night, and talked freely about the railroad from Wilson to Fayetteville. He stated that the contract for grading the road would be let out in sections of ten miles each, and that they would advertise in the papers for the letting out of such contracts. He will commence grading at Selma, going towards Fayetteville, and at the same time commence at Fayetteville coming this way. The work of grading, he says, will be com-

BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE.

Proceedings in Regular Session. The Board met yesterday in regular session; present, R. J. Jones, Esq., Chairman, and O. A. Wiggins, W. R. Kennan and Jno. S. McEachern.

Sundry bills were audited and passed upon. The action of the Board of Aldermen, allowing $100 to J. R. Turrittine for damage done to his office by overflow of gutter during rain in March, 1884, was approved.

Also, the action of the Board of Aldermen authorizing the committee on Markets and Fairs to have a new floor placed in the Fourth street market house, was approved.

The action of the Board of Aldermen in reference to a communication from Mr. Wm. Estimer, asking for an extension of time in the matter of the purchase of the lot on Dock street for hotel purposes, was referred to a committee with power to act, consisting of Messrs. Calder, McEachern and Kennan.

The Board did not concur in the proposition of the Board of Aldermen to make an expenditure of $100 towards the publication of Maj. W. L. Young's book, entitled "Semi-tropical Area."

Mr. Wiggins moved, and it was carried, that the Chairman be instructed to sign a note for $7,000, at 8 per cent. per annum interest, being the renewal of a note dated Feb. 5th, 1884, given to the First National Bank and by it transferred to W. R. McRary. Said note was given for the improvement of North Water street. [This makes notes to the amount of $11,000 renewed this month for the above improvement.]

The Army of Tramps.

On Sunday morning information was telephoned from the gas house, in the southern portion of the city, to the officers at the City Hall, that a number of tramps had congregated there, and that they were fighting among themselves. Capt. Wiggs, of the police force, dispatched Sergeant Capps, with six men, to the scene of the disturbance, and sixteen of the tramps were arrested and taken to the station house, one or two of the crowd having escaped.

They remained in the guard house until yesterday morning, when they were brought before Mayor Hall, who ordered that they be sent out of the city immediately. The band was thereupon placed under charge of Officers Capps and Griffith, — with the exception of one who secured employment as a boiler maker and one or two others who signified their intention of shipping at once for New York — with directions to see them as far on their journey northward as the "Little Bridge," over Smith's Creek. They were all young men, some of them not grown, and one apparently not more than twelve or thirteen years old. They attracted much attention as they were marched through the streets, accompanied by the police officers. They give as an excuse for their tramping that they cannot find employment in the North. They are said to have entered the city over Hilton bridge, coming from the direction of Charlotte.

Magistrate's Court.

Chas. Walker, charged with an assault and battery upon Wm. Borden, striking him with a sling shot and bruising his head very badly, had a preliminary hearing before Justice Mills yesterday, and the defendant was required to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he went to jail. These were both seamen.

"Scattie," another seaman, was convicted of an assault and battery upon Wm. Borden, and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

Wm. Borden was next arraigned on the charge of assault and battery upon Chas. Walker, and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs, in default of which he was sent to jail.

Riley Mosely, colored, had a hearing before J. C. Hill, J. P., charged with assault and battery upon his wife, and "battering" Officer Statcher, who went to arrest him. He was placed under bond in the sum of $250 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Adeline Hill, charged with assault and battery upon Simon Hite, (both colored), was required to pay the costs under a suspension of judgment.

Criminal Court.

The following cases were disposed of by this Court yesterday: State vs. J. C. Beatty, charged with larceny. Defendant found not guilty and discharged.

State vs. John Revis, charged with larceny. Contined.

State vs. J. D. Orrell, charged with assault and battery in the arrest of a prisoner. Juror withdrawn and mistrial.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today: For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, westerly winds and generally colder, followed in west portions by slowly rising temperature and higher barometer.

Is Well Satisfied. Mr. T. H. Massey, of Westmoreland county, Virginia, who came here a few days ago on a prospecting tour, looking at the land hereabouts, with the view of purchasing if suited and going into the trucking business on an extensive scale, is, we understand, very much pleased with what he has seen, and surprised that more progress has not been made in this direction. He also expressed his surprise that even our farmers themselves buy Irish potatoes, onions, beets, turnips, celery, carrots, etc., from the North for winter use, when these vegetables could so easily be raised by them here at home.

Mr. Massey also thinks this immediate section adapted to the raising of blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, gooseberries, etc. Our people make too little effort to let capitalists and others at a distance know what facilities for investment this section holds out. They also take too little interest in encouraging investments on the part of capitalists.

Rocky Point High School.

This young institution of learning is now in a flourishing condition. The Academy property of the old board of trustees has been transferred to the Methodist denomination of the Topsail circuit, for school purposes, and a new board of managers has been appointed by the Quarterly Methodist Conference of that circuit. This new board consists of Messrs. F. H. Bell and John E. Durham and Dr. S. S. Satchwell. The board are fortunate in having secured the services as principal of Prof. J. C. Crisp, a prominent Methodist minister, and senior pastor of the Topsail circuit. He has imparted new life to the institution, and it is now on a permanent basis, and was recognized as a high school by the last annual Methodist Conference.

Charged With Battery.

Two young white men—whose names, upon earnest request, and with deference to the age and respectability of the parents of the accused, we omit—were arrested and had a hearing before Justice Hall yesterday morning, charged with the larceny of a barrel of kerosene oil, the property of Messrs. Ches, Carley & Co., and were sent to jail in default of security in the sum of $150, each, for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Public Entertainment at Rocky Point.

We are requested to state that a public lecture and concert will come off at Rocky Point in March, the precise time to be hereafter stated in these columns. The object is to afford public instruction and to raise funds in the interest of the High School at that place. Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of this city, will deliver the lecture, and his subject will be "The Educated Farmer and Mechanic." A rich treat and a fine time may be expected.

Personal.

Mr. Julius Scott, a popular Pennsylvania landlord and formerly of the firm of Keen, Scott & Co., clothiers of Wilmington, in ante bellum times, is in the city for a few days.

For the Star.

Mr. Editor:—While in Raleigh recently I was forcibly struck with the changed position this section of North Carolina now occupies in the public view. Heretofore the reflection that we had so little voice, and were so little considered, in the affairs of State was sad indeed, and the visitor from Wilmington in Raleigh was forced mournfully to regard himself as merely a "looker-on in Vienna," though in the capital of his own State. Possibly the fault of this state of affairs was with ourselves, and owing to our lack of effort and assertion. At all events, the change is most agreeable and gratifying, and tends to reassure us and strengthen our pride in North Carolina as participators in the conduct of her affairs.

We are indebted for the present recognition that we enjoy to Major C. M. Stegman, our Lieut. Governor. Almost entirely and upon him we should bestow all possible praise. He is deservedly very popular in Raleigh among representative men from all over the State, and he has achieved distinction both as an official and as a soldier. He is considered an excellent presiding officer, fair and impartial in his rulings, yet firm and determined, and is heartily supported by the Senate over which he so ably presides. The prestige he has won for himself naturally reflects on the section whence he hails. His success and the high position he occupies has not lessened his regard for Wilmington and Wilmingtonians. On the contrary, he extends a general welcome to every one, and will be well pleased to be of any service possible. He is alive to all wants and watchful of all interests, and it is doubtful whether our dependence could be better placed. If any reader doubts this he has only to visit Raleigh, Mr. Editor, and be convinced. X.
