MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The State Assembly of New York adopted a resolution calling on Congress to pass the Grant retirement bill. — Minister Lowell's wife is very low in London, and her death is expected. — Arabs are deserting from Metemneh in large numbers and entering the British camps. — The business portion of the town of Marshall, Ill., burned. — The schooner A. F. Crockett, lumber laden, near Savannah for New York, was wrecked near Orracoque, N. C.; crew saved. — Henry Lewis was frozen to death near Prince George Court House, Va. — New York market: Money 2½ per cent.; cotton firm at 11 3/16 to 11 7/16; southern flour steady at $3 20 to 57; wheat, ungraded, 87 to 88; corn, ungraded, 51 to 52; spirits steady at 1 23/4 to 1 27/4; spirits turpentine dull at 30 to 30 1/4.

In England recently a calf fetched $3,250 at a public sale. It was from Bella, the famous Hereford cow.

Miss Mary Anderson has played the one hundredth night of Juliet at the Lyceum Theatre, London.

In England already a reaction has set in against continuing the war in the Indian and the programme of slaughter. How fickle!

It is pleasant to know that the steamship subsidy scheme (John Roush, the inevitable) came to grief in the House. The Lobby has once more been vanquished by the friends of reform.

We surrender. She was but 116 years old, and she was born in North Carolina and went first to Kentucky and then to Illinois. She was known as "Auntie Wilmore" and there was no record of her birth. That is all.

The mere talk of putting Judge Thurman in the Cabinet fairly convinced the lobby and the Pacific Railroad managers. The STAR would indeed be glad to see the ablest of living Democrats in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet.

The New York World of Monday makes the alarming announcement that there are more than 75,000 idle working men and women in that city alone. It says every trade and industry is suffering from over-production.

The State Senate has decided that it is all right to sell cigars and cigarettes to boys under 12 years of age. Now it ought to repeal the law about selling liquor to minors. The one interferes as much as the other with the largest liberty.

Talmage wants Bob Ingersoll arrested and put in jail for blasphemy. Now what does the blatant infidel want done with Talmage? Beecher says that an infidel can be acceptable to God. What shall there be done with Beecher? Yoke him and Bob together.

The Philadelphia Times of Monday has this to start a long article with:

There are 2,000 Italian slaves under the padrone system in this city. This is a card of one of the leading padrones:

ANTONIA SPALLETTO, 727 South Seventh St., Philada. Italian Deputy. Contractors furnished with men at short notice.

In the United States in 1884, there were 4,088 books published against 3,481 for 1883. Fiction led with 943; law next with 455; theology next with 380; juvenile books, 358; education, &c., 227; poetry and drama, 209; medical science, hygiene, &c., 186; biography, memoirs, 178; social and political science, 168; useful arts, 154; travels, &c., 136; physical and mathematical science, 134; history, 116, and five or six other classifications the remainder.

We notice that when elections are held in the counties to adopt or reject a stock law that generally it is rejected. Of course. There are far more people who do not build fences and own lands than there are people who do build fences and own lands. It is a hard law that prevents those interested from deciding as to what is best and what they prefer. We have no right to oppress others by wrong voting. The fence-builders are the people to vote.

There is one legislator in the New York Assembly who has the courage of conviction and is manly enough to vote as he thinks. He voted "solita-

THE MORNING STAR.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
MUNSON—They are here.
J. C. MURDOCK—Warner's tablets.
MASONIC—Meeting Orient Lodge.
D. L. GORE—Horses, wagon, etc.
P. CUMMING & Co.—Grain, hay, etc.
C. H. ROBINSON—Administrator's notice.

Spirits Turpentine.
—The Graham Gleaser has begun its eleventh year. It is a good country paper and merits success.
—Wilson Advance: Mr. J. C. White, of Cypress township, Franklin county, has a white oak tree which, one foot above the ground, measures ten feet in diameter.
—The Asheville Advance says a stranger rewarded a negro man with ten cents for finding his pocket book for him which contained $800. Where came he and whether did he go?
—Scotland Neck Democrat: Mr. J. G. Shields killed ninety hogs last Wednesday. It was indeed a fine sight to see them being brought through town from his farm to his residence.
—New Berne Journal: Several oyster boats were in market yesterday. The carrying capacity was at work. Shad were retailed in market yesterday at $1.00 per pair for bucks and $2.00 for roes.
—Shelby New Era: A negro child was born near town a day or two ago with eyes in the forehead, two inches and a half above the proper place. Its face looked very much like that of an owl, and the eyes themselves were like frog's eyes.
—Graham Gleaser: On Saturday night last there was a row on the factory hill at Haw river, in which one Jones dis- charged a shot gun at one Voorhes. The charge took effect in the thigh of the latter. The wound is quite serious, we learn.
—The Western Tribune, published at Asheville, is the title of a new Democratic paper edited and owned by Francis Carter, Eugene D. Carter, and Nathan D. May. The first number promises well. It is a very neat and well arranged paper, and is furnished at $1.50.—Statesville Landmark: The fire at Olin, Thursday night, the 5th, has been the talk of that community for a week past. A correspondent tells in another column how it came about. The house was a two-story building with six rooms, and there was insurance on it to the amount of $450.
—Beaufort Telephone: Rev. E. M. Forbes has been sick, but we are glad to see him out again. The steamer Row- wood, Capt. C. W. Styron, plied between this place and Elizabeth City, ran on a buoy anchor at Harbor Island bar, week before last, and sank in 40 minutes. The buoy tender service is alone to blame for the accident, as the buoy had been gone for several months and had been reported.—Hickory Press: During the heavy rain last Monday evening about 7 o'clock, and while the agent, Mr. Henry Wilfong, was out to meet the C. & L. train, the express office was broken open and robbed of $60. We learn that a petition is being gotten up in Watauga county by the worst element of society to have "Lucky" Joe Wilson pardoned out of the State penitentiary. A counter petition will follow.
—Lincolnton Press: The thermometers around town registered 8 degrees above zero, or 24 degrees below the freezing point, yesterday morning. —Mr. A. J. Kelly, aged about 70 years and living near Lowesville, a few days ago accidentally split his foot open with an axe from the great toe to the ankle. Only a few days before Mr. Kelly's accident Mr. L. R. Shuford, of the same neighborhood, inflicted a wound five inches in length on his foot with an axe.
—Elizabeth City Economist: Columbia.—A negro girl some days ago was fooling with a pistol in the hands of a young man which accidentally went off, the ball striking her in the head and inflicting a slight wound. She came to Columbia, and had the ball extracted. —Currituck dot: The fishermen have done very poorly throughout the season, many of them not having made enough to pay board, consequently the majority have not stayed. Such a season has never been known before.
—Asheboro Courier: Several of our best farmers will try tobacco this year. —The building boom continues along the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. —Our factories are running on full time—a mighty good indication of a revival in business. —Prof. Johnson, we are glad to learn, has published his new map of Randolph and it is now about ready for sale. Price only $1.25. —Another prisoner makes a total of fifteen in jail. If court was much longer off we would have to increase our jail facilities. —The sheep and dogs had a collision in Pleasant Grove township a day or two ago and a dozen sheep were laid out, and from Trinity comes the news that eleven more have gone to the dogs. This makes 23 sheep killed in the county since our last issue, so far as heard from.
—Goldsboro Messenger: Gen. Ransom, who was sick in bed during the latter part of last week, is out again. —The Legislature has fixed the weight of a bushel of corn at 56 pounds, oats 32 pounds, corn meal 48 pounds, bolted corn meal 46 pounds, mesh 60 pounds. —As next month is March, the spring poet is already sharpening his pencil, and the waste basket yawning as usual. It pains us to hear of the death of Sheriff W. M. Hurst, of Duplin county, which sad event took place on Saturday last. He had been in very bad health for some time, suffering greatly from heart disease. —Sophocles writes: "Do you believe in the adage that the pen is mightier than the sword? Can't say, Soph, as we never use a pen. It's a pencil we hang to. The pencil is mightier than the sword." —Far away it doth lie, that City of Promise, That the pure in spirit may share, But delinquent subscribers, they never may reach it.
—For they are not wanted up there.

Local Items.
—There was plenty of ice yesterday morning.
—Receipts of cotton yesterday only 14 bales.
—The weather yesterday was calm, cool and serene.
—No cases appeared for the consideration of Mayor Hall yesterday morning.
—The storm signal was flying early yesterday morning, but was soon lowered.
—Three colored raftmen were accommodated with shelter at the station house Monday night.
—The STAR thermometer registered 32 yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. It registered as high as 53 during the day, and at 6 p. m. was at 49.
—To-day is known as Ash-Wednesday, the commencement of the Lenten season, which will be duly observed by Catholics and Episcopalians everywhere.
—The Norwegian barque Mathania, Capt. Pedersen, was cleared from this port for Hamburg, Germany, yesterday, by Messrs. S. P. Shotter & Co., with 3,925 barrels of rosin, valued at $6,000.
—The Front street market-man who slipped a cigar out of a friend's pocket, thinking he was playing a good joke upon him, changed his mind, and thought he was a victim of dynamite, when he drew the first whiff and the "old thing" exploded. He didn't know it was "loaded."

Criminal Court.
The following cases have been disposed of since our last report:
State vs. J. J. Hopkins, charged with assault and battery in two cases and with carrying a concealed weapon, was found not guilty in each case and discharged.
State vs. W. H. Freeman and Gabe Baker, charged with an affray, were found guilty and sentenced to pay one penny and the costs.
State vs. Geo. D. Reilly, charged with assault and battery, was found not guilty, the prosecutor, Amos Boston, being required to pay the costs.
State vs. Wm. Landisen, charged with carrying a concealed weapon; defendant found not guilty and discharged.
State vs. Fred. Jones, charged with slander; defendant found not guilty and discharged.
State vs. Chas. Walker, charged with assault and battery; defendant submitted and was sentenced to pay $1 and the costs.
State vs. J. J. Hopkins, assault and battery and carrying a concealed weapon. Ordered by the court that notice issue to J. F. Garrell and J. D. Sellers to appear and show cause why they should not be marked as prosecutors in these cases and pay costs of same.
One case of embezzlement was continued until the next term of court.

Church Council.
The annual meeting of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church was held Monday night, at which the usual election for Church Council took place. This body serves for a term of two years, and one-half of the number comprising the Council is elected each year. At the meeting Monday night Mr. H. B. Eilers, who has served as one of the Council since 1883, was made an honorary or life member. The other elections were as follows: Mr. Henry Haas as Elder; Messrs. L. Voller and H. A. Glameyer as Deacons, and Messrs. B. H. J. Ahrens, J. F. Rulf and L. Hansen as Trustees.

Dead Infant Found.
A colored infant was yesterday found buried in a box in the neighborhood of what was formerly the Union depot, in the northeastern section of the city, and reported by Officer Terry. Coroner Jacobs was notified, who had the remains properly interred.
This is the second body found buried in that section within the last week or two, if putting them an inch or two below the surface can be called burying. It seems as if some investigation should be authorized in cases of this character, especially when the indications point to a frequency in their occurrence.

The Engine Trial Yesterday.
The new steam fire engine "A. Adrian," purchased by the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1, was tested yesterday; first at the hydrant, corner of Seventh and Market streets, and afterwards in the neighborhood of the Carolina Central depot, and we understand that the trials proved quite satisfactory. There will be further tests, however. A fine collision was spread at the engine hall after the last trial yesterday of which the company partook with zest.

Lent.
Lenten services in St. John's Church will be held, as in years past, daily at 7.30 a. m. and 5 p. m. On Wednesdays and Fridays an additional service (Liturgy) at 11 a. m. Sunday services—Holy Communion, 7.30 a. m.; Morning Prayer, 11 a. m.; Evening Prayer, 7.45 p. m.

Personal.
Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the First Baptist Church, is reported quite sick.

The Subject of Tramps—How to Get Rid of Them.
Section 3888, chapter sixty-three of The Code, under the head of "Tramps and Vagrants," says that "any person going about from place to place, begging, or subsisting on charity, shall be a tramp, and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months." The next section provides that "Any tramp who shall enter any dwelling house or kindle any fire on the highway or on the land of anyone without the consent of the owner or occupant thereof," etc., "shall be punished by imprisonment at the discretion of the court, not to exceed twelve months." The next section says "Any tramp who shall willfully and maliciously do any injury to any person or to the real or personal estate of another, shall be punished by imprisonment at the discretion of the court." Further on we find that "Any act of begging or vagrancy by any person, unless a well-known object of charity, shall be evidence that the person committing the same is a tramp." And finally the law says that "any person upon a view of any offence described in this chapter shall cause the said offender to be arrested upon a warrant and taken before some justice of the peace, or may apprehend the offender and take him before a justice of the peace, for examination, and, on his conviction, shall be entitled to the same fee as a sheriff." None of the above to apply to any woman; or minor under the age of fourteen years; nor to any blind person.

We have been thus particular in giving the law in regard to tramps from the fact that the community is becoming more and more annoyed by them and being placed in constantly increasing peril from their depredations. We hear that in Brunswick and some of the other adjacent counties much mischief is being done by them. In many instances they not only beg and steal, but go up to the doors of farmers and demand something to eat, and, if there is nothing prepared, that a meal shall be gotten ready for them as soon as possible. In Savannah and some of our other neighboring cities the papers tell us that robberies and other depredations are nightly being committed, some of them of the most bold and daring character.

As for the tramps who take our city in the course of their peregrinations, we have heard a suggestion, and it has been made the subject of no little discussion of a favorable character, to the effect that if our authorities, instead of sending the tramps out of the city immediately—which is one good way of getting rid of them—should, after they have spent a night in the guard house, turn them over to Capt. Murphy and put them at work on the streets, we would pretty soon see these dangerous interlopers giving Wilmington a wide berth. The fact that tramps were arrested as vagrants and put to work on the streets in Wilmington would soon get noticed around, and we should probably be troubled very little more by them. At least this is the opinion of a good many who have given the matter some thought.

Baptist Organ Fund—Proposed Entertainment.
A meeting will be held at the residence of Mr. W. L. Meadows, on Market, between Sixth and Seventh streets, to-night, for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for a public entertainment for the benefit of the Baptist Organ Fund, at which there will be a hearing of the reports of committees on matters connected with the organization, who were appointed at a previous meeting. The entertainment will come off in about two weeks, further particulars of which will be hereafter given.

RIVER AND MARINE.
The British barque Harriet Campbell, which arrived here on the 2d of January, leaving badly, having struck on Frypan Shoals and broken her keel in two places, besides staving a hole in her port bow with the anchor stock, has come off the dry dock, where she has been undergoing repairs to the extent of about six thousand dollars, and will probably commence reloading to-day.

THE STABLES.

CITY ITEMS.
FORTUNES AS PRIZES WON AND PAID.—For account of Thomas M. Horton, of Shelbyville, Ill., there has been collected $75,000 for the first capital prize in January Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. Daniel Shutt, of Chicago, a visitor of the Exposition, was the winner of one-fifth of the second capital prize of $25,000 in the same drawing, which also resulted in an equal prize collected for account of winner by W. Kolling of the State National Bank, of New Orleans. The winning parties have all been paid in full, and would be very happy about their good fortune.—New Orleans Picayune, Jan. 18.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has unflinchingly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical novices, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—gives rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do miss up and their mothers are very happy about their good fortune.—New Orleans Picayune, Jan. 18.
