Our friend Hamilton McMillan, Esq., the intelligent and faithful Representative from Robeson in the House, has introduced a bill that is interesting to the farmers. It is to establish a Commission to be composed of ten farmers, to be appointed from each Congressional District, who are to be paid as the members of the Legislature. They are to meet at Raleigh, in September, to consider the farming situation, the sheep industry included; and to report to the Legislature two years hence.

- Henderson Gold Leaf: The new brick Presbyterian Church will be dedicated on next Sunday morning. The services will be connucted by Rev. H.G. Hill, D.D., of Fayetteville, and Rev J. M. Atkinson, D. D., of Raleigh. —— Mr. Thomas W. Currin had a serious mishap with a kicking horse last Friday evening. He was riding in a sulky when his horse began to kick, striking him two or three times in the face. Mr. Currin got an ugly cut on the bridge of the nose and lower part of the brow.

- Raleigh Chronicle: The interior of Dare is one vast cranberry bed. The cranberry is the bush variety, and the gatherers plod around in the swamp with mud shoes (a plank with holes in it) on their feet, a bag with a ring in its mouth in one hand, and the cranberry rake, with which they pull them off of the bushes, in the other. This cranberry rake was invented by a Dare man, and cut out of cypress with a pocket knife. But a Yankee borrowed it one day, went up North and patented it. The cranberries are all shipped North.

- Special dispatch to the Charleston News and Courier: LINCOLNTON, N. C., February 18 - A suspicious character was arrested fifteen miles from here in this county yesterday. He was found nailed up in an old house in the woods. He can give no satisfactory account of himself. He is sup posed to be an escaped murderer from your State. He is about five feet ten inches high, has a light mustache and reddish hair. His left arm is broken the wrist and elbow. He says his name is French Hampton, from Fiorida Keys, is pale and emaciated, and has every appearance of having been in prison. Our sheriff is holding him.

- Charlotte Observer: On the plantation of Mrs. E. P. Davis, near Huntersville, a few nights since, there occurred a bold attempt at assassination, a graphic description of which we have from the pen of the victim himself. His ac-count of the affair can hardly be improved upon, and we give it just as he records it: There was quite an excitement. Charles Grear, a colored man herd some noise out at the yard gate he went out to see what it was, on going back into the house some one shot at him. the gun made a long fire. he give a quick jump into the house the shot went above the door, there was counted 90 slugs of lead.

- New Berne Journal: Cotton is on the look up again but there is not much to be found in this section even if it should go to fifty cents per pound.

Snow Hi.l had a big fire last Wednesday morning about one o'clock, burning two stores for John Murphy, one for Thomas Harper, occupied by Pace & McKeel, two dwellings for Rev. Thomas Moore, one vacant, the other occupied by himself and family, and other outhouses. — Our superintendent, John S. Long, Esq., has completed his work of visiting the public schools in the county. He makes the gratifying report that the disposition among the people to supplement the public funds with private contributions so as to extend the session is growing rapidly.

- Wadesbore Intelligencer: Or Thursday evening last a little daughter of Mr. M. J. Cohen, aged about four or five years, was badly scalded with hot coffee. - Friday night some sneaking villain shot Leonard Pinkston's horse in the hind leg just above the knee. — The exodus has sustained a quietus in this section since Aaron | Marsh returned from Arkansas. Aaron, who is a well to do colored man of more than average intelligence, was a little dazed by the extraordinary stories which reached his ears of cheap lands and good living in Arkansas, but he was too wise to pull up stakes and go there on an uncertainty. Like a prudent man he decided to first go and see for himself, taking along money enough to pay his way back to North Carolina. On reaching Arkansas he soon found out that there was but little chance for a colored man to better his condition in that country.

- Raleigh News-Observer: Judge Seymour's "Sixth Digest" is now passing rapidly through the press and will be ready in about thirty days. — Yesterday the House committee considered the bill in regard to creating the county of Holt out of parts of Wake, Franklin and Johnston counties, and unanimously decided to make an unfavorable report. — The receipts of cotton in this market for the week end ing last Thursday were 103 bales, against 271 for the corresponding week last year. The total receipts from September 1st to Thursday last were 29,430 bales, against 30,310 to the same date last year. — Maj. Jas. W. Wilson, of the W. N. C. R. R. who came down yesterday, says the cold in the western part of the State is intense. The snow is deep and many of the streams are frozen. It is certainly a rigorous winter. - Mr. W. H. Julia Ford, colored, who is classed in the category of "old offenders," had a hearing before Justice E. D. Hall, yesterday morning, on the charge of assaulting and badly beating Laura Taylor, also colored, on Saturday night last, at the corner of Front and Castle streets, where they both have their place of habitation. The evidence was such as to show that the difficulty culminsted in an affray, in which both were equally guilty, and they were ordered to pay a fine of $2 each and the costs.

Lyna Calhoun, a colored girl, about 17 years of age, had an examination before J. C. Hill, J. P., yesterday morning. It seems that her father lives in Fayetteville and is employed on one of the river steamers. He was desirous of getting possession of the girl, whe has no mother, and she was thereupon arrested under the vagrant act, it being understood that this was the only way to effect his object. She was sent to iail to await the arrival of her father.

The Chicago News thus alludes to Scanlan's remarkable success at the Academy of Music in that city. He appears here on Wednesday, at the Opera House:

The most remarkable feature of this week's business has been the crowds which have nightly filled the Academy of Music. Not a seat has been found empty, and frequently standing room has hardly been ob tained. A more remarkable thing is that, for once, the people were right, and the entertainment was worth all the patronage it received. Mr. W. J. Scanlan is a young Irish actor of superlative merit. He is handsome in person, polite in manner, plays with a freshness and spirit not often seen, sings with a flute-like voice a repertoire of well selected songs, and has a piece exactly suited to his style. Dramatically he is superior to Murphy; musically he excels Emmett, and having the advantage of novelty, should draw equally as well at any theatre in America. He is, in Irish roles, the coming man."

HOWARD RELIEF. Final Test of the New Steam Fire Engine "A. Adrian"-The Engine Ac-

The Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1 yesterday afternoon had the final test of the new engine "A. Adrian," recently purchased by them from the Button Fire Engine Company, of Waterford, New York. The test took place at the foot of Market street, and was witnessed by quite a crowd of speciators; the company having left their engine house about half-past o'clock. The engine being in position, with cold water of the temperature of 884 degrees in the boiler, which is only a little above the freezing point, steam was made and a stream thrown in 3.38. This, of course, will be bettered in summer, when the temperature of the water in the botler at the start will be about 80 degrees.

The test as to quick steaming having been settled satisfactorily, the next point was to see how far the engine could throw through one thousand (1,000) feet of hose, which resulted in a stream being thrown a distance of 175 feet. This could have been improved upon but for the fact that the hose could not stand a full pressure, as it was already bursting in some places under a steam pressure of 110 and a water pressure of about 200 pounds. The wind was also against the stream. The next trial was to see how far she would throw a stream horizontaly through 100 feet of hose, and 265 feet was the result.

Then two streams were thrown through the same length of hose (100 feet), perpendicularly a distance of 195 feet. This completed the tests, and it was found that the committee and the Company were equally well pleased with the result.

The new engine is nickel-plated throughout, is a double-pump engine, and has a capacity of more than 500 gallons per minute. It has all the latest improvements belonging to a steam fire engine, the brakes and gongs being controlled by the

The Company will accept the new engine and the old one will be returned to the factory where it was purchased; both the old and the new engines being from the Button Manufacturing Company's works, at Waterford, N. Y.

The hose carriage of the Company has been repainted, and appeared yesterday on the streets for the first time, as bright as if

Rev. Dr. Wilson to Leave Us.

Rev. Jos. R. Wilson, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church, announced from his pulpit yesterday that he had accepted a call to the Southwestern University, at Clarkton, Tennessee, and called for a congregational meeting of his charge on Thursday night next to join him in asking the Wilmington Presbytery to dissolve his relations with the Church. Dr. Wilson, we learn, is to be Professor of Theology in this new University, when it shall have been organized.

Rev. Dr. Wilson became pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in the early part of the year 1874, having received a unanimous call on the 10th of March of that year, while Professor of Theology in the Columbia (S. C.) Theological Seminary, and soon afterwards accepted and entered upon the discharge of his duties. Since that time he has served his congregation with great faithfulness and ability, while he has endeared himself to the community generally. We understand that Dr. Wilson is willing to undergo the sacrifice which this change involves because he believes that it will be but obeying the promptings of duty. Wilmington will part with him with regret.

The Fence Law as Amended and

Senator Chadbourn informs us that the fence law, which was once defeated by the Legislature, was finally passed in an amended form, to-wit: Whenever a majority of the land owners of the four agricultural townships of New Hanover county-Cape Fear, Harnett, Masonboro and Federal Point, as appears from the tax books of 1884-shall petition the Board of County Commissioners to grant them the benefits of what is known as the fence law, the Board shall authorize the same.

Destruction of the Warsaw High

Our citizens were pained at the announcement received in this city Sunday morning, to the effect that the buildings known as the Warsaw High School, at Warsaw, Duplin county, had been destroyed by fire on the previous night, about 8 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue or from the explosion of a lamp, but nothing is known certainly in regard to its origin. The buildings burned, which constitute the High School property, were valued at about $6,000, were the property of the Eastern Baptist Association, and were not insured. The furniture was insured for $750 in the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company, represented in this city by Messre, Jno. W. Gordon & Smith, which it is said will about cover the loss. Rev. W. M. Kennedy and his son, Mr. D. S. Kennedy, were conducting a flourishing school at that place. Rev. Mr. Kennedy has the heartfelt sympathy of his many friends in Wilmington in the misfortune that has befallen him, who at the same time indulge the hope that it may result in only a temporary inconvenience with its attendant drawbacks, which latter may not prove at all serious to himself and son.

A Memorable Day.

Sunday was not only Washington's birth day, but the twentieth anniversary of the evacuation of Wilmington by the Confederate forces under Gen. Hoke and the occupation of the same by the Federal Generals, Terry and Schofield, which took place on the 22d of February, 1865. Anniversray Ball,

For the Star. A SUGGESTION.

In connection with our Criminal Court I think a great improvement could be made by so changing the law as to allow the County Commissioners to appoint a compe tent man to be foreman of the grand juries for a term, say one year, whose duty it shall be to inform himself as to all cases likely to come before the grand jury. He would then know who were the witnesses and how to examine them to bring out all the facts. This would expedite the business, shorten the term, and keep out of court many use less cases that are either dismissed or found not suits. It would also snable the grand jury to send up for trial some cases that are now thrown out by the grand jury for want of the right witnesses, or its inability to bring out the facts by reason of ignorance of the case.

By conference between the foreman and the solicitor the latter would be greatly assisted in his work. This would be especially so in the country, if adopted for all the courts of the State. Having served a few times on grand juries, I know the difficulties under which they labor.

During the late term of our court I heard three cases in succession brought up for trial that no doubt would have been dropped by a grand jury whose foreman was well informed as to the facts in the SPECTATOR

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW:—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teetha lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do sign up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DALLY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup' Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Vision, New York City.
