VOL. XXXV.--NO. 145.

The South has one female writer of genius; one we have praised several times recently in these columns

She is a very remarkable writer and threatens to rival Mr. Cable. She is gifted with very great powers of description and she is an artist in a high sense. It turns out that Charles Egbert Craddock, whose "In the Tennessee Mountains" abounds in such striking character painting, such exquisite descriptions of nature and such a perfect familiarity with the dialect of a rude people she portrays with such signal power, is no other person than Miss Mary Nailles Murnow in Boston and is being lionized immensely by Dr. Holmes, Howells career seven years ago, and it is only his Cabinet; that he committed a blunder when selecting two of his Council from New York, and that he fell into a capital error by ignoring Ohio, New Jersey, Con-necticut and Indiana. If Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar should develop into a painstaking, hardworking and methodical Secretary of the Interior, he will astonish numerous per sons who have witnessed no such qualities in his Senatorial career. Mr. Garland will have the place that suits him best. Long ago, Mr. Conkling pronounced him the foremost lawyer in the Senate, and the country has justly regarded him as the peer of any legal luminary in the Union. He is saturated with the learning of his profes sion and has the elements of a genuine statesman and patriot. He could not be better suited, and is sure of landing on the Supreme Bench, the summit of his honorable desire. Of late, he has worn a brand new black coat, the first of the kind within my memory.

the curing of the last crop of tobacco there has been more tobacco sold in this market up to the present time than was ever known before. In conversation yesterday with one of our warehousemen, he told us that at his house alone there had already been sold two million pounds of the golden weed, and this being true, we are safe in saying that up to this time there has been sold in this market five million pounds of tobacco. — Rev. T. Y. Eure died one day last week. He was a man of fine sense, and had done a good work in his day and generation and has no doubt gone to reap the reward of "well done, thou good and faithful ser-vant." [He was a local Methodist preacher and lived in Halifax county.—STAR. — New Berne Journal; Mrs. Geo. W. Simmons, of Polloksville, died yesterday. — Will the Raleigh News-Observer publish the names of the committee that worked up the judicial district bill? The Democrats of Craven county want them to file away for future reference, say about four years hence, and then they should be placed "in the archives of gravity." — The following are the lesses and insurance by Tuesday night's fire, as far as could be ascertained before going to press: Building occupied by Smith & Credle, $1,500, insurance $500; stock of Smith & Credle, hardware merchants, $4,200, insurance $3,500; Doctors C. & F. Duffy, medical office, $700, no insurance, but furniture partially saved; Major W. L. Palmer, confectioner, $1,200, stock nearly all saved, insurance $500; W. H. Pearce, building corner of South Front and Middle, $4,000, inurance $800; stock in and building owned by Schwerin & Ash, $7,000, insurance $3,000, stock partially saved; Dr. Wm. Pell Ballance & Co., grocery dealers, stock $6,500, partially saved, insurance $5,500, building $2,000, insurance $1,000 Thos. Gates & Co., stock, partially saved, $5,500, insurance $3,000; Thos. Gates, building, $2,500, insurance $1,500; J. T. Hall & Bro., gunsmiths, building and stock and furniture, $2,500, no insurance, stock and furniture partially saved; W. H. Phillips, harness maker, $200, no insurance; L. H. Cutler, hardware dealer, brick building $4,000, frame building $3,000, stock $9,000, partially insured, and stock partially saved, J. B. Brown, barber, $200, no insurance; building belonging to Mrs. E. H. Windley, $1,000, insurance $500; S. B. Waters, bar room and billiards, stock mostly saved, loss about $500, no insurance; building occupied by S. B. Waters and Maj. D.W. Hurtt, merchant tailor, $2,500, insurance $1,000; Central Hotel, W. E. Patterson, proprietor, building and furni ture, $8,000, insurance $8,000; furniture partially destroyed; J. W. Stewart, livery stables, $1,000, no insurance; I. W. Hughes' estate, brick building, $10,000, insurance $6,000; Miss Hattie Hall and sisters, build ing, $2,000, no insurance; Mrs. Wm. Hollister, store and stock, $2,000, insurance $800 on stock; Schwerin & Co., clothiers. 8,000, insurance $4,000, stock partially saved; R. Berry, druggist, loss $1,220, no insurance; George Bishop, building, $10,000, insurance $3,500; M. H. Sultan, dry goods and house furniture, $10,000, insurance $4,000, stock and furniture, partially saved.

Miss Kate Carraway, millinery, occupied the last store burned. Most of her stock and furniture were saved. - Charlotte Observer: Mr. J. Gibson, from near Augusta, Ga., yesterday accepted a position in the new furniture factory of Elliott & Marsh, in this city, and commenced his first day's work at the regular starting time. He was stationed at one of the saws, and before noon had arrived, he had met with an accident by which he nearly lost a hands. The saw was running at a high rate, and in an accidental manner Mr. Gibson struck it with his hand. The saw cut off two fingers and mangled the remaining two fingers and the thumb in a severe manner. - Mr. Jas. W. Nelson, one of our well known citizens, was carrying dinner to his soff yesterday, about 1 o'clock, and as he was passing the "factory row," on Sixth street, he sud-denly became faint and fell to the ground. As he did so blood came gushing from his mouth and nose in copious streams, dyeing the earth about him a deep crimson. Several parties who saw him fall hastened to his side, but he was already dead. Dr. Bratton, who examined the body, pronounced it a case of death from a hemorrhage of the lungs. About two o'clock yesterday after-noon, a colored man was observed seated in Butler's jewelry store applying a small round stone to his lacerated lips. His name was Luther Wallace and his lips had been lacerated by the bite of a dog, supposed to have been mad. The stone which he was holding to his lips was a "mad stone," but as it did not adhere to the wound, after an hour's application, the hopeful conclusion was arrived at that it was not a mad dog bite, and the darkey went away happy. - Last Saturday night, the powder magazine of Mr. V. Wallace, in Salisbury, was raided by thieves and robbed of a considerable quantity of powder, including thirty one kegs of Dupont Rifle Powder. The local authorities have been unable to find a clue to the thieves. Powder stealing is common in this section of the State, as it has not been very long since one of our Charlotte firms was robbed. — Section master Carter, who is stationed on the Carolina Central Railroad three miles this side of Monroe, was aroused from his slumbers early yesterday morning by a big lump of fire that fell from the ceiling to the floor. He quickly aroused his family and made his way to the open air with them, and they had barely left the blazing house when the roof fell in, converting the interior into a mass of flame. Mr. Carter saved nothing except the clothes which he and his family had on as they left their beds. All the contents of the house were destroyed, in-cluding the sum of $600 in cash which Mr.

Edward D. Cowan, son of Mr. David S. Cowan, which sad event took place at the residence of his parents at Brinkley's in Columbus county at 2.20 P. M.

As an act of justice to Mr. Albert Isaacs, mentioned in the last STAR as having been examined on the charge of embezzlement and promptly and fully acquitted, we would state that, according to the evidence before Magistrate Millis, the only foundation for the charge was the fact that he collected a sum of money (about five dollars) and informed his employer, in the presence of a witness, that he should keep it as part payment of an amount he claimed to be due him by said employer.

Elections to Fill Vacancies. At meetings of the Directors of Oakdale Cemetery Company and of the Wilmington Gas Light Company, suitable resolutions expressing the regrets of both boards at the death of Mr. Edward Kidder were passed, and the vacancies caused by his death were filled by the election of Mr. Clayton Giles as a Director of the Cemetery Company, and Mr. Geo. W. Kidder as a Director and Mr. Donald MacRae as President pro tem. of the Gas Light Company.

A Small Fire. Yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, the roof of a dwelling house on Walnut, between Seventh and McRae streets, was discovered to be on fire. A wood sawyer, at work in a neighboring yard, hurried to the spot, and with the assistance of some persons living in the vicinity, succeeded in extinguishing the flames before they had time to result in serious damage. There was no general alarm.

An Uniucky Start. Three or four jolly sportsmen jumped into a cart on Tuesday and went out Market street on a hunting expedition. They had not gone far before the tail-board of the cart suddenly slipped out and left three of the nimble Nimrods sprawling in the dirt. Of course that was not encouraging right at the outset, but they quickly picked themselves up, remounted to their former positions and journeyed on undismayed.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—REV. SYLVENUS CORE thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething singe, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
