Young Martin, the slayer of young Percy Carrington, will be tried in May. Bail was refused.

The war cloud is thick and black in London. A collision in Afghanistan is expected at any time. The fellow who coined "mugwamp" must have been the same fellow who discovered "whangdoodle."

They are awfully sounding words. Within the last twelve days in the North workingmen to the number of 30,000 have been re-employed. This is good news for them and the coun-

Parson Newman, Grant's fellow, thinks that "the purest American blo d is found in the South." The parson says he likes the South; but the South does not admire the par-

Here is a good one - too good to be emitted. An exchange says:

"The New York Sun having remarked that 'it has been reserved for Mr. Cleveland to play the part of Joshua,' from way down in Rome, Ga., the Sentinel responds: 'It probably did not recollect at the writing that it was Joshua who made the sun stand still."

The Charleston News and Courier is very severe on Mr. McAden, and advises Mr. Pearson to try the effects of a double-barrel shot gun. It says among other harsh things:

The inevitable suspicion is that Mr. McAden's wealth has a great deal to do with the impunity with which he has played the part of a bully."

Col. Wharton J. Green did proper and manly thing when he opposed by speech and vote the retiring of Grant upon a big salary. His constituents ought to remember that. Col. Bennett, our able Representative, also did his duty and voted

The New Orleans Times says that the late Bishop Linus Parker was born in Kentucky. This is a mistake. He was born in New York in 1829. He died on Thursday, it seems, of paralysis. It says of him:

"The character of the deceased was one of great humility and modesty. His charity was unbounded, and he was noted for his dislike of controversy, both in the pulpit and in the conduct of the journal which owes so much to his earnest and well directed efforts. With all this he was a man of great firmness, and pursued the work he had chosen to perform without swerving even in the least from the rigid line of self-

If the legislators who took a hand in the legislators who took a hand in the work of killing the stock law bill for New Hanover could hear the comments of fence-builders they would not feel complimented. It was a great and inexcusable outrage that the farmers of New Hanover county were not allowed to have the privilege of saying whether they desired a stock law. Other counties were given the law when there was no test given of public sentiment. The bill as amended required that two-thirds of the fence-builders should apply to the County Commissioners or there should be no stock-law, and even this was refused. It is just one of in the work of killing the stock law those unwarranted, high-handed measures that deserve the unqualified condemnation of all fair-minded men. There is something behind not yet known to the people.

The Enterprise cotton mill at Augusta, Ga., has recovered from the great embezzlement on the part of its President, George T. Jackson. The property was burdened with a debt of $200,000 as a consequence. A special in the Charleston News and Courier says:

"In order to meet the demands against the Company, $250,000 in preferred stock had been issued. Since the issue $148,000 has been subscribed for. Second mortgage bonds to the amount of $100,000 have been taken up and destroyed, and $65,000 of the outstanding indebtedness has been paid. The net earnings of the mill from November last to February 1, were $18,600. The President is confident that in a few years the Company will be able to redeem its preferred stock."

It is well known that the standard of morality and personal honor is shamefully low in the army. Gen. Swaim has just been tried and whitewashed and Gen. Hazen is now undergoing a trial. Here is an item concerning two Lieutenants who have been dismissed:

"LEAVENWORTH, KAN., March 10 .- The court-martial of Lieuts. William English and J. P. Pierce was concluded this evening, both being found guilty. English was charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman and Pierce with duplicating his pay account. Both were sentenced to dismissal, and will cease to be officers of the army from to-morrow. A general court-martial has just been ordered for the trial of Lieut. Vasa E. Stolbrand, charged with duplicating his pay accounts."

Such occurrences are painfully com mon. Before the war it was a rare thing that the honesty of an officer was ever brought under suspicion.

Painful Accident.

A lady was walking down Market street Thursday afternoon, on her way to her husband's store, and was within a few feet of her destination, when she trod on some object on the sidewalk that had a sharp nail in it, and the nail penetrated the ball of her foot to the depth of about an inch. By walking on the heel of the wounded foot she managed to reach the store, when her husband made an examination and found that the nail had gone through the sole of her shoe and literally pinned it to her foot, and he had to draw it forth with a pair of pincers. The lady had to be taken home in a carriage, of course, and in the meantime the wounded foot bled profusely. At last accounts the lady was still suffering severely from the accident, but what easier than she had been.

Mayor's Court. George Weston, the colored youth who was arrested Thursday afternoon, charged with acting disorderly in the vicinity of the Purcell House, had a hearing before Mayor Hall yesterday morning and was sent below for ten days. He is said to be one of a number of boys who have been in the habit of conducting themselves very disorderly in the neighborhood of the hotel.

Personal. Mr. H. W. Shaw, formerly of this city, but now travelling for a house in Baltimore, is here on one of his occasional visits. Mr. R. C. Dudley, who has been spending some time in Florids, has returned to his old home in this city. Mr. D. G. Worth has been somewhat ndisposed for several days past, and has consequently not made his appearance at his office. Prof. E. W. Lineback, of Salem, was in the city yesterday, and it was understood that he would kindly assist in the parlor concert at the residence of Mr. Wm. Lar kins last night. Col. E. T. Bogkin, of Sampson, who nade such a fine record in the late State Senate, was in the city yesterday. The friends of Lt. Gov. Stedman are rlad to welcome him back home.

Nothing thus far has been seen or heard of the bodies of the three unfortunate colored people who lost their lives by the explosion on the steamer Wate, which took place on Thursday, the 5th inst., if we may except a rumor to the effect that some fishermen had found some mangled portions of the remains of a man some miles below the city, and that there were some marks by which they were known to be those of Neill Jessup. This rumor, which was being circulated some two or three days ago, could not be traced to a responsible source. It has been ascertained to a certainty that the three persons mentioned were the only ones that lost their lives. No attempt to raise the wreck has yet been made.

Badly Bitten by Dogs. On Thursday afternoon complaint was odged at the City Hall that two dogs had made a furious attack upon a small colored girl, named Lucy Phillips, daughter of Frank Phillips, corner of Eighth and Taylor streets, and threw her down in the gutter. She was finally rescued from the brutes, but not before she had received severe injuries about the limbs. The Chief of Police dispatched an officer to the scene with instructions to shoot both dogs, which was done. The animals were the property of a colored woman living in that English Visitors During the War.

As has been previously stated, Gen. Wolseley, who is now attracting much attention in Egypt, where he is superintendng operations against the Mahdi, passed several days in Wilmington during the latter part of the war. He came here from Richmond, having spent some time in visiting Gen. Lee and inspecting the army of Northern Virginia. He was accompanied by Mr. James Conoly, a member of Parliament, and another gentleman whose name our informant (Maj. W. L. Young) cannot remember. He went from here towards Charleston.

Fire in Wadesboro.

Fires are getting to be very frequent and destructive in North Carolina. One at Wadesboro Thursday night, originating in a saloon kept by Alex. Moore, consumed a block of four brick houses and one frame dwelling on Rutherford street, below the Central Hotel. The sufferers were Alex. Moore, building and stock; insurance $2,500 J. H. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Rsv. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
