Some changes have been approved by the Secretary of the Treasury as to superintendents of lighthouses. The superistendents of lights in the sixth district are now the collectors of customs at Wilmington, N. C. Charleston, N. C., Savannah, Ga., and Fernandina. Fla.

It is believed in Washington that the Senate will adjourn on Saturday and that the President will send in all of the names he wishes that body to consider. It is prophesied that there will be many surprises and that ex-Senator Jo. McDonald will get a first class foreign appointment.

It is believed that Gen. Graham will fight an important battle with the forces of Osman Digna before ten days. The British will leave Suakin for Berber, and somewhere on this line a battle will occur it is Here is what President Gilman says of Mr. Woodrow Wilson, who is where he is preparing himself for the performances during the year.

Lincolnton Press: The oat crop s an almost entire failure. It was killed out by the cold weather. ----While chopping stove wood, the son of Mr. D. Kin-caid had his hand badly cut with an ax in the hands of a little negro boy, who was chopping behind him. - Greenville Eastern Reflector:

On last Sunday a little eight year old son of Mr. H. R. Hearne, who lives in Belvoir township, was playing with his father's pistol when the weapon was accidentally discharged and the ball struck a little son of the late Mr. John R. Rollins, in the hip, inflicting a painful wound.

-- Lexington Dispatch: Mrs. H. Morton died in Themasville on Monday, aged 38 years. She was the wife of Rev. H. Morton, pastor of the Baptist Church -The signs of the times point to unusual activity in building this spring. One contractor has made contracts for building five or six dwellings besides making repairs and additions to other buildings.

- Reidsville Times: Two prisoners escaped from the tcounty jail last Monday morning. ---- Several families from Durham as d Winston have moved to Reidsville recently. --- The meeting at the Methodist church is still going on. There have been a good many conversions and several additions to the church with a number of penitents still inquiring the way of salvation.

- Asheville Advrnce; Dr. Lucas is shipping about five tons of corundum week from near Webster, N. C., to Massachusetts. ---- Dr. J. G. Hardy, for thirty years a practicing physician in this city and one of the best known citizens in the county, after a short illness with pneumonia, died at his residence, on Church street, last evening at 7.80 o'clock. He was a native of Buncombe, and for years has been a most prominent and valued citizen. He was 55 years of age.

- Raleigh News-Observer: The State Bar Association is to meet in this city early in July, when Hon. J. J. Davis, the President of the Association, will deliver an address before it. There are some 700 attorneys in the State, and each one ought to enroll his name as a member. This can be done before the first of April by sending e name to Walter Clark, Esq., Treasurer, Find enclosing an initiation fee of one dol lar. After the first of April all applications will have to be passed on by the executive committee. - Raleigh Visitor: Turnip salad

New Hotel. Richmond, Va., is to have a new hotel, $100,000 being already subscribed. Mr. Ginter, of Allen & Ginter, with four other prominent merchants of Richmond, subscribing $10,000 each; ten others subscribing $5,000 each.

In this connection it would be well to ask what has become of the project for a new hotel in Wilmington ? Surely it has not been abandoned. Every time we glance at the long lists of arrivals at the hotels a little south of us, mostly composed of Northern people of means, travelling for recreation and pleasure as well as health, we are reminded how easy it would be for Wilmington to have her share of this travel, at least, by having a first class hotel here, such as every Southern city of any pretensions is building or has already built. Let us have the hotel, by all means.
