The following concerning the opinion of the able Washington correspondent of the New York Times we find in the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle:

Secretary Lamar, the supposed dreamer and thinker, has surprised his friends by the practical and energetic way in which he has taken hold of his Department. As yet he has had no assistance from his Assistant Secretary, who is ill of fever, and has had the work of two men to do and he has done it thoroughly well. Because a man loves books and has wide cultivation it is no reason why he cannot work hard at the desk. We have seen several favorable no tices of his practical energy. The special to the World, dated 18th,

"President Cleveland is very much leased with Mr. Lamar. There is no mem per of the Cabinet who has more of his confidence and esteem. The Mi-sissippi Secretary has exhibited extraordinary energy and force ever since he has gone into the Interior Department.

President Cleveland is evidently bent on surprising the country and disappointing the politicians. He has made seven appointments without the interference of Congressmen or spoilsmen. In fact they were not known publicly to be aspirants for the places they have 'received. It may be well to have a mind of your own but it is possible to go too far even in that direction. The appointments may be excellent; we are only noting the method of the President and the public surprise. The Philadelphia Times says First Assistant Hay, of Pennsylvania, is "thoroughly honest and thoroughly competent.' It also speaks highly of Milton J. Durham, of Kentucky, for First Comptroller of the Treasury. He was on the bench at one time.

When we wrote our editorial on the Times's article on our second page we had not seen the Richmond State of Thursday. It has a long reply and shows up quite effectively the rather unjust and unfriendly comments of the New York paper. It accuses that paper of being guilty of "a gross injustice to Virginia." Its closing paragraph is this:

"And yet there may be a hidden motive in the sudden attempt to decry Virginia's advantages. The facts show that Northern capital is seeking Southern investment; that Northern men are coming South. Vir ginia's exhibition at New Orleans, small though it be, is as good as New York State's. North Carolina's is better. The North does not care to see its money going South. That is the meaning of the Times's gives the following information: "Miss Murfree was born at Murfrees bor-', Tenn., and is the daughter of a prom inent lawyer, who has written works regarded as authority in the Courts. Murfreesboro' is the location of the novels, Where the battle was fought,' and the windows of the house where the family ived up to two years ago overlook the battle ground. Two years ago Mr. Murfree moved with his family to St. Louis, where they now live. For a number of years, from childhood up, Miss Murfree was unable to use her feet, but her health is now much better, and she can get around with slight assistance. It seems little short of marvellous that, under such circumstances, the author should have been able to gain so intimate a knowledge of the mountain folks and their almost maccessible omes and environment."

Liabilities, of both, about $38,000; assets, of both, about $15,000. — A horrible accident occurred this afternoon at the North Carolina depot resulting in the death of a gentleman named Mac Barber, as we learn. It seems that he came down on the train from the west and while the train stopped at the station he went to a eating house near by for refreshments. The conductor called out "all aboard" when he ran to catch the train and stumbled over a load of lumber, throwing him beneath the wheels of the second class car, cutting his left leg entirely off at the thigh and inflicting a severe gash on the right thigh near the groin and a violent contusion on the top and back of the head. He lived only about 15 minutes. It is thought he was a citizen of Johnston county, and it is said at one time resided in this city. - Charlotte Observer: The contest over the Charlotte postoffice seems to be quite warm. It appears 46 be settled that a change is to be made in the office here, but who will be the successful man is as yet a matter for conjecture only. Of the three officers for Davidson College, elected by the Board of Trustees at their meeting in this city, some weeks ago, only one has found it convenient or possible to accept. The professor who accepts his appointment is Prof. W. S. Graves, who was elected to the chair of Greek and German. Prof. Blake declines to reconsider his resignation, and Dr. Witherspoon feels constrained to decline the Presidency so cordially tendered to him. - Washington letter: Senator Vance last Friday re ceived six petitions by express, while his mail contained thirty seven letters, all en-quiring about office. Fell Among Philistines.

Yesterday a man named Daniel Camp cell went to the office of Justice Millis and made affidavit to the effect that he came here from Laurinburg, on his way to Georgia, and that upon getting off the train at the depot, yesterday morning, he was accosted by a man who volunteered to show him to a cheap boarding house. He congratulated himself on his good luck and was conducted by his self constituted friend to a house on Nutt street; that after awhile he was shown to a room, where he proceeded to divest himself of his coat and vest and indulge in a siesta. Arising suffi ciently refreshed, after a short time, he resumed his cast off clothing and discovered that he had been robbed of $14 in money, and that his valise, with its contents of clothing, had also disappeared. He accused Daisy White and Fannie Elmore, two white women, with having perpetrated the robbery, and warrants were issued upon which they were soon after arrested. Upon their preliminary examination, however, the evidence was deemed insufficient to convict, the defendants were discharged, and the Laurinburg man departed a wiser but a poorer man.

Inspection and Drill of the W. L. Infantry.

The regular inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry Company took place yesterday afternoon. The company met at their armory, in the basement of the City Hall, at 4 o'clock. Inspector General F. H. Cameron, who was expected on the 4 80 o'clock freight train from the North, did not reach here as early as was thought, and in the meantime Lieut. Morrison put the company through quite a respectable drill, which was witnessed with much satisfaction by a large number of spectators among whom we noticed a considerable sprinkling of ladies and children.

Upon the arrival of Col. Cameron, the regular inspection took place, in accordance with law, and we understand it was highly satisfactory in all respects and reflected credit upon our splendid Company.

The Company was out in pretty strong force, embodying about forty-three, rank

CITY ITEMS. Coughs and Colds can be cured with a bottle of Sine's Syrup of Tar. Only 25c. For sale by Munds Bros.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a position of the Scathing and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
