OUTLINES.

Judge Gresham, in the U. S. Circuit Court at Chicago, granted a writ of error in the case of Mackin and Gallagher, sentenced to the penitentiary for complicity in election frauds.

about Tammany?" That power in New York politics asks for a division of "spoils." The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes on the 22nd:

"A new postmaster for New York must be appointed in a very short time. A leading Tammany Democrat said this evening that Tammany did not care very much who was appointed to the principal office, but was mainly interested in securing her proper share of the subordinate offices.

Cluverius has been held for murder. A dispatch of the 22nd from Richmond, Va., says:

"The coroner's jury investigating the circumstances connected with the death of Fannie Lillian Madison, whose body was found in one of the city reservoirs on the morning of March 14, completed their labors to-night. They were in session four hours, during which several witnesses were examined to ascertain what connection T. J. Cluverius, who is charged with the murder, had with the affair.

Spirits Turpentine. Goldsboro Messenger: Mrs. Polly Pippie, and old lady partly paralyzed and living alone in Grantham township, was found burned to death in her house on Thursday morning.

Greenville Reflector: There are three capital cases to be tried in the Superior Court this week, and knowing the fate of Irving Lang, the parties accused are filled with fear.

Wadesboro Intelligencer: The danger of allowing horses access to the canal oil bean is little appreciated. Horses and other stock which eat this bean are sure to die in consequence.

Waynesville News: Rev. J. M. C. Luke, pastor in charge of the Baptist Church at this place, died early this morning. He died about six o'clock last Sunday he complained of feeling unwell and went along and filled his place in the pulpit, preaching at morning and night.

Lexington Dispatch: An Asheville man wants to establish an idiot asylum for the accommodation of persons who disturb religious congregations.

Wilson Mirror: No, Ella dear, the twinkling stars these little lights which illuminate the sky are not really wick-like candles, but they do shine like every night.

Ashville Citizen: We are informed that the railroad authorities will proceed at once to fill the road from the mouth of the Nantahala to Red Marble Gap, a distance of twelve miles, and the trains will be run to that point.

Charlotte Observer: Mecklenburg Presbyterians will be in session this week at Paw Creek church, of which Rev. G. L. Cook is the pastor.

One of the chief Washington topics is "What will the President do from this ledge from a part of some of the finest houses in New York and other large northern cities. The ledge is located near the line of the Carolina Central Railroad, about two miles from Wadesboro, and has been worked on a small scale for a number of years.

Monroe Enquirer-Express: On Monday night last an unsuccessful attempt was made to destroy the college building by incendiarism. On Saturday evening last, near Little Zion Methodist Church, in Lancaster county, S. C., Sam Crawford, colored, killed Ernest Hood, colored, by knocking him in the head with a hand spike. The boys were each about 18 years of age. Crawford is in jail in Lancaster.

The following is taken from the account in the Asheville Citizen of the attempt of Georgia distiller to rescue some of their set captured in Macon county, this State, and taken to Highlands: The latter (Georgians) soon after put in an appearance and demanded the release of the prisoners, and being refused, attempted to force an entrance into the house, firing as they did upon the house. Three of the men got inside of the house with pistols drawn. The firing was returned by the officers and posse with fatal effect, one of the leaders being killed, another mortally wounded, and the three men who had effected an entrance were captured—after which their wounds were tended, and the remainder of the six men who had been arrested and were conveyed to Webster, reaching there on Thursday, and had a hearing on Saturday, Commissioner Davies presiding at the trial. Gen. E. B. Hampton appearing for the prosecution and Mr. Kope Elias for the defense. Some dozen witnesses from Highlands accompanied the party to Webster, and we understand several prominent citizens of Highlands were arrested, charged with being accessories or in sympathy with the raiders that made the attempt to rescue the prisoners. The three belonging to the raiding party who were captured were bound over in the sum of $1,000 each, but failing to give bail were jailed at Webster. The whole affair created much excitement in Macon, and the trouble is probably not yet through with.

Marinda Johnson, the wife of Prince Johnson, complained at the office of Justice Mills, yesterday, that her husband, who was before the magistrate a few weeks ago for abandoning her, and was sentenced to make a weekly payment of $1 for her support, is failing to come up to the requirements made of him. The magistrate promised to do what he could to remedy this strange oversight on the part of the "Prince."

BASE BALL MATTERS.

The North Carolina Association—What the Seaside Boys are Doing. The grounds west of Oakdale Cemetery, formerly the Athletic Club grounds, are being put in the best possible condition for the coming season's games, and the "Seasides" are showing themselves fully alive to the importance of being in proper trim for the exciting contests which are before them. The grounds are being enclosed by a board fence eight feet high in all parts except that next to the creek, which will be six feet high. It is nearly complete. It is also proposed to erect a grand stand at as early a day as possible.

The club will be composed of eighteen active members, from which will be selected seven of the best players to take the field, together with a "battery" of two professional players—a "pitch" and a "catch"—in accordance with the terms of the Association.

There are six clubs in the North Carolina Association, hailing from Raleigh, Goldsboro, Durham, Oxford, Henderson and Wilmington. During the campaign there will be twenty games played with the Association in Wilmington, two of which will come off on the 13th and 18th of May. Ten of the games will be played before the Seaside leave home on their first trip, which will be some time in June. After playing ten games at other points they will return home and play ten games with clubs of the Association, and then they will close the season with ten more at other points.

Arrangements have already been made for the proper accommodation of the visiting clubs, and for their transportation hither. Reduced back rates will also be obtained for transportation to the grounds of parties desiring to witness the sport.

The young men of the bat and ball promise us a lively season, and the games will be the occasion of visits from quite a number of our up-country friends, which will have a good effect in more ways than one. We hope to see our young friends properly encouraged in what would appear to be a harmless and healthful sport, only liable to the accidents and mishaps common to all manly pastimes.
