Sir Donald Stewart is Commanderin chief of the British forces in India. Under him is Gen. Sir Fredcrick Roberts, who is regarded by many Englishmen as the greatest living British soldier.

Now Gen. Graham, evidently a good soldier, is to be recalled because he has not devoured the Arabs. He is surely not responsible for Gen. McNeill's carelessness. Reinforcements are to be sent to Suakim.

Who will say that there is no honesty left in the land when the following item is true, taken from the Hawkinsville (Ga.) Dispatch:

"We know a man who last week rode in his buggy 50 miles to meet a party and pay an account of $50."

On the 5th of February Gen. Baker Pasha advanced from Trinkitat and marching thence with 3,800 men he had got ten miles when he was suddenly attacked with great vigor by a large force of Arabs. His troops were nearly destroyed. The General was wounded and his best officers killed. The actual number slaughtered was-officers 96, soldiers 2,250. Baker got back to Suakim with his remnant. Does history repeat itself? Watch the operations in the Soudan and near Suakim.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes of Postmaster Pearson:

'He has not lifted a finger nor uttered a syllable to influence the decision at Washington, and, whatever the result may be, he prepared to continue to do his duty to the public, just as heretofore, or to step down and out. If he leaves the office one of the leading Express Companies, I hear, would be glad to obtain his services the very next day, and that, too, at a salary considerably higher than that which he receives as City Postmaster. He can also have a lucrative position in one of the downtown banks, where the pay likewise would be more

The President should give him a chance to take one of these offers.

The New York Graphic says: "Pensions the last five years have amounted to $290,000,000."

In the face of this there is a class of reformers that desire above al things to wipe out the $120,000,000 annually derived from the tax on liquors and tobacco. They are anxious to put the tax on the necessaries

- Asheville Advance: Just before going to press last night, about halfpast 10 o'clock, we were shocked by the announcement that Mrs. Summey, wife of Dr. D. F. Summey, had suddenly died at her residence on Main street.

- Salisbury Watchman: Owing to the lateness of the seeding season last fall, the wheat and oats crops in this county are almost an entire failure. Many farmers are plowing up the fall seeding and a re-sowing the oats crop. Others are pre-paring the lands for corn, cotton or anything else available.

- Oxford Torchlight: Died, on the 14th inst., at the home of Maj. T. H. Blacknall, in Atlanta, Ga., after a protracted illness of pneumonia, Solon L. McClana han, aged about 57 years. The deceased was a native of Oxford and was the last surviving son of the late Gen. W. S. Mc-Clanahan, and brother of Mrs. John Blacknall, of this place.

- Greensboro Workman: To show whether any goods are being shipped by Greensboro merchants down this line we will state that Messrs. Scott & Co. have made nearly four hundred shipments of merchandise since the road was opened to this point. - Rev. A. Holland Barnes, a native of this county, a good citizen, a worthy member and minister of the Baptist church, died in his 71st year from an attack of pneumonia at 9 o'clock a. m. to-day. - Raleigh Visitor: Five convicts were brought to the penitentiary yesterday; three from Halifax and two from Cabarrus. - The lecture of Rev. Dr. C. F. Deems at Tucker Hall last evening was attended by an appreciative audience, although not so large as we had hoped. The discourse was throughout, one of exceeding beauty, in word, action and delivery. — His Excellency, Gov. Scales, has made the following appointment: E. M. Nadal, of Wilson, a member of the State Board of -Fayetteville Sun: Capt. Jeff. Robinson, one of the popular captains of the steamer Wave, is now on a tow boat on the Pee Dee river. May he have success in his new field. - News has been received that Dr. McNeill, who was suddenly stricken down by pneumonia in New Orleans, has improved, and at last accounts was out riding with his wife.— In the case of the State versus Tom McNeill, for murder, the Supreme Court decides no error. We will probably have three hangings at the same time. - Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Rev. Dr. T. D. Witherspoon is said to have declined the Presidency of Davidson College. Why not recall Gen. D. H. Hill to his old post? Prof. Blake declines to continue in charge; and of the three newly elected Professors, only Prof. Graves has accepted. — At Cooper's Station, on the W. N. C. R. R., the hotel, and the store of Mr. W. H. Wilson, were burned. The election of Congressman Kimbro Jones, of Arkansas, to the U.S. Senate by a close vote over Poindexter Dunn. readily recalls two of the oldest family names in this county. And now we notice in a Knoxville paper that one of the most prominent members of the Farmers State Convention was our subscriber and friend. C. E. Dunn, Esq., of Leadvale, some 40 miles west of Warm Springs.

- Wadesboro Intelligencer: Another fire in McFarlan. This time Major Tollar is the sufferer. On Thursday night last a storehouse belonging to him caught fire by some unexplained means and was destroyed. —Old man Humphrey, route agent on the C. & S. Railroad, has been 'lifted," our citizens will be delighted to learn; but they will be surprised to learn that W. T. Gee, Esq., of Dove's Depot, S. C., has been appointed in his place, instead of one of our own citizens. — On Monday evering last, J. C. McRae and Armstead Greene, Esqs., left Wadesboro for home, a little while before night. When they reached a branch, on a lonely part of the road shout these miles from town they the road about three miles from town, they pay the costs.

were met by two men who fired a pistol and demanded their money or their lives. Mr. Mc. put spurs to his mules and escaped unhurt, albeit, he lost his hat. Mr. Greene was less fortunate, the knight seizing his reins and compelling him to disgorge thirty dollars in cash, which belonged to his wife

- Charlotte Observer: Mr. Thoms McCord, from Paw Creek, says there is a remarkable thinning out of canines in his section and that a dog's bark is seldom neard thereabouts. The people have been feeding the dogs on strychnine, and this diet is proving healthy for the bone yard.

On the banks of the Catawba, near Mr. Hugh Samples' mill, yesterday morning, a large party of people were gathered around the remains of two colored men, one of whom was named John Lucas and the other Ed Caldwell. The two bodies had just been drawn from the water and the limbs of each were stiff and the features distorted. The two men were drowned in the river last Sunday. — About two weeks ago a man from this State, giving his name as D. D. Long, went to Rock Hill, S. C., and married a young lady of that place. It afterwards leaked out that Long was before that a married man, having left a wife in this State, and when this rumor gained circulation a feeling of intense indignation was created against Long. He got intimation of trouble ahead and skipped the town. Yesterday a body of seven men left Rock Hill on the hunt for Long, and caught him in the afternoon, near Yorkville. They carried him to Yorkville jail, where he is now securely lodged. The young lady to whom he was married was Miss Alice Evans. Long has a wife and child living in Cherryville, this State.

- Raleigh News-Observer: Mrs. Robey, wife of the well known Methodist preacher, Rev. W. M Robey, pastor of Tryon Street Methodist Church, Charlotte, is quite sick there with pneumonia. [It is his mother.—STAR.] — The following gentlemen compose the various standing committees of the State Board of Health: Epidemics, Drs. Wood and Jones; water supply and drainage, Dr. Wood and Mr. Winslow; hygienics of public schools, Drs. Satchwell and Lyle: illuminating oils, Prof. Simmons; climatology, Dr. Jones; adulteration of food and medicines, Drs. Payne and McDonald: vital statistics, Drs. Lewis and Wood; sanitary inspection, Drs. Jones and Payne. —At Norwood, Stanly county, there is a case of paralysis that is attracting much attention. A young daughter, ten years old, of Mr. Martin M. McSwain, (a brother of the celebrated diconnected with the South Carolina Confe rence), has lain for three months perfectly motionless and speechless, not being able to move even her eyelids. She can, however, swallow liquids when put into her mouth. Her condition is the result of an attack of diphtheria. — There was no additional news to be gathered about the Henderson fire yesterday. The News-Observer in the morning gave all the details, accurately. The people of Henderson were even yesterday much excited over the fire, and hundreds of people were looking at the ruins of the burned buildings. The amount of stealing done Monday was disgracefully large. The guard house was entirely full of drunkards and thieves. The people of Henderson are already making preparations to rebuild, and in a few months handsome Unfounded Charges. A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange was held yesterday to take into consideration the charge of the naval stores trade of New York of fraudulent practices in the naval stores business in this city, as appears from a press telegram from that city in the STAR of yesterday morning. The Secretary was instructed to write at once and request a copy of the resolutions of the naval stores trade of New York, in order that such ac-.ion may be taken as shall be deemed proper. Much indignation was manifested by the Board of Managers at the unfounded charge thus published to the world by the New York trade, and it appeared to be the disposition of the board to take prompt ac-

of Wilmington was held yesterday. No one not knowing the same, however, would ever have suspected the fact. Our city has generally been noted for its quiet elec, tions, but this was exceptionally so. In the Second, Third and Fourth Wards the voting was all one way, the Republicans having no ticket out; while in the First and Fifth, the Republican strongholds, the Democrats didn't have much of a showing, many of them having failed to register. The registered vote of the city generally was very short as compared with that of

The "Seasides" have succeeded in fencing in completely the grounds on which they will play this summer. Contractors are now making estimates on the grand stand and seats and in a short while everything pertaining to a well equipped field will be finished. Since the Wilmington Nine entered the State League to contend for the championship every act of theirs has been characterized by an enthusiastic determina tion to stand at the head. To accomplish this it will be necessary to employ, as all the clubs in the State have done, trained professionals. The fence, seats, stand and repair of grounds will cost five hundred dollars, which has been subscribed by its members. It will take as much more to secure the services of competent experts, and to accomplish this, season tickets will be issued by the club, and the revenue derived from their sale will be devoted to that purpose. Oxford, Henderson, Raleigh and Durham have their batteries, and if Wil mington desires her club to stand well on the list let her business men lend their assistance to the boys in this enterprise. Twerty games will be played on their grounds, so that every one holding a season ticket will receive an equivalent for his outlay, with the additional privilege of seeing any and all games played by the club with nines not in the State Association. The "Seasides" intend making the summer an unusually attractive one for lovers of the ball and bat, and all the skill and pluck necessary on the diamond field will be brought to the front. All they ask is that the citizens evince a disposition to encourage their efforts to bring Wilmington to a level with Durham and Raleigh, and they will do their part towards entertaining the spectators. Any one desiring a season ticket can purchase it from any member of the club and learn from him what they are doing and what, with a little encouragement, they intend to do.

Lt. John U. Rhodes.

This well known officer of the Revenue Marine service, who was recently assigned to duty on the Revenue Steamer Wolcott, Port Townsend, Washington Territory, reached his destination on the 13th inst. and in a letter to a friend in Wilmington mentions some incidents connected with his new station, which will not be without interest to many of our readers. We extract as follows:

"I arrived at San Francisco in due time Had a very pleasant trip of seven days. Left San Francisco by steamer on the 7th of March, and after a pleasant trip of six days arrived at Port Townsend, Washington Territory. Like the Wolcott very All of the officers I have met bemuch. fore. Tuttle and Kenney are the Lieutenants. The climate is delightful. We are 14 degrees north of Wilmington, yet it is very warm here. Lofty mountains are in full view. Port Townsend is in the valley. Mount Baker, distant 114 miles, looks as though it were only twenty miles away. The mountains are covered with snow all the year round, yet in the valley flowers are in bloom with the thermometer at 60 degrees above freezing. I went to an Indian war dance last evening at a place called Neah Bay. There were about six hundred Indians, and their antics were of the most amusing character

Sudden Death. Jane McDaniel, colored, the wife of William McDaniel, who has a small truck garden near the upper end of Market street and peddles vegetables about the streets, died very suddenly Wednesday evening. She had been washing during the day, and as night was about to set in she went out into the yard to take the clothing from the line. The family remaining in the house were alarmed by the cries of a little son of the woman and hurried out, when they found her upon the ground quite dead.

Church Matters.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard leaves this morning for Rocky Point, Pender county, where he is to deliver a lecture before the Rocky Point Academy and attend a union meeting of the Baptist Eastern Association. Rev. W. F. Jones, of Morehead, N. C., will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning, and Dr. Pritchard will preach af the First Baptist Chapel, corner of Fifth and Wooster streets, at 5 p. m., and fill his pulpit at night.

oe Goodman to the Penitentiary. Sheriff E. W. Taylor, of Brunswick, arrived here yesterday on his way to Raleigh, where he goes to carry Joe Goodman, the notorious desperado, to the penitentiary. Joe was tried for larceny in the Superior Court, which has been in session at Smithville this week, and sentenced by His Honor, Judge MacRae, to three years in the penitentiary. The prisoner arrived on the steamer Louise and was followed to the jail, where he is to be temporarily confined, by quite a crowd, who were attracted by the fact of his being securely tied.

The Bird Law.

As there seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to the bird law as it now stands, we have examined the captions of the public acts of the Legislature, passed at the recent session, and find that the old law, which applied to the whole State, has been changed so as to exempt from its provisions the following counties: Clay, Cherokee, Jackson, Swain, Macon, Graham, Johnston, Tyrrell, Dare, Onslow, Carteret, Jones and Columbus. With this exception, the old law is still in operation, and the close season begins April 1st and ends October 15th.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A Benefactress, Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Strup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhesa. It softens the gams, reduces inflammation, cureswind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists.
