An awful thing has happened. Awful! A Mr. Lee and Mr. Parker, members of the Union Club, New York, were discussing some very grave and tremendous technical points in whist when P. called L. a "liar and scoundrel" and L. We are not disposed to indulge in any harsh criticism of the new Administration, and we believe it will prove to be so clean, so honest and so conservative that, in all essential features, it will be worthy of the support of the Democratic party. We think, however, the President has made a mistake in appointing Mr. Pearson Postmaster of New York. While this is a position of vast responsibilities, it is also a position of vast patronage; and while we are prepared to believe that Mr. Pearson has made an efficient officer, we believe still more firmly that there are many New York Democrats who are at least the equal of Mr. Pearson in honesty and efficiency; and to one of these we think the position should have been tendered.

The Madison murder is still the theme in Richmond. A special to the Baltimore Sun says:

"Besides the fact developed yesterday that the accused and the deceased were both here on January 6th, and according to the statement of employes of the Exchange Hotel, where Miss Madison stopped, saw each other, it is believed that other circumstantial evidence in the case has come to light. The authorities are directing special attention to the neighborhoods in which the deceased and accused lived. They hope to be able to learn something there which may throw some light on the mysterious death of Miss Madison. More systematic work has been done on the case in the past week than at any time since the occurrence of the mysterious tragedy.

"When Mr. Archer, chief clerk at the Exchange Hotel, visited the jail yesterday he quickly identified Cluverius as the man who had called on Miss Madison at the hotel on the 6th of January. Cluverius insisted that it was a mistake, but Mr.

Of the forty-eight candidates present for examination forty-one were males and seven were females. They came from all parts of the State, not more than twelve of them belonging to Charlotte. Of the ladies present four were from the city. Our reporter was somewhat surprised to find that among the candidates six were colored. The political aspect of the school, with the probable exception of these latter, was decidedly Democratic. The answers are sent to the commission at Washington, where they are graded and filed away.

When a vacancy in the civil service occurs, it is to be filled by a party from the State which at that time may be entitled to the vacancy, and the commission takes of the envelopes from such State, four of the highest grades and sends these four to the appointive power. One of the four is seected to fill the vacancy, and the remaining three are sent back and put of file.

Phosphate Manufactory in this County. P. H. Andrews, Esq., has just; returned to Raleigh from Castle Hayne, in this county, whither he came to make all the necessary arrangements for the manufacture of phosphates for the present crop, and the Raleigh Visitor learns from him that everything is in good running order, and that the firm are now daily turning out from ten to fifteen tons of their phosphates. He also says that the demand for their phosphates was very large, and that the mills are kept constantly running to keep up with their orders. The following named gentlemen are the officers of the company: Mr. M. J. Hawkins, president; Mr. A. H. A. Williams, vice president, and Mr. C. M. Hawkins, secretary and treasurer.

Another Runaway. Yesterday was a day for runaways. About 6 p. m. the horses attached to the Southern Express wagon started from the office and ran wildly down Front street to Market, when, in trying to turn the corner, one of the horses was thrown violently to the stone pavement, and dragged around considerably before the other horse was seized. The fallen animal was then assisted to rise and relieved of the harness, when he walked off apparently but slightly hurt. It was the first impression that he would be killed. The wagon had a box of packed shad in it, which was burst open and the ice and fish scattered about pretty promiscuously. Considerable excitement was created by the runaway.

Mayor's Court. James Kelley, colored, was before the Mayor yesterday morning on the charge of acting disorderly and using very abusive language near the corner of Front and Dawson streets Monday night, about 8 o'clock, for which he was arrested by Officer Piver, after repeated warnings. He was ordered to pay a fine of $5.

Exciting Bunaway and Narrow Es-

Yesterday afternoon, about half-past 2 c'clock, a horse attached to a buggy (the property of Mr. W. A. Whitehead), was being driven by Master Willie Whitehead when the horse became frightened and started down Market street in the direction of the river at a furious pace. Turning the corner from Market into Front street, near Mr. B. Solomon's store, the buggy commenced sliding and finally came in contact with the curb-stone opposite the North State saloon, the shock throwing the driver from his seat and hurling him upon the brick pavement with such force that it was at first feared that he would be seriously injured. As it was, he was badly bruised and cut about the arms and received one quite severe cut on the head. One of his wrists appeared to be dislocated at first, but it was thought at last accounts that such was not the fact. The shock which threw young Whitehead out of the buggy also prostrated the horse, but ere he could be seized he was up and going again. Running across the street the buggy came in contact with a barber's pole, where the vehicle was smashed, and the horse with the broken shafts dangling at his heels, dashed wildly down Front street, keeping in the middle of the sidewalk and causing a general stampede all along the line finally disappearing in the distance. He was finally captured somewhere in the southern part of the city, after tiring of his violent exercise, and was taken to his stable. The buggy was almost completely demolished, but the horse was not believed to be hurt much, if any.

Bad State of Affairs. The frequency of burglaries, robberies and arson is getting to be a matter of serious alarm to our people, and suggests the importance of immediate steps to check the evil. Of course there is a deficiency in the strength of our police force, It is impossible with a force so scattered to accomplish much in the way of detecting crime. There force, but they cannot be everywhere on their beats at the same time, and the thieves and house burners generally have their confederates to watch and let them know when the coast is perfectly clear, or when there is danger. The one thing needful just now is two or three good detectives, with a head to direct their movements. Such a force under the direction of our resident Solicitor, Col. Moore, for instance, could accomplish much in this needful direction. The time has come when some action in the matter is absolutely essential, and we hope that the county and city authorities will take into consideration the measures best to be adopted.

Won't Go-Series of Meetings. Our Baptist friends were no doubt glad to learn that their pastor, Rev. Dr. Pritchard, had no idea of leaving them to accept the call so unanimously tendered him by the people of his native city of Charlotte, though he would probably as soon go there as anywhere else outside of Wilmington. The Doctor will commence a series of special meetings at his church on Monday night next, in which he will be aided by Rev. Mr. Battle, of Wadesboro,

Fire at Clarkton. The residence of Mr. S. S. Carter, Railroad agent at Clarkton, on the Carolina Central, 46 miles from this city, was destroyed by fire on Monday night. The family escaped with a few of their effects. No particulars as to insurance, or the origin of the fire.
