Henry George is confessedly an able man. He is now writing a book in advocacy of the abolition of the Tariff.

Barrios, who was recently killed in hattle, is said to have been really a very remarkable man. He did a great deal for his country in the way of developing its industries, constructing roads, fostering railway and steamship lines, &c. He would have been wise to have let alone ambition.

The South will be glad to learn that ex President Davis has now mearly recovered from his recent sickness and that he expects to be able to speak on Mexican veterans' day at the Exposition, and will discuss the benefits that have resulted from the war with Mexico.

Owing to "machinations of unscrupulous railroad emigration agents" a considerable exodus among the negroes is going on in South Carolina. Arkansas is the land of Canaan they are in search of. They are gulled by the enticing and highly colored reports. When they get to their new homes they will find it is the same old story of root hog or die.

A verdict of $5,000 has been awarded to Mr. Bridgers, of Hendersonville, N. C., for injuries done to his son while playing on the turntables of the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad. An appeal will probably be taken. This is a wrong verdict. Parents should keep their children from the turn-tables. Bailroads ought not to be blamed for such accidents.

It is said that Miss Cleveland, secured the appointment of C. W. Buck as Minister to Peru. Miss C. and Mrs. B. are "cronies," Philadelphia Times says: .

"Mr. Buck is Mrs. Buck's husband, who has fallen into ten thousand a year. Mr. Buck is an artist on bugs, snails, worms, &c., and having exhausted Senator Beck's neighborhood without even being heard of by Beck, Buck wanted to pursue his re-searches abroad. This was communicated by Mrs. Buck to Miss Cleveland, and hence Buck will dig worms in Peru for a season at a handsome Government salary."

Services in the Various Churches-Music, Decorations, &c. Easter was a bright and beautiful day especially those wherein the joyous festival was celebrated with special services.

The decorations of this Church were beautiful in their simplicity. The altar was dressed in white with crimson and gold embroideries and a white dossal with crimson velvet orphregs hung behind it. A new brass altar cross and vases were on the altar sheef. At each side pyramids of callas and other flowers, with vases of out flowers at each side. ST. JOHN'S CHURCH. At St. John's Episcopal church four sep arate services were held by the Rector, Rev. Dr. Jas. Carmichael, including that of the early morning, the regular 11 o'clock service and communion, the children's Easter choral service at 4 p. m. with musical accompaniment, and the regular evening service at 8 o'clock. At the 11 o'clock service, (as on the two latter occasions) the music was very fine and proved an important feature. The choir was assisted by Messrs. Mitchell, Alderman and Schloss, who introduced two horns and a flute, the music from which blended sweetly with the organ and vocal accompaniments. Mrs. M. P. Taylor presided with her usual skill at the organ. The church was very handsomely dressed.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the usual Easter services were conducted by Rev. T. M. Ambler, the rector. The singing was very fine and the decorations handsome, while the audience in attendance was large.

At. St. Thomas' Catholic Church there was the usual High Mass, Rev. Father Moore officiating. The church was handsomely dressed.

the best housekeepers, bakers and confectioners not only of the South, but of every section. It meets a positive and realized want of the housekeeper for a complete, reliable, practical and economical Cook and Recipe Book. While the number of books of this class have been very large and many of them possessed of some merit, they have been largely failures in some of the require ments noted above. One has but to glance through this book to be convinced that it meets the real need of the matron of to-day in every particular. It contains over 8,000 tested recipes and contains, besides recipes, 350 pages of the most valuable suggestions relating to every department of housekeeping. Southern women usually know a good thing when they see it, and the many testimonials for "Dixie" from sources both public and private show that they have not been slow to gauge the merits of "Dixie" nor tardy in heartily expressing their commendations.

Watch this list and see it grow. mh 29 tf This Spring L'INDS US BETTER PREPARED THAN EVER to meet the wants of CLOTHING BUYERS. We were in the Northern markets early, and secured the pick of all the leading new styles of Garments for Men, Boys and Children's Wear. We have, and offer at attractive prices, this rare selection of Clothing, and we feel quite sure a call will repay the purchaser of KEADY-MADE CLOTHING, no matter whether you want a Suit for a Man or Boy. Our stock is large and varied, and the prices asked are lower than the average dealer can buy

We have maintained THE LEAD IN THE CLO-THING TRADE in this section for years, and appreciating this fact we are stimulated to surpass each preceding season's efforts to please our trade and constantly increase it. This week we will display AN ENTIRE NEW SPRING STOCK, and we invite every one interested to give us a call. Our MERCHANT TAILORING DEPARTMENT is complete, and our force of workmen three times as large as any other establishment in the State. We are therefore better prepared for the trade than any other house.
